

Army's One Point Defeats Husker Trackmen

Bob Ginn and Mile Relay Team Set Track Record

By Norris Anderson.

WEST POINT, N. Y.—After 11 events here Saturday Nebraska's scarlet and cream cinder machine, sparked by Bobby Ginn and Red Littler, led Lou Novak's versatile Army squad by a single point.

Thwarted by heavy Cadet totals in the remaining jumping events, the Weir kids rallied to win top two places in the discus and romp home in record mile relay time. Then came the booming voice over the address system: Army 78½, Nebraska 77½, Columbia 7.

Ginn Sets Record.

Sunlight that streamed down the green Cadet oval was no brighter than the performance of Nebraska's mighty distance mite, Bob Ginn. Bespectacled Bobby outsped all opposition in the half mile for a new track record of 1:54.7, just 15 minutes after he had eased to a 4:22 mile victory.

Jut-jawed Red Littler's return to form from the sick bed was another Husker individual feature. Red clipped the century tape in 10.1 and won top 220 laurels with a neat 22.5 run.

Ed Wear's broad countenance looked content when Harold Hunt vaulted 14 feet, smiled when Howie Debus tossed the javelin 205 feet 5½ inches, and actually beamed when the "Littler-less" mile relay team won in the sense that time of 3:21.7, a new track record.

Sophomore Bill Conner's 30 quarter mile pack in 49.7 for another bright effort.

New York sport scribes hailed the Huskers as "real competitors" and said the meet was "the most thrilling in West Point history."

Wilson to Lead Cyclone Swim Team in 1943

AMES, Ia., May 2.—Thornton Wilson's election as captain of the 1943 Iowa State college swimming team has been approved by the athletic council, it was announced today by George F. Veenker, director of athletics.

Wilson, whose home is Jefferson City, Mo., was a sprinter on the Cyclone team which won the Big Six swimming title for the fifth straight time this year. He finished third in the 60- and 100-yard free style events. Wilson counted 50 points to rank second in team scoring.

Richard Wildman was named senior manager for Coach Jack McGuire's swimmers.

Eight freshman numerals were approved by the council. The numeral men are Bill Brown, David Clizbe, James McCoy, George Pickens, Albert Rawson, Ralph Reese, Robert Savage and Charles Wells.

Cyclones Open Big Six Season With Nebraska

AMES, Iowa.—Iowa State College opened the 1942 Big Six baseball campaign here Monday with the University of Nebraska furnishing the opposition. The two teams play again this afternoon with the game scheduled to start at 4 o'clock.

Coach Ad Lewandowski will bring a veteran club to Ames with hopes of improving on the 1941 record. Last year the Cornhuskers finished last in the conference race with two victories—both over the Cyclones.

Broke Even Last Year.

The two teams broke even in four games. The invading nine will have its three top pitchers, both catchers, two first basemen, and two outfielders returning from the 1941 team. Swanson is expected to get the call for the first game pitching duties with either Leach or Garey in line for the job Tuesday.

Iowa State will use Willard Mylenbusch and Al Strohbehm for the two games. The Cyclone infield will include Ellis Alexander at first; Bob Hayes at second; Bob Kline at short, and Russ Scharnberg at third. Capt. Bob Scharnberg will do the catching. The outfield probably will have Bob Dappen in right, Tasker Johnson in center, and Mel Shanda in left.

Other members of the Cyclone squad likely to see action are Al Baumhoyer, Wayne Mitchell, Al Nelson and Howard Tippee, pitchers, Charles Huber, infielder, and Marvin Winders, catcher-outfielder.

Mizzou Tigers Outlast Husker Diamond Nine

Nebraska Losing Streak Extended as Yesterday's Game Is Postponed

Missouri batters laid down an 11 hit barrage and took advantage of nine Husker errors to defeat the Huskers 10-7 in the series opener Friday. This defeat extended Nebraska's losing streak to five games.

Missouri opened the scoring by driving five runs across in the third frame. A misplay of a sure double play by the Nebraska keystone combination was the leading factor in the Tigers' big inning. In the last half of the same inning, Nebraska rallied by sending home three runs. Al Artman's two base hit, which rolled over first base, sparked the Husker rally.

Gorson Hits Homer

Leading the invaders at the bat were Gorson and Hoffman. Gorson had a homer to his credit, while Hoffman smacked out three singles.

Al Artman pounded out a homer and a double which accounted for four of the Huskers' runs. Bob Heinzelman drove out three singles for his afternoon's work.

Sports Whirl

By Bob Miller

● NEBRASKA'S diamond nine took it on the nose again on Friday when the University of Missouri dropped them by a 9-7 count....One thing about the Husker team, they have gotten the short end of the count every time this season but not by a very great margin....The Tigers and the Iowa State Cyclones appear to be the team to beat but I won't sell Oklahoma short because they have quite an array down at the Norman institution.

In the Big Ten baseball league, the Iowa U. Hawkeyes are definitely the toast of the conference. They have administered sound whippings to the best in the conference....The Hawks have an unusually good pitching staff and their ability to hit has been proven many times by the size of the score they have run up on unsuspecting opponents.

● WELL, the bugle's blare and the starter's commands have come and gone down in the Blue Grass country as the old granddaddy of all races, the Kentucky Derby, is mere history and tradition at least for another year....Eddie Arcaro, Whirlaway's great chauffeur, had a great time deciding which of two horses from one stable he would ride in the classic....He had been riding them both and he could not decide which one was faster....If he made the wrong choice and did not ride the winner, he stood to lose $7,000....If he rode the one that merely came in, he would receive nothing more than expenses....It was a hard decision to make.

● LAST year's Derby was one we'll never forget....Whirlaway was not the favorite because Whirly had a fault....That fault was to bear out on the turns cutting his chances of winning....Arcaro was chosen to ride the big red horse and in their first get-together, Eddie brought Whirly in the winner of the 67th annual running....Then followed a string of wins that placed Whirly's owner in the seven figure category....As a four year old Whirly has not shown the necessary ability but should come around in time.

● BOB Swisher, Northwestern minute man last year, and George Svendsen, Minnesota line stalwart of a few years back, are going to be in Iowa City, Iowa, next fall, helping Bernie Bierman put the air cadets through their football paces....Both will be on the athletic staff....The Huskers play the air cadets next fall but there is one ray of hope left for the Scarlet squad....Even with Bierman, Swisher, Svendsen et al. to coach them and with the cream of the college crop as material, not one of the air cadets can weigh over 200 pounds....This takes a load off of several minds and feet also.

● WEST Point's track team is not to be sniffed at....The Army cadets whom the Huskers will meet on Saturday took Brown university into camp last Saturday 99-26....The Army boys swept through to victory in 12 out of the 14 events and took all the places in the mile, two mile, 880, pole vault, discus and broad jump....The Husker cindermen left this morning for the long eastern jaunt....They will be back on Monday or Tuesday.

● THE N-club has come out into the open with plans for their annual N-club jamboree....The athletes have been working hard on perfecting plans for the dance and now have announced that Tony Pastor will be the top fight band featured....Genie Baird will be quite an eye-ful as the songstress for the band.
