

Pink
Rag, Jr.

by

Jean Baker

Despite the drenching rain and gymlike atmosphere of the coliseum, yesterday was a great day for many, as are all traditional Ivy Days. Personal congratulations to all would take too long, but they must be tendered to Alpha Tau Omega and Alpha Phi for fine singing, and heartiest congratulations to all the new members of Mortar Board and Innocents; as well as May Queen Frances Keefer and her attendants.

And now to a bit of gore that goes on and on—Ivy Day or no Ivy Day... Yes, there seems to be a bit of intrigue existing in a couple of houses that aches to be revealed... We haven't proof but rumor is really strong these days issuing from the Thetas and Alpha Phis... Admirers, all of you, of Theta beauty Becky Wait beware! for belief is running strong that the Beta pin of John Stoddard lies hidden in her possession. More power to her if she can keep one man tied up and still make so many other hearts beat faster...

They Did It.

Now before we reveal our other secret, congratulations are due to Ruth Holland, Pi Phi and Dick Arnold, Sigma Chi, whose pin-hanging Friday night is for all to know... Darrell Ludi, of the Sig Alph Ludis, and Dorothy Black, Chi Omega, have taken up the steady path for good after weeks of seeing virtually no one else.

The Alpha Xi Deltas had to forsake their opportunity in yesterday's sing as they are attending province convention at Vermillion, South Dakota... And Sunday morning will see the Towne club entertaining their mothers at a breakfast... Friday night also saw the exchange of Bob Hedges, Farm House, pin to the hands of Florence Hamer a resident of Loomis hall...

We Reveal a Rumor.

And next the revelation of one more rumor, pertaining to one Shirley Heldt of the Alpha Phi house... Shirley we hear is keeping concealed the Sig Alph pin of home-town boyfriend Dick Reinhardt and we wonder why... Surely the long attachment between she and Millard Cluck, brother Sig Alph, won't stand in the way of true love even though we understand Shirley has quite a number of dates with this same devoted PBK in the offing. A choice has been made and brother will give way to brother, or don't you agree, Shirley? We hope that sometime Sunday the SAE pin will be shining forth for all to see...

Final congratulations to the six new beauty queens of Nebraska and we'll see ya, Tuesday...

Weirich . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

Flavia Ann Tharp, retiring president.

Miss Shaw, the new vice president, is in the college of arts and sciences. Her activities include AWS board, Coed Counselors, and YWCA, and she is secretary of WAA. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and was masked by Shirley Russel, retiring vice president.

Miss Burn Masks Miss Phelps

Miss Katzman, masked by the retiring secretary, Frances Keefer, is enrolled in the college of business administration. She is a member of Sigma Delta Tau sorority, of which she has been secretary and treasurer. She is treasurer of YWCA and a member of AWS board, Tassels, and Coed Counselors. She was president of Alpha Lambda Delta her sophomore year.

Miss Phelps is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Phelps of Exeter and is enrolled in teachers college. She is president of the residence halls for women and has been secretary-treasurer of the Coed Counselor board as well as a member of Tassels and YWCA.

Queens . . .

(Continued from page 1.)

wears her clothes beautifully and has a smooth, lovely walk, a pleasant voice. Her hair is medium brown, her eyes clear blue, her skin creamy. Although she looks well in almost any color, pastels are her favorites. Somewhat reserved, she nevertheless has a host of friends, a diamond from a man now in the army.

Shirley Russel of Lincoln is editor of the 1942 Cornhusker and Ed Calhoun of Grand Island is business manager.

She was masked by Natalie Burn, retiring treasurer.

Miss Bruning is in the college of arts and sciences. She is managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan and a member of Student Council and Vestals of the Lamp. She is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority and was masked by the retiring historian, Dorothy White.

Miss Kinder, masked by Marion Cramer Aden, is enrolled in the college of arts and sciences and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. Her activities include presidency of Coed Counselors, Tassels, Cornhusker staff, Vestals of the Lamp, and the University Theatre.

