

Pink Rag, Jr.
by Jean Baker

Back to the grind after a practically non-existent vacation, we find the Easter bunny isn't the only creature who gets the spirit of giving around this time... Pins were certainly the order of the day.

Marge Stewart, Alpha Chi beauty, and Ed Butler, ATO, have made up their minds once more and Marge is wearing the maltese cross since Saturday... Sunday was the big day for Joyce Junge, Pi Phi, who not only took possession of Bob Ferguson's very new Delta U pin but also celebrated her nineteenth birthday... A bit unexpected was the news of the transference of the Sigma Chi pin belonging to Bob Mendenhall, dental student from Boulder, into the hands of Betty Perry, Delta Gamma... Long-awaited, however, was the pin-hanging of Bud Johnson, DU prexy, on Janet Ralston, Alpha Phi of last year and at present a student nurse at Lincoln General... Just to break the monotony of so much devotion we note the on-again-very quickly off-again pin-hanging of Warren Killian, Phi Gam, and Jo Thurston, Chi O... That little deal has yet to be completely cleared up... Last but by no means least is the jeweled Sigma Chi cross which Art Mason bestowed on Mary Lee Stauff, Alpha Phi...

Outcome—?

One pin that still remains in the hands of its original owner is that of Sig Alph Danny Schmitt, for his months-long steady deal with Shirley McNeel, Sutherland Pi Phi, has hit the rocks and first love, Harold Fenner seems to be in their solid right now... Time will tell us who the future light of her life will be...

Wait, wait—there is one more pin to be considered, that of Bart Baker, Sig Ep, which is now proudly worn by Dorothy Miller, Chi O... Not quite to the stage of releasing their pins but still new recruits on the rapidly growing list of steadies are Don Steele, AGR big-wig, and Bill Huffman, Beta, who have taken Janet Haggart, Pi Phi, and Janice Goldsmith, Alpha Chi, off the list of eligibles... We wonder if Neil Stanley, Phi Gam, knows of the lovely roses that reached Roberta Patterson, Alpha Chi, Easter morn from Iowa... Pretty stiff competition, methinks...

Or Is She?

And so long as last the Deltas have a housemother, or at least it seems so from the frequency that Lois Scofield, Alpha Chi, has been decorating their porch lately... Could Allen Chapman be the attraction or just the Deltas in general... A secret love we have discovered arising from the drama is that of Betty Lou Foster, SDT, for Bud Swartz of the Sammie house... Palladian picnic Saturday nite was quite a deal we understand with Jim Foral and Deane Dowell being veritable lives of the party... Sad news is revealed concerning Jean Osborne, Theta, and Jerry Abbenhaus, Farm House, who no longer are seeking things the same way these days... Phi Gams are making use of Jake, the candy man, these nights as a messenger boy with most of their little billet-doux going to the Theta house...

Flash! On our way to press we passed a bunch of happy Kappa Sigs. Cause? They had just had a kiss from Chi O Barbara Lee. And the gals? Well, the lucky fellow passing cigars was Wait Plummer, need we say more?...

Your chance to shirte before a real, honest-to-goodness paying audience will come Friday night at the Nebraska theater where plans are booming for an all University talent program. If you feel the urge to perform: trot down and see Mr. Schnippen at the theater... See ya, tomorrow...

Dr. Ginsburg Gets Classics Study Award

Dr. Michael Ginsburg, associate professor of classics, has been awarded a John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Fellowship. This is the second Fellowship awarded to Dr. M. Ginsburg... received second Fellowship for study of Roman emperors.

Dr. Ginsburg for the study of the social policy of the Roman Emperors in their efforts to improve the conditions of the economically weaker groups of Roman society.

This year 82 John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Fellowships carrying total awards of $196,000 were given to American and Canadian scholars and creative workers.

In making the appointments the trustees of the Foundation adopted a resolution that the use of the Fellowships is subject to the requirements of any national service for which they may be required.

If any Fellow is required for national service in any manner and of a kind such that his Fellowship stipend would contribute to the war effort he may use the funds while doing the work.

This is the seventeenth annual series of Fellowship awards by the Foundation which was established and endowed by the late United States Senator Simon Guggenheim and by Mrs. Guggenheim as a memorial to their son John.

Since its establishment 17 years ago the Foundation has granted 1210 Fellowships with stipends totalling $2,488,000. The Fellows may be men or women, of all races and creeds who are citizens or permanent residents of the U. S., citizens of Canada and of certain Latin American countries. The stipends are usually $2,500 for a year.

Those placing high in the cattle division: Hubert Skucius first, Rob Osler and Harvey Stapleman tied for second and third. Robert Tooker rated first in the

US Navy Introduces Seven Point 'V' Training Program

Realizing from the recent war in the southwest Pacific, that ships, men and bases are interdependent and essential to winning the war, the U. S. Navy has introduced a "V" program to build to its authorized strength of 500,000 men.

