

Advanced Drill Officers May Get Ordnance Unit

An Ordnance Unit, for advanced drill officers only, may be established at the university next fall, according to information received from the military department yesterday.

If accepted, this would permit cadets to be exempt from selective service and would lead to an appointment as second lieutenant of ordnance-reserve. Cadets for the unit would come from regularly enrolled male students who are now in the sophomore class and who have or will have completed the regular basic course in any one of the three units here by the end of the present school year. The same eligibility rules for entry as an advanced corps cadet in any of the three units apply also for entry into the ordnance unit. In addition, it will be necessary for each ordnance cadet to carry a certain number of subjects or regular college curriculum closely pertaining to ordnance training.

In order to determine whether there is sufficient interest on the part of regularly enrolled sophomores, a convocation of all male sophomores has been arranged for Tuesday, March 17, from 5 to 5:40 p. m., in the ballroom of the Student Union.

Curley, Kinder, Wennersten Head Women's Groups

Janet Curley was elected president of AWS, Anne Kinder president of Coed Counselors, and Bonnie Wennersten president of BABW in the women's general elections yesterday.

Miss Curley has been a member of the AWS board for two years, is vice president of the women's dormitories, secretary of the YWCA, and has been a member of Coed Counselors. She was sophomore attendant to the May Queen last year.

Anne Kinder has served on the Coed Counselor board this past year, was co-chairman of the Penny Carnival, is a member of Tassels and Vestals of the Lamp. She was a staff editor on the Cornhusker, a member of University Players and on the YWCA freshman cabinet.

Other officers elected to the AWS board are Janet Hemphill, secretary, and Joan Martz, treasurer. Phyllis Holbrook will serve as secretary-treasurer of Coed Counselors. BABW officers are Pat Sand, vice president; Eleanor Jacka, secretary, and Jean Car-

(See ELECTIONS, Page 4.)

Visitors Take Campus Tours With Guides

Co-operating with the Student Foundation, Corn Cobs and Tassels will take high school basketball players now in Lincoln for the state tournament on tours around the campus at 9 and 11 Saturday morning.

Students will meet in the lobby of the Union. By signing up at the registration desk they may receive cards giving them all privileges of the Student Union building while they are here for the tournament.

In Navy Setting . . .

Goddess of Agriculture Reigns Tomorrow Night

In a navy setting, the Goddess of Agriculture and her six attendants will be presented to students tomorrow night when the ag party gets under way at the ag activities at 9 p. m.

The ag exec board, sponsor of the party, is following the new university policy of omitting corsages at all student events. The theme of the ag party, which is semi-formal, will be built around the navy. Presentation plans have been kept secret, as has the identity of the goddess, elected by all home ec students.

Dick Mills and his orchestra will play midst a bevy of flags, anchors and boats. Tickets are on sale at the Union office, ag finance office and by members of the ticket committee at 85 cents per couple.

Chaperoning the party will be Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Prescott and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Minter. Special guests include Dean and Mrs. E. J. Thompson, Dean Verna Boyles, Dean and Mrs. W. W. Burr, Miss Margaret Fedde and Miss Gladys Ruby.

Uhl Recommends Hal Schroeder For Regular Army

Hal Leroy Schroeder, former cadet of the engineering battalion, has been recommended by Maj. Gen. F. E. Uhl, 7th corps area commander, as second lieutenant in the regular army, effective July 1.

Schroeder was selected as an honor student of the senior division of the reserve officers training corps, and was recommended along with five other graduates of midwest schools for the same honor.

Med School Seniors Receive Appointments

Seventy seniors from the College of Medicine have received internship appointments in 44 hospitals throughout the country. Dean C. W. M. Poynter has announced. The graduating class includes students from Nebraska, Colorado, California, Wisconsin, Iowa, Wyoming, Maine, South Dakota, and North Dakota who have received undergraduate training at the university.

Students from Nebraska and their appointments are: Ethel Irene Adler, Mt. Sinai Hospital, Chicago, Ill.; Richard Fortune Altman, St. Joseph's Hospital, St. Paul, Minn.; Gustave Theodore Anderson, St. Luke's Hospital, Denver, Colo.; Charles Ferguson Ashby, Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago, Ill.; James Baer, Detroit Receiving Hospital, Detroit, Mich.; Donald Fordyce Bellamy, Alameda County Hospital, Oakland, Calif.; Maxine Bennett, Madison General Hospital, Madison, Wis.; Wilbur Keith Bennett, United States Public Health; Norman Bolker, University Hospital, Omaha; Robert Bruce Bradshaw, St. Luke's Hospital, Denver, Colo.; Richard Frederick Brendel, Bryan Memorial Hospital, Lincoln; Louis George Bunting, University Hospital, Omaha; Louis Bernard Bushman, St. Paul's Hospital, Dallas, Tex.; Rex Nele Carr, Southern Pacific Hospital, San Francisco, Calif.; George Cullen, Ancker Hospital, St. Paul, Minn.; Roger

(See MED SENIORS, Page 4.)

Typical Coeds Tryout at 5; Skits Practice

Women Wear Afternoon Costumes for Judging; Acts Rehearse Monday

Next judging for the Typical Nebraska Coed, to be presented March 17 at Coed Follies, will be held tonight at 5 p. m. in Temple 201. Contestants are asked to wear afternoon clothes, and judges will be Miss Clara Wilson, Miss Mary Guthrie, Miss Clara Rausch, Miss Katherine Schwake, Miss Ruthanna Russel and Suzanne Woodruff, last year's Best-Dressed Girl.