Miss Christie Heads Tassels

Miss Christie is enrolled in home economics at the college of agriculture. She is president of Tassels, vice president of the YWCA, and co-chairman of WSSF. She is affiliated with Alpha Phi sorority and was masked by Jean Humphrey Reed.

Miss Becker is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Becker of Lincoln and is enrolled in home economics at the college of agriculture. She is managing editor of the Cornhusker and a member of Tassels, Coed Counselors, YWCA, and Alpha Phi sorority. She was masked by Frances Drenguis of Scribner.

Miss Kelley, enrolled in the college of arts and sciences, has been president of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and news editor on the Daily Nebraskan. She is president of the YWCA and a member of Coed Counselors, Theta Sigma Phi, and Vestals of the Lamp. She was masked by Miriam Rubnitz of Omaha.

Miss Newman is in the college of arts and sciences. She is president of the WAA council, and has been treasurer of AWS board. She is a member of YWCA, University Theatre, and the women's debate squad. She is vice president of Delta Gamma sorority and was masked by Jeannette Mickey.

Miss Tisthammer is enrolled in home economics at the college of agriculture. She has been treasurer of the ag executive board and is a member of the ag social council, Coed Counselors, Student Council, Phi Upsilon Omicron, Home Economics association. She is treasurer of Loomis hall and was masked by Ben Alice Day.

Miss Curley is enrolled in the college of business administration. Her activities include vice president of the residence halls for women, president of AWS, and YWCA cabinet. She was masked by Flavia Tharp.

Innocents . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

is president of Sigma Nu fraternity and president of Gamma Lambda. He was tapped by Burton Thiel, outgoing president.

Huwaldt, is in the college of arts and sciences. He is managing editor of the Cornhusker yearbook, vice president of Student Council, and treasurer of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He was tapped by Jack Stewart, retiring vice president.

This Was Before the Rain . . .

May Queen Frances Keefer is shown above with her pages, maid of honor, crown bearers and attendants as the ceremony held yesterday morning closed.

Courtesy Lincoln Journal

Laughlin is enrolled in the college of agriculture and is the son of L. J. Laughlin of Gering. He is president of Kosmet Klub and a member of Corn Cobs and Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. He was tapped by Dale Theobald as outgoing secretary.

Heads Daily Staff.

Schlater is in the college of arts and sciences. He is a managing editor of the Daily Nebraskan and a member of Kosmet Klub, Student Foundation, university student defense council, and Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He was tapped by Paul Svoboda, retiring treasurer.

Metheny is in the college of business administration. He is a member of N club, student publications board, the wrestling squad, and the Daily Nebraskan staff. He is vice president of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He was tapped by Fred Meier, outgoing sergeant-at-arms.

Harnsberger is in the college of business administration. He is president of the Student Council, a member of Kosmet Klub, and past member of the student publications board. He is treasurer of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He was tapped by Chris Peterson.

Kantor is a pre-med student in the college of arts and sciences. He is assistant business manager of the Daily Nebraskan, and a member of Corn Cobs, Theta Nu, and secretary of Sigma Alpha Nu fraternity. He was tapped by Walter Rundin.

Selzer Taps Bob Fast.

Fast is in the college of business administration. He is a member of Corn Cobs, the Cornhusker staff, Interfraternity Council, Scabbard and Blade and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is on the baseball squad and received the infantry award last year as the best second year basic ROTC cadet. He was tapped by Jim Selzer.

Walcott is in the college of arts and sciences. He is assistant business manager of the Cornhusker yearbook and a member of Corn Cobs, Student Foundation, Scabbard and Blade, and Student Council. He was football manager for two years and is president of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. He was tapped by R. Donald Steele.

