

Queen Time Again! Fourteen Vie For Annual I-F Sweetheart Honor

Most people laugh at the old superstition that Friday the 13th is an unlucky day. But this year, Friday the 13th is bound to bring bad luck because of the fourteen girls pictured above, 13—that number again—will be unlucky tonight when greeks attending the Interfraternity Ball tonight choose one as Interfraternity Sweetheart.

Candidates chosen by their respective sorority houses from which the men will choose their "Sweetheart" are, left to right, Gay

1,300 UN Men Must Register

... In Selective Service

Approximately 1,300 male students of the university will register under the latest provisions of the selective service act on Saturday, Feb. 14, or Monday, Feb. 16.

According to G. W. Rosenlof, university registrar, 37 percent of the men in the university are expected to register this month. Around 1,500 men students have already signed up in the last selective service registration.

100 Over 35.

However, of these 1,500 men some have graduated, quit school, or entered the armed forces so out of the 3,500 men in the university about 35 percent will not be affected by the latest registration. One hundred men over the age of 35 enrolled in the university will also have to register.

On the city campus selective service stations for registering students will be located in the YMCA rooms of the Temple and in the Coliseum. To accommodate the ag students a booth will be located in room 304 ag hall. Stations will be open from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Advanced ROTC Exempt.

All students that have not already signed up in previous registrations and were born between Feb. 17, 1897 and Dec. 31, 1921 will have to register Saturday or Monday. The only students exempted from registering will be

Shirley Can't Produce Bird, So Gets Bird

Six-hundred men attending the Greek Week banquet Wednesday night at the Union looked and looked for the birdie, and the Shirley Russell, editor of the 1942 Cornhusker (reportedly nervous being the only coed among hundreds of male pulled this shutter, pressed on that lever, and touched every button on the much too complicated camera and the fellows never did get to see the birdie.

While everyone in the banquet room fixed their brightest smile

UN Greeks Will Dance To Al Donahue Tonight

Bull's-Eye!! Cupid Brings Love To UN

Chivalry is not dead, hearts and flowers still vibrate; boy meets girl—and Valentine's Day comes to UN.

If it doesn't rain or snow, the day breaks bright and blue...

about the time 8 o'clocks are dismissed. By this time scholars (no student would get up for an 8 o'clock) have hit the spirit of the thing and go spring-dancing home to find that the postman has rung—once, leaving an abundance of frilly paper and ornate poetry traditional as a gift to a good friend or loved one on the festive occasion.

Since all the UN people are good friends, there are a lot of these little jobs floating around, accompanied by their recipients who

Chicago Tribune To Cover Party

Dancers at the interfraternity ball, closing item on the first annual Greek Week program, will see their activities in print when the Chicago Tribune sends two staff members to Lincoln to cover the party tonight.

Eleanor Nangle, Tribune feature writer, will write up the ball and the campus in general and Andrew Pavlin will take photographs. The feature is one in a series of articles on "Youth on the Campus" which appears in the Tribune each Sunday.

Unusual Honor.

Formerly, the stories have featured Big Ten schools and the university is one of the first outside of that area to be included by the Tribune.

Formals and tuxes will be in order when the dance begins in the Union ballroom tonight at 9 p. m., but Panhellenic and the

No Black Cats Admitted to Ag Mixer

What was intended as a gag caused plenty of grief yesterday for sponsors of the ag Voo Doo party to be held tonight in the ag activities building.

Members of Omicron Nu, home ec honorary, that have been working on the party committees, announced in jest yesterday morning that a black cat, dead or alive, would admit the person bringing it free. They thought it would be a good publicity stunt, and that no one would take them seriously.

Objections.

Yesterday afternoon, they found that there were many people who either did not have a sense of humor

On Ag Campus ... Religious Council Appoints Leah Jane Howell as Head

The presidents chair for the ag religious council has been taken by Leah Jane Howell. Eleanor Crawford is the new vice president; secretary, Millard Ickes and treasurer, Carol Garver.

Ag students craned their necks Thursday morning as the clear songs of a robin sounded over the campus. Most of them craned, that is—perhaps those students from Scottsbluff rated the song as "old stuff" since some weeks ago newspapers carried the story of two robins which are wintering in Scottsbluff.

Uni Closes War Course Saturday

Registration for the war course "America and World War II" closes Saturday noon, according to Prof. J. O. Hertzler.

Student Stars Flash In Union "High-Jinks"

Quentin Pearson's baton twirling, the staccato of Jeanette Mae Smith's marimba, three in one blend of Theta and Pi Phi trios, mellow tones of Bob Garey's orchestra, a musical cast singing "We Did It Before and We Can Do It Again"—the grand finale of "High-Jinks."

Two performances of this Red Cross benefit variety show sponsored by the Student Union will be given tomorrow in the Union ballroom. Both the matinee at 3 and the evening show at 8 will end with this blending of outstanding campus talent.

Tickets at 30 cents each may be obtained from a Corn Cob or Tassel, at the main office of the Union, or at the door. Of the total, 27 cents will go to the Red Cross war fund as a collection from the University of Nebraska students, and as part of the Lincoln donation; the remaining 3 cents is collected
