

Pink Rag, Jr.
by Jean Baker

After much gnashing of teeth and pulling of hair during that certain radio program Monday night, we decided that turn about is fair play. Consequently, the following items are repeats for the benefit of those who might have been already slumbering at 11 p. m.

Long expected was the pin hanging by Marvin Athey, footballer DU, on Omaha lassie, Julie Frazee of the famed Delta Gammias. DGs also gorged themselves on candy furnished by the redoubtable Bob Sinkey, Kappa Sig, when he and Pat Cole tied another knot in their heartstrings. . . Just in the steady stage so far are Margie Kenner, Theta, and Beta John Safford. . . But enough of spite.

Culbertson and Haycock.

If the Alpha Phi house seems to resemble a greenhouse these days, blame the home town boy friend of Peggy Halstead, who has really showered her with green and growing things lately. Wonder if Peggy's Sig Alph can keep up the pace? . . . We hear from reliable sources that Max Whittaker, hearthrob Delt, has only played one game of bridge in his four years of college. Seems like Nancy Haycock, his Pi Phi pin mate, could remedy such a deficiency easily, her bridge playing being of practically Culbertson rating. . . In case anyone thought it was serious, we hereby proclaim that the Beta pin of George Cockle recently in the possession of Barbara True, Tri Delt, is back shining on his manly chest once more. Just a joke, they say, that almost backfired.

After hearing about it in shocked tones from virtually every Kappa on the campus, we feel some mention must be made of

Tassels Entertain National Pep Sorority This Weekend

Members of Tassels will be hostesses to the members of Phi Sigma Chi, national women's pep sorority, who are holding their national convention at Nebraska Saturday, March 28. The girls who arrive Friday evening will be taken to the University Players presentation of "Adrocles and the Lion."

There will be an informal breakfast Saturday morning followed by the convention meeting in the Union. The Tassels and their guests will lunch at the University Club and spend the afternoon informally.

The exact number of delegates is not as yet known but it was stated yesterday that over thirty were expected.

Organizations sending representatives are the "Feathers" of Omaha University, the "Wheaties" of Wichita University, Kansas State's "Purple Pepsters," the "Jay Janes" of Kansas University, the "Icadets" of Washburn, and the "Tassels" of the University of Nebraska.

the outdoors tubing of Bob Henderson, Sig Ep. Quite a spectacle, sorry, we missed it. . . The Sunday afternoon fight indulged in by Jo Beckley, Alpha Phi, and Claude Wilson, ATO, was still reverberating among Union cokers Tuesday afternoon. . . . Strictly a riot must have been the sight of Joe Walla, prize Sigma Nu, when he chased some Nu freshmen with a shotgun last night as defense against a cold shower bath. He finally took refuge in the Alph house. . . Water and more water seems to be the battle call of fraternities lately as the ATO junior class had their share of dunkings as reward for sneaking last night.

Army Calls.

A wedding that no one seemed to know about occurred last weekend when Joan Ferris, Kappa Delta, took the nuptial vows with Merle Reynoldson, Farm House. . . Plenty far ahead, however, is the announcement of little KKG Katie Coe's marriage on June 5 to former Phi Delt Bob Graf, now in the army. . . Also in the country's forces as of Monday is DU Milt Meyer, leaving Pi Phi Mary Larkin only his pin and memories. . . Holding their last Omaha initiation for the duration Saturday, the Phi Gams are planning a big weekend, with Bud Johnson and Maribel Hitchcock especially looking forward to the evening. Also dating afterwards will be Mary Thompson with Kay Hanley, AOPi, Al O'Connor and Aline Hosman, Omaha Theta, Jeannette Emmert. The coming weekend promises to be big and bright what with the annual spring party of the Phi Delt Friday at the Cornhusker hotel with Johnny Cox, and the ROTC Sponsor's tea on Saturday afternoon. Interesting combinations to these two will be revealed in future issues.

Foreign Publications Go To Library Via Siberia

On file at the university library are issues of foreign publications from continental Europe which have come to Lincoln from Denmark to Leipzig via the Siberian route through Japan to New York and finally arriving at Lincoln. Many difficulties have been experienced as the library staff has attempted to obtain publications from foreign countries.

An order for material from Denmark is typical of hardships encountered. An order for foreign material from Denmark was placed in a book jobbers hand two months after that country was invaded by Germany in 1940.

No further word of this order was heard until September 1941,

New Selectees Receive Special Questionnaires

Possible Induction Comes In May; Classification Determined by Questions

Recent selective service registrants will receive two questionnaires early in April, according to Brig. Gen. Guy N. Henninger, state draft director, who declared that "a few counties may begin induction of a few new registrants in May."

The first questionnaire will determine the classification of men in the 1942 registration for military service. The second is a special occupational questionnaire which first will be sent to men of the 1942 registration and later to all other registrants save those who have been inducted into the armed service.

No definite date has been set for mailing the special occupational questionnaires but boards have instructions to clear them rapidly. Registrants are given ten days in which to fill out and return the regular selective service classification questionnaires, but fully a year after the invasion. The material itself was not received until October, 1941.

The difficulty in obtaining material is explained by the facts that the British either sink the works or hold up a lot of publications at Bermuda. Also, many of the firms have disbanded since the war, England delays the work in order that no cash will be put in the hands of the axis or axis dominated countries.

Word has been sent by the Committee on Foreign Importations to the library heads stating that further release of material on order is eminent but naturally there will be some delay. This latter statement accounts for the fact that current issues of foreign publications are no longer on file.

immediate returns will be excepted from the occupational questionnaires

"The purpose of the occupational questionnaires," General Henninger explained, "is to obtain information on the skills, experience and present occupations of registrants."

He stressed that information returned in the special occupational questionnaire is to have no bearing upon the regular classification of men for induction into the armed service.

"Information thus returned will be made available to the Nebraska U. S. employment service. It may be used in locating men of specialized skills or trades when acute shortages develop in war production channels," General Henninger added.

The University of Kentucky has the fourth largest graduate school east of the Mississippi river and south of the Ohio river.
