

Pink Rag, Jr.

by
Jean Baker

Wow, the cigar smoke was thick and the chocolate sticky Monday night as love triumphed in practically every house. Still the unhappy rumors came in, though, where the bow and arrow is practically in splinters...

Surprising is the news of Virginia McCulla, the Alpha Phi with the gorgeous profile, and Bob Farmer, her steady date of long standing, no longer hitting it off. Encouraging tho for the remaining male members of the campus who have long looked on Ginny with a favorable eye... We meant to tell this one sooner but it still isn't too late to reveal to all that Marty Bengston, Theta, really has the secret for gaining a dead silence in even the noisiest room. Just ask anyone taking in the Phi Rho party last Saturday including Martha herself... The Kappa's dating schedule will have a hard blow this Friday with their annual Alumni Banquet plans lasting till almost ten...

This Weekend's Social.

This is really a weekend for social flings for besides the big formal both the Chi Omegas and Alpha Phis are planning houseparties for Saturday and Friday nights respectively... The DUs will be eating their Friday night dinner with the Pi Phis as will the Sig Alphas with the Kappas the following evening...

And so they come more and more, fights accompanied by pin returns... Polly Parmale, Pi Phi, and Wally Munson, DU, decided to call it quits, officially at least, and Rebecca Ely, Alpha Phi, has returned the ATO pin she has been wearing, sending it back to South Dakota to its original owner... Laura Lee Mundil, dormite, on the other hand, has chosen the path of no one else but Russ Ledgers... Dorjee Bryan and Dan Bernd with Jean Kirkpatrick and Herb Meyer were really surprised last Saturday when they found their car already occupied by a slightly stewed stranger. They just moved him to another car, however, and let somebody else worry about who he was and where he came from...

Again, the Triad...

Yes, soon it will be Friday and the Great Triad party will be at hand. Betas, Phi Deltas and Sigma Chis are really planning a big evening and dates are at a premium... Sigma Chis are having a dinner at the Cornhusker before the dance and Dick Arnold, Sam Carroll, and Ronnie Metz will have Pi Phi Ruth Holland, and Alpha Phi Joan Martz and Polly Petty with them. Dorsey Kinder, Sig Chi, will escort Roberta Murgess, Gamma Phi, and another Gamma Phi, will escort Roberta Burgess, Gamma Phi, and another Gamma Phi at the party will be Helen Kieselbach with Hank Green, Phi Delt, Phi Deltas Howard Chapin and Bus Black are taking AOP Helen Gruesel and Alpha Chi Agnes Fox while Hobbie Brake will be seen with Dorothea Reichel. Larry "Hog" Fisher, another Phi Delt, and Barbara Hodgman, Alpha Phi, are another lucky couple planning on the Triad.

Plus the Betas.

Beta attending include Gene Bradley with Alpha Phi Betty Jerner and sister Alpha Phi Barbara Morehouse with Dick Peters and Marge Martin with Harold Salisbury... Oh yes, we don't think Nick Douvas has a date yet but the week is still young...

Ah, the luck of the PBKs... That is what it sounds like when we hear that Millard Cluck, Sig Alph and authority on beautiful women, was locked in the law school library for the full two hours during convocation yesterday with Gamma Phi Frances Hans. That ought to make the law library a bit more popular in the future... See ya, tomorrow...

At Annual Tussle...

Fijis, Taus Compete for Honor Of Winning 'Golden Gaboon'

... Saturday Afternoon

"He's out" may be a typical remark about either an ATO or Fiji man this Saturday afternoon. The saying won't be slanderous either since members of the two fraternities are getting together for their annual Fiji-Tau Tussle.

This affair now going into its fourth consecutive year is eagerly anticipated by both houses and the day's festivities are diversified.

All the actives of both houses will have lunch at the Tau house, while the pledges enjoy their noon day repast at the Fiji domain. After lunch the fellows will parade down O street from whence they will migrate out to the great out of doors otherwise known as Penn Woods.

Baseball is played and last year a "Greased Pig Race" was held where the boys were to carry greased pig up a slippery bank.

Feature of the afternoon festivities is the "Creek Race" in which ten men participate. Five Phi Gams and five Taus vie for the honor of winning for their respective house by pushing the most men off of a log located in the middle of the creek.

Receiving a "Golden Gaboon" (cuspidor) will be members of the house which wins most of the afternoon activities. As soon as the sun sets the men leave for home not because they are afraid of the dark but they return to greet a galaxy of beauteous babes and spend the evening dancing to the music of Hank Mattison on the outdoor pavillion located back of the ATO house.

Climaxing the event is the presentation of the Fiji-Tau queen selected from the men's dates. Phyllis Anderson, Theta, was last year's queen.

Six Men Represent UN At Bridge Tournament

... Played by Mail

Henry J. Medlock, James Olson, Bill Longman, Paul Sonderregger, Robert Gritzfield, and Wendell Snocker, winners of the recent series of contract bridge tournaments sponsored by the Student Union, will represent the university in an intercollegiate bridge tournament to be played here by mail in competition with the outstanding colleges of the country.

To be played in the Union music room Friday, April 24, at 7:30 p. m., the tournament provides that participants will play out a series of bridge hands, selected by the national committee of university alumni in charge and mailed to the university in a sealed envelope. The method used in judging the ability of the individual players is known as the "par" method. After competition scores will be returned to New York, and the highest pair and highest team may be selected.

Highest ranking pair will be awarded the intercollegiate championship cup, won previously by Radcliffe college and now held by Harvard university. Instead of the usual custom of purchasing a cup for the winning team, the committee has decided to present the members with a $100 check made out to the Red Cross, which the team may present to their local chapter.

Seniors Hold Final Meet Tomorrow

Stewart will Begin Reorganization of Senior Council for Next Year

Members of the Senior Council will hold their last meeting of the year tomorrow at 7:15 in parlors X and Y of the Union. The meeting is very important and all members are urged to be present. Jack Stewart, president of the organization, said that the members are those who have been at previous meetings, that is, the past presidents of organized houses and other officers.

Purpose of the meeting is for the reorganization of the Council. The executive council has been working for the past few weeks planning for its reorganization so that it will be more effective next year.

The Senior Council was organized this year to build up senior spirit and plan for senior activities. Altho the Council has made much progress, it is a new organization and the present members are anxious to make it bigger and more effective in the future.

The meeting will be short, Stewart said, and if the members are prompt it will be over by 7:45 p. m.

and Harold Alexis, Warren Guinan, David Marvin, Elizabeth Clark, Barbara Cook, Marjorie Sage, H. Edward Marrows, Hean Montgomery H. Harrison Cohen, Frank Cole, Lloyd London, Warren Van Norman.

Each team will be asked six questions, and the two high scoring teams will meet in the finals Sunday, April 26, at 1 p. m. in the Union. Members of the winning team will receive $5 in defense stamps.

All students are invited to witness the matches.
