

Ed Weir Takes 15-Man Team on Eastern Track Jaunt Back to West Point

Failing as yet to name his squad for the Saturday test back at West Point, Coach Ed Weir is hopeful for his clan's showing in the triangular meet featuring in addition to the Huskers, West Point and Columbia.

Since Arden Kersey and Paul Davidson are out of competition for the remainder of the track season due to ineligibility, Weir will have to shift his men around into their various events very prudiciously to maximize their efforts.

Davidson ran the quarter during the indoor season while Kersey took the load of the half miler. The head cinder coach announced that he would take a 15 man squad to the Hudson river encounter.

Little Slowed?

Eugene Littler, sprint specialist, showed the effects of his recent pneumonia attack at the Drake festival last Friday and Saturday and will undoubtedly stay out of all but the short sprints until the Big Six comes along.

Bill Conner and Al Brown will take over the quarter mile duties which, up until now Littler has been varing for very adequately. Conner, who is a sophomore, started off the indoor season running the half mile but was not satisfied so switched to the 440 where he found himself.

Brown is good in the short sprints and in the relay events.

Wibbles Has Hopes.

Edsel Wibbles and Vic Schleich will try to redeem themselves for the Drake episode where, hampered by bad weather, neither performer could take a first. Wibbles, a consistent shotputter who tosses the iron pellet in the close vicinity of 49 feet, was held to 45 feet at Des Moines.

Schleich could not do much better with his tosses, which put him fourth in the event at 47 feet, 10 inches. Both are sure they will do much better in the other meets, provided the weather is not a duplicate of the Drake variety.

Hunt Had Off Day.

In the pole vault, Harold Hunt had an off day but has been working out this week and is positive he will climb the 14-foot limit. Howard Debus will also be entered in the vault event.

Bill Smutz and Ralph King will be out to avenge their hurdle debacle at the hands of the Big Ten last week. King took a fifth place and Smutz was not in the scoring.

Wright Went Down.

Bob Wright, Ohio State's great hurdler, was forced out of the running of the 120 yard high hurdles which obviously slowed both King and Smutz in the same race.

The probable squad entries for the West Point meet: Eugene Littler, Robert Ginn, Harold Hunt, Bill Smutz, Ralph King, Bill Conner, Edsel Wibbles, Al Brown, Jim Brogan, Victor Schleich, Howard Debus, Paul Johrde, Kirwin Eisenhart, and two others. It is not known whether Don Morris will be in shape for the trip due to a pulled muscle at the Drake tests.

Zephyrs Win Final Barb Tilt

The Farm House gang jolted the Sigma Nus to a 10 to 1 let-down last night to win the I-M consolation crown under the superb pitching of Dale Weibel, who held the Sigma Nu wood swingers hitless. The Zephyr diamond ten won the barb championship in Wednesday's opener by downing the Bachelors, 9 to 3, in a game that featured the pitching of Bogard, well known pitcher of the local independent league.

Blanks Available.

Application blanks and information regarding enlistment as an aviation cadet are available at the junior division office upon request. Papers required for application of aviation cadet include the birth certificates of the applicant in triplicate form or other legal evidence of age, and three letters of recommendation by reputable citizens.

An examining board will convene at the university, on May 13, to all university students who desire to enlist in the army air force reserve and be scheduled for officer training in the army air forces under this deferred plan.

Sports Whirl

By Bob Miller

SOME of the Husker diamonders received an actual taste of war censorship on their recent four-game trip through Minnesota and Iowa. It seems that a car load of the ball payers were riding around a big airfield in Minnesota where there were several of the famed flying fortresses poised for a hop to Nova Scotia. It was one of the largest flying fields in the Gopher state and the car load was taking in the inspiring sight.

DEAN Jackson, Husker footballer and catcher on the current Husker team, was so impressed with the sight that he pulled out a camera with which he had been shooting other scenes of interest around the Minnesota institution. He had scarcely gotten the picture snapped when the car, driven by Ernie Swanson, hurler, was stopped by a uniformed sentry, rifle in hand. Jackson had to give up the camera and the films until the next day when he got his camera back sans film. After a little thought, the team agreed that it was actions like that that will help to win this war.

BIG Bill Daley, Minnesota fullback, is continuing in the same manner this spring. Last fall, Daley was playing in the same backfield with Bruce Smith, Heisman award winner and All-American and many of his achievements went unnoticed. In the Nebraska game it was Daley who was the spark that drove the vaunted Gopher caravan to a narrow 9-0 verdict. In spring drills he is doing himself up in the same style and now is getting just credit for it. In a scrimmage session last Saturday, Daley according to the Minnesota Daily, ran wild, cracking through the tackles and skirting the ends for gains that ranged up to 40 yards. On defense he was the usual Bill Daley, bring down his opponents with bone-rattling tackles. Just credit where credit is due.

Swarms of Oxford men on campus

We mean, of course, men wearing oxford cloth shirts, the favorite fabric of undergrads. Most popular of all oxfords is Arrow Gordon, for these very sound reasons:

It has the best-looking of all possible collars—your choice of regular, gently-rolling button-down, or wide-spreads. It has the Sanforized label—won't shrink even 1%. It has the "Mitoga" figure-fit—no bunchiness. It has anchored buttons.

We have all sizes, whites and colors. Get some today—with Arrow Ties to go with 'em.