The Navy's greatest need at the moment is ships and skilled man power. Ships to round out a mighty two-ocean fleet are on the way and bases are under construction from Dutch Harbor to Reykjavik; but the problem of man power remains still to be solved.

Realizing that it takes almost as long to make a sailor as it takes to build a warship, the Navy has instituted a new long range program which takes full account of the fact that "every man is a specialist in the Navy." Besides teaching more than 50 trade skills to the recruits who are streaming through its training stations, the Navy must select and train thousands of college men who by their educational background are already qualified for ratings and commissions.

To this end, the Navy has introduced the following seven-point "V" program with which every undergraduate should be familiar to attain a commission of ensign in the Naval Reserve.

V-1.

Pre-Indoctrination Training.

This is the latest procurement plan—a plan whereby the Navy hopes to obtain 80,000 pre-indoctrinated trainees per year. College freshmen and sophomores between the ages of 17 and 19 inclusive who are of good moral character and in good physical condition may enlist in Class V-1 as apprentice seamen. After approximately three semesters during which they will study related Navy subjects, taught by the regular college faculty, V-1 men will be given a general examination. Those ranking sufficiently high in the examination may transfer to Class V-5 or V-7 (see below) and continue their inactive status until completion of the academic requirements for those classes. Those whose scores on the examination are too low to warrant V-5 or V-7 training will be allowed to complete the 4-semester indoctrination course and then be called to active duty as apprentice seamen. For further information or enlistment consult your college registrar or the nearest Navy recruiting office.

V-2.

Naval Aviation Mechanics.

This is an opportunity for men between the ages of 17 and 28 inclusive with limited experience or demonstrable interest in internal combustion engines or metal work. Men whose eyesight bars them from flying the Navy's warbirds can help keep 'em flying by enlisting in this classification at the nearest recruiting office. They will receive 26 weeks intensive training which will qualify them for petty officers' ratings as aviation machinists and aviation metallsmiths.

V-3.

Naval Communications.

Here is the opening for men interested in wireless and visual signals. They must enlist as apprentice seamen, but will be sent to a communications service school, if at the conclusion of their recruit training, they show a preference and aptitude for this classification. The training they receive during their first year of service is worth $1,500, according to the Navy.

V-4.

Naval Intelligence

College men of "outstanding character and unquestioned reliability" with legal training or stenographic ability were formerly enlisted as yeomen ("seagoing secretaries") in this classification. Quotas were filled shortly after Pearl Harbor, but may be reopened.

V-5.

Most Navy men regard this classification as THE gilt-edge opportunity in the Naval Reserve. Contrary to popular belief, you don't have to be a super man to get in. You must, however, be between the ages of 19 and 26 inclusive, unmarried, and in good shape physically. If you haven't yet finished the required two years of college, you may enlist now and continue school until you have. You will receive 90 days training at one of the 18 reserve aviation bases, then be shipping to the "Annapolis of the Air" (at Pensacola, Fla.) or to "Jax" (Jacksonville, Fla.) or "Corpus" (Corpus Christi, Tex.) for advanced training. Upon receiving your Navy "wings" and commission, you will also begin receiving $245 a month. Any Navy recruiting office will steer you (transportation paid) to the nearest Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board.

V-6.

Volunteer Specialists

This classification covers nearly all of the Navy's 55 petty officer specialist ratings. If you know typing and/or shorthand you may be enlisted as a yeoman. If you have had bookkeeping experience, you may be enlisted as a storekeeper. If you have a "ham" radio operator's license or know radio, you may be enlisted as a second class petty officer and trained to operate RADAR, the Navy's secret aircraft detecting device. Other ratings open to qualified men in this class range all the way from bugler to welder. Even faculty men can enlist (at any Navy recruiting office), since the class is open to all healthy male citizens between the ages of 17 and 50. A petty officer's rating in the Navy is equivalent in pay and rank to that of a sergeant in the Army.

V-7.

Midshipman Training.

Graduates of the three midshipman schools have won numerous citations for their activities aboard destroyers and "mosquito" boats in the Pacific. If you are junior, senior, or graduate student between the ages of 20 and 27 inclusive, you may enlist now and be deferred from active duty until receipt of your degree. In earning the sheepskin you must complete two semesters of math, including one course in plane trigonometry. You will then be given 30 days' indoctrination at Notre Dame university and sent to one of the midshipman schools—at Northwestern or Columbia university or aboard the USS Prairie State in New York City. Upon completion of this 90-day course in seamanship, navigation, ordnance and gunnery, you will be commissioned an ensign in the Naval Reserve, with salary and allowances totaling $183 per month. In peace time men go to Annapolis for four years to earn the same commission in the regular Navy. Any Navy recruiting office can accept preliminary applications for V-7 enlistment.

Whether or not they are called to immediate active duty, all men are draft-exempt after enlisting in the Naval Reserve. All agree to serve for the duration of the war except aviation cadets, who agree to serve for 4 years unless released sooner by the Navy Department.