Coed Follies skit and curtain act dress rehearsal will be held Monday night at 6:30 in the auditorium. Participants must be on time so that freshmen women may be in at 8. Schedule for practice will be as follows:

- Delta Gamma . . . . . 6:45
- Dorm . . . . . 7:00
- Alpha Chi . . . . . 7:10
- Kappa . . . . . 7:20
- Pi Phi . . . . . 7:30
- Theta . . . . . 7:40
- Alpha Xi Delt . . . . . 7:50
- Alpha Phi . . . . . 8:00
- Gamma Phi . . . . . 8:10

Tickets for the event may be secured from representatives in organized houses and residence halls, and all salesgirls will meet at Ellen Smith Saturday at 10 a. m. for a ticket check-up.

Stu Simon Likes Coconuts, Betty Grable, Wins Contest

Stu Simon's reasons for wanting to be stranded on an island with Betty Grable won first prize in the contest for fraternity men, sponsored by the Daily Nebraskan and the Stuart Theatre. Simon, a Zeta Beta Tau, will get a 40x60 inch portrait of the actress, suitable for framing and dreaming.

Judges—Daily staff members, Paul Svoboda, Ben Novicoff, Chris Petersen and June Jamieson; and Deane Pohlenz of the Stuart Theatre—favored Simon's entry, but Nebraskan news editor, Alan Jacobs, had another opinion.

The pro and con as to the relative merits of Miss Grable on an island follow:

Why I Would Not Like to be Stranded on an Island With Betty Grable . . .

By Alan Jacobs.

Won't wake up before noon.
Breakfast . . . ahh . . . coconuts . . . ughh.
One set of tennis too much.
Lunch . . . ahh . . . Coconuts . . . ughh.
Gin rummy, boring . . . chess, worse.
Supper . . . ahh . . . coconuts . . . ughh.
Have friends, can influence people, can't read at night without electricity, anyway.
Nightcaps . . . ahh . . . coconuts . . . ughh.
What a night (in civilization)!
Wonderful to be alone.
I hate coconuts,
Betty loves 'em, tho.
(I'm blind, deaf, mute, senseless, coconuts.)

Why I Would Like to Be Stranded on an Island with Betty Grable . . .

By Stu Simon.

Up at the crack of dawn.
Quick dip in the icy ocean.
Breakfast . . . coconuts.
Six exciting sets of tennis.
Lunch . . . coconuts.
Gin rummy or chess 'til supper.
Supper . . . more coconuts.
Read How to Win Friends and Influence People 'til nine.
Nightcap . . . coconuts.
What a day!
What a playmate!
I love coconuts.
Betty loves 'em, too.

On Ag Campus . . . Short Course Members Enter Judging Compet

By Dale Wolf.

The Farm Operators, members of the ag college short course, will begin to climax this year's training when they compete in the judging contest to be held here at the college this weekend. The judging will be in both animal husbandry and agronomy.

This contest is one that is looked forward to by the boys registered in the short course, and ample opportunity for them to apply what they have learned will be afforded in these various contests.

The animal husbandry judging will begin at 8 this morning. Professor Fidler, who is in charge of the livestock compet, stated that the contest will consist of the judging of six classes of livestock and two sets of reasons will be given. Ribbons will be given to the first five places.

The agronomy contest will begin at 8 a. m. Saturday. This contest will consist of the judging of several classes of grain and also the identification of seeds and plants. The winners of this contest will be presented ribbons.

Second Annual Audio-Visual Meet Starts

Conference to Provide Aid for Faculty, Others, Opens Today in Union

Nebraska university's second annual Audio-Visual Aids Conference will be held today from 8 a. m. until 4 p. m. in the Union building.

Purpose of the conference is to provide a chance for teachers, administrators and others interested in visual education to receive first-hand information on the use of audio-visual aids.

Morning Program

Lincoln public schools, the university extension division, and state teacher colleges are sponsoring the program. A preview of new educational films will open today's program, followed by a welcome address by Dr. K. O. Broady, director of the Extension Division.

Remainder of the forenoon program consists of three addresses—"Building for National Defense Through Visual Education in the Schools" by O. H. Bimson, assistant Lincoln superintendent of schools; "A Demonstration of the Use of Specialized Visual Aids" by Earl Whipple, Fremont elementary supervisor; and "Presentation of a Silent Picture" by Miss Vera Kalai, English instructor at Pender. Dr. Broady will speak on "The Relation of the Department of Audio-Visual Aids to the Schools of the State" during the lunch hour.

test will be presented ribbons.

This contest will not only give the contestants a chance to exhibit their knowledge but will also give them practical experience in judging. This becomes very important to those boys who will go home and set up farming for themselves. There it will be advisable that they be able to tell which "horse" is the better and be able to choose the best seed to plant in order that their life's work might be more enjoyable.

Each year a great number of students enroll in this course and each spring these students go home with the idea that they have spent their time in a worthwhile project.

Big Man, Little Band Dispense Music for USO

Morrey Brennan, "The Big Man with the Little Band" and dispenser of jovial jive with his featured vocalist, Alma Olsen and the Three Rays, knockabout comedy gals, and Arthur and Morton Havel—all will be in Lincoln next

Alma Olsen. . . . . appears in benefit show.

Monday night, March 16. They are stars of "Happy Daze" one of the USO camp shows designed to entertain the lads in the service.

Also the cast is sent to Lincoln especially for the entertainment of army students and staff personnel of the Lincoln Air Corps Technical School at the Lincoln Aeronautical Institute, the detachment staff cordially invites the public to share this entertainment with them.

The time is 8:30 p. m.—the place—the auditorium of Whittier Junior high school. The price—hang onto your hats—FREE! All for nothing.