Providing we haven't been the victim of an April Fool joke, the following juicy tid-bits are on the up and up. The weekend promises to be dull in Lincoln while good food and plenty of sleep await the better part of this campus's tired inhabitants...

Phi Delt Chuck Baskins, who has the reputation of being plenty particular about whom he spends money on, seems to have found the right one since he and Lois Christie, Alpha Phi, have begun to make it a habit... Going steady now are Bob Rohwer, DU, and Barbara Richards, Pi Phi freshman... Another new Pi Phi is having some difficulty making up her mind as witness the fact that Dee Devoe, Phi Gam, is still in possession of his pin despite the long-standing steady deal between him and Gloria Mardis...

Heroes Puzzled.

But that is how it goes, to some a pin means a lot and to others it can be simply a tool for the first day of April. We refer of course to the hanging of fraternity father's pin by Fritz Bean, Sig Ep, on Dorothy Tilton, Chi O. He claims he'll get it back today, which may relieve the minds of Dorothy's friends who know of another love in her life... A number of football heroes are puzzling over who the attraction is at the dorm keeping Vic "Atom" Schleich waiting over there so consistently lately... A sight for blue, brown or pink eyes was that of Jawn Mason, Kappa, following along behind... A personal pat on the back is given to new twosome, Virginia Trowbridge, Dee Gee, and Bill Long, FeeGee, two very swell people we think...

A triangle has been unearthed at the Phi Delt silo what with Bob Poe and Hobart Brake both dating Helen Johnson, Delta Gamma siren. And on the same day too... For anyone feeling a slight touch of spring fever we hereby recommend the Lincoln General hospital

Kosmet Klub Names Show 'Pott Shots'

Title of Presentation Changed from 'Football Crazy'; Story Is Same

If Innocents can change the identity of the band for the Junior-Senior Prom, the Kosmet Klub yesterday decided it could change the name of their spring show from "Football Crazy" to "Pott Shots."

Altho the name has been changed, the show is the same, and rehearsals are going on successfully every night this week under the direction of Prof. L. A. Martin.

Jo Weaver has been named dance director and she has worked members of the pony chorus so hard that drug stores have reported an increase in the sale of liniment. She says that the chorus is developing some pretty flashy dances.

Meanwhile, workers under the direction of Kenneth Miller, are building an elaborate set for the play which deals with the trials and tribulations of a college trying to get out of debt by means of football players and a corset manufacturer.

Council Urges Groups to File Candidates

Announcing the positions to be filled at the spring elections this year, Dick Harnsberger, chairman of the council elections committee, urged that all faction leaders, both barb and union, file all candidates on or before April 10. Representatives to be chosen for the Student Council are as follows.

- Agricultural College—1 man and 1 woman.
- Arts and Sciences—2 men and 1 woman.
- Business Administration—2 men and 1 woman.
- Dental College—1 man.
- Engineers College—2 men.
- Graduate College—1 man and 1 woman.
- Law College—1 man.
- Pharmacy College—1 man.

where Theta smoothies, Becky Wait and Phyl Shaw are doing nursing on the side. My, what a war won't do for the professions... Don Anawalt, Sigma Nu, has his friends wondering whatever happened to Edna Mae Niedermeyer, Chi O, since he has been spending so much time with Nancy Newbranch, Kappa.

Lahr vs. Weaver.

Pat Lahr, union social director, and Jo Weaver, Pi Phi and pony chorus director of the Kosmet Klub, spent practically all yesterday getting even with each other with April Fool jokes. Pat has a long distance telephone call, supposedly from the USO headquarters at Fort Crook, to her credit; while Jo should soon leave to join the Ballet Russe in response to a telegram received. Both girls finally called it quits...

And now all raise hands and hallelujah as we bare to your unbelieving eyes the touching scene played on the third floor of the union. There they stood, holding hands and gazing soulfully at each other, Dorothy Jean Bryan and Bill Dafoe. Could it be a matter of mutual interests... Time will tell, so see ya tomorrow.

Games for Fort Crook Must Be In by Tomorrow

All contributions by individuals or organized houses for the establishment of the new induction center at Fort Crook must be turned in to Nancy Haycock, chairman of the Student Defense Council by tomorrow.

Mr. Guy B. Chamberlin, an alumnus, has made arrangements to have the contributions trucked to Omaha on Saturday. Money as well as various articles to be used in the recreation rooms have been donated so far. Dart boards, games of any sort, ping pong paddles and balls are particularly needed. Checks should be made out to Theodore Metcalfe, and must be marked on the back that the money is for Fort Crook induction center.

Teachers College—1 man and 2 women.

Fine Arts College—1 woman. Seniors at Large—2 men and 2 women.

Holdovers—4 men and 4 women. A total of 31 members will thus be elected with an additional member for every 125 votes cast by a party.

Election of three Publication Board members and the Ivy Day Orator will also take place at the same time, filings for these positions being due April 10. All applicants must include four small pictures with their filings.

but the group must be larger than a quartet or octet.

3. No medley of songs may be sung, nor the same song used for two consecutive years.

4. Groups are requested to wear simple dresses or school clothes and the custom of corsages and flowers is to be eliminated.

Coeds' Draft Will Continue Until Tuesday

Women May Choose Height, Weight of Their Flying School Escorts

Draft registration for women has been prolonged due to the indifference of Nebraska women for voluntary service. Women may now choose the desirable height and name of their future escorts from the Lincoln Flying School until Tuesday of next week, April 7.

At the suggestion of the committee for drafting of the Defense Council headed by Lois Christie, the registration place has been changed to the main lounge of the Union. Girls may give the necessary information for registration between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

As announced last night by the committee the date of the Draftee's Dance has been set for Thursday, April 9, from 7 to 9 p. m. in the Union ballroom. Draftees will be introduced to their soldier dates for the evening before the dance, and several novelty numbers have been planned to get the group better acquainted as a whole.

Moderately curtailed by the war, the University of Texas' annual Round-up for students and parents will be held March 27 and 28.
