

BDOC Voting Closes Tonight

WHO will be BDOC? That question will have been decided by 5 p. m. tonight when the polls in the Union basement have been officially closed.

Candidates were very close in the race yesterday. Ben Novicoff announced last night after tabulating yesterday's vote, and it is anybody's Elgin pocket watch as yet.

BDOC will be presented tomorrow night at the Junior-Senior Prom and at this time he will be given the watch. Later he will receive three complete outfits from Harvey's, Magee's, Simon's and Gold's.

According to the Daily Nebraskan this year's contest has been the biggest on record so far. One factor which has probably had a large part in its success has been the part Esquire has taken.

With a circulation of over 600,000 monthly, Esquire, as one of the leading fashion magazines of the men's world, has and is co-sponsoring BDOC contests in 11 leading universities over the country. Contests are being carried at Baylor, Texas, and at Southern Cal now, while similar ones have been completed at Syracuse, Penn U and Northwestern.

Pictures of the 11 BDOC winners will appear in a spring issue of Esquire and the differences in dress in different sections of the country will be shown in pictures of the contest winners.

Innocents Confused . . .

James Monte Maloney Plays Prom Tomorrow

Name being discussed yesterday on the campus was Jimmy Joy, whose band will play for the Junior-Senior Prom Friday night, Innocents announced after weeks of mystery.

Actually a fellow by the name of James Monte Maloney will play for the Prom, but ever since his first engagement after graduation from the University of Texas, Maloney has been Joy.

Joy's band has played at leading hotels in all the large cities of the middle-west and east coast. He was a great favorite at the Trianon in Chicago, especially among the collegiate crowd.

Bill Marsh, Union director, said Joy and his band have played on all the major networks and were highly praised recently when they were featured on the Fitch Bandwagon.

Pretty Betty Burns is the soloist of the organization which provides plenty of novelty numbers including an unusual sax section and a well-received quintette.

Jimmy believe is "solid sweet" style with full ensemble. He himself is the only band leader in America who plays two clarinets simultaneously.

"Be there early" has become the theme of the Prom as Innocents encourage dancers to be at the coliseum by 9 p. m. for the "surprise event" of the evening.

BDOC, Prom Girl.

The new BDOC, the Prom Girl, defeated candidates for BDOC and beauty queens will all be introduced in a colorful ceremony, according to Jim Selzer, chairman of the Prom committee.

Council Acts On Phys-Ed Program Plan

Theil Names Committee To Investigate Proposed 'Defense Preparation'

Discussion of the proposed plan to institute several new voluntary courses in physical education and military science or nursing aid in accordance with defense preparation highlighted the meeting of the Student Council yesterday.

The courses as proposed by Dean Thompson and a faculty committee are to be under the guidance and support of the Student Council, and are to be so planned as to appeal to outsiders as well as students in accordance with the present University of Chicago set-up.

Student Council Backing.

The Student Council will be backed by University funds in its plans, and all organizations will be asked to cooperate including the present Defense Committee and the intra-murals organization. The physical fitness program already planned for coeds also will be incorporated in this attempt.

Feeling that perhaps too little was known as to the exact purpose of the plan and the Student Council's part in its program, a committee was appointed by Burton Theil, Council president, consisting of Mary Ellen Robison, Paul Svoboda, Marjorie Bruening, (See COUNCIL, Page 3.)

52nd Annual . . .

Contemporary Art Exhibit Now on Display at Morrill

By Don Woodmency. Timeliness, coupled with a desire to make art more appreciated, is the central theme of the 52nd annual exhibition of contemporary art now hanging on the second floor of Morrill Hall.

To help the average person appreciate art, two oil paintings, "Tiger Trainer" by Walt Kuhn and "The Growing Daughter" by Peppino Mangravite, are accompanied with preliminary sketches of the painting to illustrate how the artist works from rough pencil drawings to the finished product.

On Ag Campus . . . Judging Teams Selected For Fort Worth Compet

By Dale Wolf.

The Animal Husbandry department announced today that team members have been chosen to represent the University of Nebraska at the Southwest Livestock Exposition to be held March 14 at Fort Worth, Tex.

The livestock team coached by M. A. Alexander, consists of Harold Hansen, Don Roth, Ronald Jersold, Dwight Sloan, and Vance Pumphery. This is the second contest of the year for the livestock team. Hansen, Roth, and Sloan were on the team which placed first in Denver about a month ago.

Meats Contest. There will also be a Meats Contest at Fort Worth on March 17. The meats team has been coached this season by Prof. Fidler. Hansen, Roth, and Sloan will represent Nebraska in this contest. This is the first contest of the year for the meats team.

Last year Nebraska's team won the meats trophy and the fellows will be trying for the second leg on the trophy. The trophy is won permanently only after it is won three times by the school.

Filings open today for the position of business manager of the Cornhusker Countryman. All interested students should make application in Mr. Prescott's office, Ag Hall 301. Filings close Friday at 5 p. m.

Marine Corp Open to Frosh Physicals Are March 17

For the first time freshmen male students are eligible to apply for the Marine Corps Reserve, now being recruited on the campus. Any male student of the University in good standing who is unmarried and will promise to remain so until he is commissioned may apply, and those accepted will not be called for duty until they have graduated unless it is absolutely necessary.

Other qualifications for the Marine Reserves are that he belong to no other military organization, including army or navy ROTC; furnish written consent of parents or guardian if a minor; and be working for a degree in arts, science or engineering.

Final physical examination will be given in U hall March 17 and since students applying now would not have time to complete their applications those students can take their physical exams in Des Moines, Ia., any time until April 15 at the Marine Recruiting station.

Following graduation the men will go through a three months' training period. They will be paid $36 a month while serving active duty as a private first class during this initial three month period. In addition transportation to the training center, food, clothing, and medical and dental care will be supplied.
