Yeah, we think you had better go, to Kosmet Klub that is. Worth the price of admission is the sight of Beta Bill McBride in silk stockings, ATO George Blackstone with a bald-headed wig and bent knees, and especially fascinating, brunette Jimmy Stillwell, DU, who makes a better looking girl than many a perennial wearer of skirts and anklets. . . .

A little late but too good to pass up is the announcement of Betty "Blitz" Lillibridge, DG, newest nickname. Bestowed on her by her constant escort, Reed Smith, of that house; Betty is now to be known to all and sundry as Nebraska's Sweater Girl. . . .

Another DG making news these days is Pat Hinkle who has snagged completely the affections of once-known as "Love 'em and leave 'em" Bert Smith, Phi Psi. Steady is the word for them. . . . One steady deal we aren't sure of but that rumor says is really all set is that between Harold Salisbury, Beta, and Marge Martin, Alpha Phi. It has taken almost all year but now they say the decision has been reached. . . .

Two Frats Have New Pledges.

Two fraternities are to be congratulated for gathering into their respective folds a couple of the better boys, we refer in case you don't know to the pledging of George Abbott by the ATOs and that of Vince Cutshall by the Phi Deltas. . . . The Alpha Xi Delt's are really getting their men these days for two of them are announcing future marriage plans. Mary Louise Howerter will join her fate to that of Russ Stueber in April, while Ruth Clark, Mortar Board of last year, is soon to take the vows with Bob Griffin. . . . The Kappas, lucky dogs, ate a picnic supper in their own back yard last night and then played a rousing game of baseball between the seniors and underclassmen much to the admiration of the Sigma Nus across the street. . . .

Planning on taking in the Inter-Co-op spring formal this Friday are Bud Boldt and Jean Brehm as well as Howard Jensen of the Cornhusker Co-op with Doreen Fisher of Howard Hall. . . . Celebrating Bob Gillespie Phi Delt's birthday Sunday at Jan Savitt will be Bob with Theta Becky Wait and Bill Robinson, Kappa Sig, with Pi Phi Bell Cochran. . . . Fred Stiner, law student and Phi Psi, is going in for the opposite sex in a big way these days. Last weekend saw him with no less than three different dates in two days, the lucky girls being Barbara Morehouse, Alpha Phi queen; Betty Jo Billesby, Theta, and Jane Emery, well-known DG. Barbara, however, in accordance with her usual habit, seems to have won out and several repeat dates have come her way. . . . All the Phi Psis seem very much interested in the whole affair. . . .

Unaffiliated, Ag Coeds File For Tassels

Coeds may file today to fill Tassels positions as ag representatives and unaffiliated women at large. On ag those who may file cannot live in any hall or organized house.

A table will be set up on the second floor in the home economics building and coeds may file any time during the day. Unaffiliated students on city campus may file with Miss Elsie Ford Piper, in Ellen Smith.

Requirements for pledges are a weighted 80 average, 27 hours at the end of this semester and must be carrying 12 hours in good standing.

Tassels from ag will be chosen by an election held on ag campus this Friday and unaffiliated students will be chosen by a committee.

Inter-Co-op Council Sponsors First Annual Spring Formal

Inter-Co-Op Council will inaugurate a new annual dance on the campus when they sponsor a spring formal in the Union ballroom Friday night—the first formal party exclusively for unaffiliated students this year. This is the first time any such affair has ever been held by the men's co-ops.

Since there was no barb winter formal this year, the Co-ops' ball will be one of the biggest events of the year for unaffiliated students and it is expected to become a traditional spring event, according to Nels Nordland, president of the Inter-Co-Op Council.

This is also an important step taken by the Council in its capacity as promoter of co-operative activities and closer association of existing organizations on the campus.

Four co-ops, including the Cornhusker Co-op; Ag College Boarding Club; Pioneer Co-op and Baldwin hall, make up the Council and 150 men live or eat in these co-ops. The Ag College Boarding club, usually known as ACBC, and Baldwin Hall are situated at ag while the other two are on the city campus.

UN Team Enters National Collegiate Bridge Tourney

The university will be represented by a team of eight in the nation-wide Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament this year, which is being conducted entirely by mail between April 20 and 24, Pat Lahr, Union social director, announced yesterday.

Comprising the Nebraska team in the tournament are Paul Sonderegger, Merlin Anderson, Dorothy Lewellen, Parkhurst Wood, Henry Medlock, James Olson, Bill Longman and Art Mason, all undergraduates.

National sponsor for the tournament is the Intercollegiate Bridge York, while Pat Lahr will be local captain in charge of play.

Nebraska's team was selected from among contestants in four bridge tournaments sponsored by the Union.

First prize in the contest will be a check for $100 made out to the American Red Cross, which the winning team will have the honor of presenting to its local chapter. Small individual cups will also be awarded as well as the permanent Intercollegiate Challenge Cup, which will go to the winning pair. The cup was won by Harvard last year and by Radcliffe in 1940.

All colleges will play the same hands in the tournament, with scores sent into the New York committee for scoring and national ranking. Scoring is done by the "par" system of bridge com-