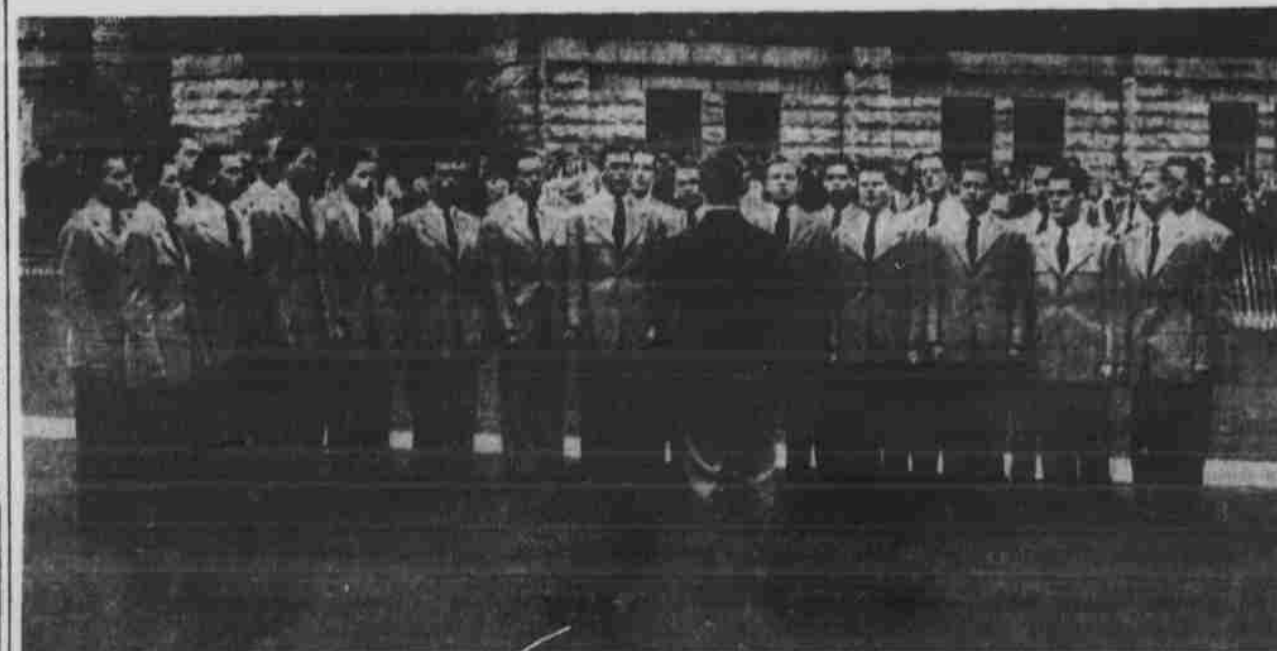

Zikmund is in teachers college. He is president of the junior class, and a member of N club, the football squad, track and baseball squads. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was tapped by Harold Bacon.

Pratt is in the college of agriculture. He is a member of Student Council, Corn Cobs, Daily Nebraskan staff, Block and Bride, University 4-H club, ag social council, and secretary of the ag executive board. He is secretary of Farm House fraternity. He was tapped by Ed Calhoun.

Douglas is in the college of arts and sciences. He is a member of Corn Cobs, Student Council, Student Union board of managers, student defense council, general chairman of Student Foundation, Y.M.C.A. cabinet, and Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He was tapped by Hugh Wilkins.

Bucacek is in the college of business administration. He is secretary of affairs of the Interfraternity Council and a member of Alpha Kappa Psi, Student Foundation, and is president of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He was tapped by Morton Margolin.

ATOs Sing Best . . .

Lynn Myers led Alpha Tau Omega's "Brothers, Sing On" to win the Kosmet Klub cup for first place in the interfraternity sing.

Courtesy Sunday Journal and Star.

All Makes of Typewriters
Special Student Rates
BLOOM TYPEWRITER
EXCHANGE

Phone 2-5258

129 No. 21

NOW!
Funnier than all Bob's hits put together!

BOB HOPE who calls
MADELINE CARROLL
"MY FAVORITE BLONDE"

LINCOLN