Who said it was spring; the old summer sun was really beating down yesterday with cotton dresses and shirtsleeves setting the styles. . . . Wedding and picnics continue to make up the main body of what is what these days. . . . Avery Forke, DU and now in the army will take on a ball and chain in the way of a gal named Dorothy Askey, Alpha Phi, come June 7. . . . Rumor also has it that another DU Fred Meier is taking the big step as soon as this Friday, all of which amply takes care of some four men from that house counting earlier reportings. Phi Psis are defying the call to picnics and this Sunday evening will see them putting on a big buffet supper. Myra Colberg, Kappa, and Jimmy Baylor are one couple planning on eating hearty. . . . Sigma Nus and Pi Phis have an exchange dinner all lined up for Friday night, or as Jo Walla, soon to be a marine, would say—a trade dinner. . . . Kappa June Jamieson, of the Seizer menagerie, is back at school with no visible traces of her siege with the measles. . . .

Six UN Seniors Take Dental Examinations

National Board of Dental Examiners will hold examinations next Monday and Tuesday for students and practicing dentists at the dental college. Six seniors, at least two practicing dentists, and possibly students from other institutions will take the tests under Dr. H. A. Merchant of Omaha. The six seniors participating in the tests will be Ted Allely, Kenneth C. Christensen, Eugene Walters, Robert E. Roemmich, James E. Chapin, and William O. Pugseley. Dr. W. M. Walla, Fremont, '32, and Dr. H. Glenroy Wallis, Provo, Utah, '41, will also take the examinations.
