

Spring Grid Drills Get Underway

Lettermen Available In All But Two Spots

By Bob Miller.

Under the guidance of an entirely new athletic regime, some 100 football hopefuls either checked out or indicated that they would in the next few days as the six weeks spring football session got under way under the east stadium.

Glenn Presnell is the guiding light since the departure of Major Biff Jones for West Point. A new line coach, Elmer Gus Holm, was on hand to mold line candidates into a forward wall that can carry on the Husker tradition.

Amen Drafted.

Since Paul Amen has gone the way of all good draft-eligibles, Ad Lewandowski has been assigned the chore of end coach, having terminated his basketball campaign on Saturday past. John Selleck will be on the sidelines as director of athletics.

Of the group that showed up for the checking out procedure and the physical exam, followed by a short workout, there were 21 letter winners, 26 squadmen from last year and over 50 freshmen.

Largest Squad in History.

According to the higher powers, this year's squad is one of the largest if not actually the largest squad to check out for spring football at the Husker institution.

After the shakeup in the coaching staff, there was no one left to take over frosh football next fall. Presnell has the authority to appoint an aide to help thru the fall season. Last fall the freshman squad was the largest and most enthusiastic in history in the head coach's opinion.

Weather Doubtful.

With all the checking out and physical exams out of the way, the huge squad can get under way. The only thing that is worrying them now is the weather situation. Usual March weather keeps them indoors about half of the six weeks period.

When the practice is held outside, football enthusiasts will have a chance to view proceedings in all probability. Last year it was closed gates for the entire season while the Huskers were practicing.

Seven Seniors Gone.

As for the outlook for next fall, it is far from gloomy with only seven seniors plus two others lost to the Nebraska forces at this writing. The seniors were Bob Ludwick, Kenny Simmons, George Abel, Clarence Herndon, Fred Meier, Fred Preston and Vike Francis.

Howard Kelly and Wayne Blue have departed for the khaki garbed forces leaving the center and fullback positions wide open. These are the only two spots not filled by returning lettermen.

To give some idea of the strength in experience of the 1942 squad, let's look over the positions.

Thompson Back.

The ends look plenty strong. Marvin Thompson, who took over first string duties in mid season, did such a good job last fall that he was named to the Minnesota all-opponent team. He weighs more than last fall and should wind up his college career with an all-conference rating.

Jack Hazen and Gerry Kathol will scrap for the other wing berth. Both have plenty of experience. At the tackles, Vic Schleich and Joe Byler appear to be the best bets, as both are lettermen.

Von Goetz and Myers.

Herb VonGoetz and Lynn Myers are the leading contenders at the guards followed by Bob Deviney and Bill Bryant.

No lettermen are back at center but Forrest Bachman will probably get the nod. At fullback, Press will have some switching to do and it is our guess that Marvin Athey and Roy Long will be shifted over to fill the gap. Both are lettermen and have turned in good accounts last fall.

Metheny at Quarter.

The quarterback job will go to Fred Metheny who took over in midseason and won his place among Nebraska standout players. Bobby Cooper, southpaw, ranks next.

The half backs will be a hard position but not from the lack of performers but from an abundance of material. Dale Bradley and Allen Zikmund will be due for the starting call with Wayne Sindt and Howard Debus to spell them.

Held Ends Cage Career

Sid Held, senior guard, played his last game for the University of Nebraska Saturday night when the Huskers beat Missouri. Held is an all-conference selection due to his point making. The caricature is by Dennis Bruner, staff cartoonist.

Sooners, however, have placed second only once.

In non-conference contests the Cyclones defeated the University of Dubuque, 27 to 8, and lost to the University of Minnesota, 16 to 13, and Iowa State Teachers College, 15 to 11.

Fifty-seven percent of Dartmouth's living, known-and-active alumni contributed amounts averaging $16.75 to the alumni council's record fund of $196,000.

Twenty-six states are represented in Bennington college's freshman class.
