

They Will Bid for Honors at K U Relays

(1) Big Elmer Aussieker, Missouri' Big Six champion shot putter, pushes one out in preparing for the Kansas Relays at Lawrence. (2) Jack Defield, Minnesota vaulter, who finished second to Cornelius Warmerdam, world record holder, in the Milrose games this spring, who will match leaps with (3) Harold Hunt, Nebraska's champion of the Big Six and winner of the Texas Relay's pole vault. (4) Oklahoma's distance medley quartet, Texas Relay's winner, who will be out to repeat at Kansas. Left to right: Smethers, Lyda, Burns and Sharpe. (5) Bill Lyda, Oklahoma's middle distance ace.

In Drake Track Competition UN Cindermen Rank Second Only to Illinois in Victories

DES MOINES, Ia., April 13—With victories in eight of the ten special events that have survived through the years, Illinois' 18 victories in the individual events heads that division of the annual Drake relays, being held April 24 and 25 this year.

Failing to win only the 440 yard hurdles and the 2-mile run, Illinois outstripped second-place Nebraska by four victories, 18 to 14. Kansas has posted 12 victories, Wisconsin has nine and Oklahoma and Iowa have eight apiece.

Teams split up

Of the six leading teams, three—Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa—are from the Big Ten conference, and three—Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska—are members of the Big Six conference.

Since the first Drake relays were devoted mainly to relay races, no permanent individual event hit the record books until the 120 yard high hurdles were established in 1917. From then on, individual races and team events followed in rapid order.

The 100 yard dash was placed on the program in 1918, followed by the pole vault, broad jump, high jump, 440 yard hurdles, shot put, discus throw and javelin throw in 1922.

Locke and Francis lead

Big guns in Nebraska's 14 victories were Sprinter Roland Locke and Weightman Sam Francis.

SAM FRANCIS
—Lincoln Journal.

Locke bulletted to successive victories in the 100 yard dash in 1925 and 1926, setting the :09.5 record in his latter effort. That has never been broken, the tied by Ralph Metcalf of Marquette and Jesse Owens of Ohio State.

After gaining fame as an All-American full-back on the gridiron, Southpaw Sam Francis won both the discus and shot put title at the relays in 1936 and 1937—the only years he appeared at Des Moines. Nebraska failed to bag victories in only the high jump and 2-mile run.

Osborne Wins Jump.

The first Illinois triumph went to Harold Osborne, who leaped 6 feet 6 inches to win the high jump in 1922. That record, the oldest on the Drake books, still stands.

Latest of the Illini to win an individual crown was Ken Diefenthaler, likewise a high jumper, who claimed titles in 1936 and 1939 with respective jumps of 6 feet 3 3/4 inches and 6 feet 5 1/2 inches.

Kansas ranks next

One of the dozen Kansas victors was Jim Bausch, decathlon champion at the 1932 Olympics in Los Angeles, Calif. In his appearance at Drake in 1930, Bausch threw the shot 49 feet 1 1/2 inches for the championship. Kansas bunched its triumphs in the pole vault, broad jump, high jump, shot put and discus throw.

Other team leaders, according to victories, are: Louisiana State, 7; Minnesota, 7; Rice, 6; Marquette, 6; Indiana, 6; Texas, 6; Drake, 6.

Drake, the host school, has Linn Philson, a high jumper, to thank for three of its victories. Philson won or shared the jump tiara in 1934-35-36.

Hertzler, Reinhardt Attend Convention

Professor J. O. Hertzler, chairman, and Professor J. M. Reinhardt of the sociology department will attend meetings of the Midwest Sociological society in Des Moines, April 16 to 18. Dr. Reinhardt will contribute to a discussion on criminology and to a panel on "Sociology, Sociologists, and the War." Dr. Hertzler is chairman of the panel.

Saylor Talks on Future Of Junior Colleges

Professor Galen Saylor of Teachers college addressed the Nebraska Junior College association at its spring meeting in Fairbury April 11. His subject was "What Should Be the Future of the Nebraska Junior College?"

'Queen of Queens' to be One of 6 of 20 of 3,000

... In N Club Election

Choosing one from among six chosen from among 20 chosen from among nearly 3,000 Nebraska coeds—that's the job of the N Club members who will chose a "Queen of Queens" to reign at the annual dance May 16.

Members have already selected six finalists from a list made up of 12 Cornhusker beauty queen candidates, the Typical Nebraska Coed, Pep Queen, Nebraska Sweetheart, Prom Girl, Pledge Sweetheart, Interfraternity Sweetheart, Goddess of Agriculture, and two other candidates nominated at a meeting yesterday.

The six coeds selected from the field of 20 (in one case a contestant, in addition to being a beauty queen candidate, was also a "sweetheart") will be revealed in future issues of the Nebraskan, and one of the six will reign as "Queen of Queens" at the N Club dance.

Virginia Ford, Typical Nebraska Coed; Betty Nichols, Phyllis

Welch, Lynn Dale, Lois Drake, Lois Scofield, Shirley Johnson, Beldora Cochran, Harriette Costello, Becky Wait, Maryellen Robison, Jessie Moore and Ruth Iverson, all Beauty Queen contestants; Janet Hemphill, Pep Queen; Becky Wait, Nebraska Sweetheart; Ann Craft, Prom Girl; Hazel Abel, Pledge Sweetheart; Toni McQuiston, Interfraternity Sweetheart; Ben Alice Day, Goddess of Agriculture, and the two other nominees, Alice McCampbell and Shirley McNeel—from this list of 20, six have been chosen—one of the six will be "Queen of Queens."

Bill Smutz, chairman of the dance committee, has promised "a fair election, with discussion—there'll be no politics here," and so, on May 16, the one-from-six-20-from-3,000 will be revealed.

University of Wisconsin students who attended the 1942 junior prom went without corsages to buy more than $500 worth of defense stamps.
