Jean Baker

We nominate yesterday as the day of the year on which to cut all classes and sleep peacefully until noon. Unless, of course, you have a bit of duck blood in you in which case you may have enjoyed the walk over to Bancroft, that mecca of all sugar lovers... A word to the wise, get there early if you have yet to register, for the crowd is really thick and determined.

Today we devote practically the entire column to various and sundry happenings on fraternity and sorority row last Monday night... Marge Rivett surprised her Alpha Phi sisters when she passed the candy, for it turned out to be candy bars. Harold Hickey, Phi Psi, was the lucky recipient of all those kisses... Kappa underclassmen had a little difficulty eating their creamed chicken and peas Monday night when all they had were their knives. It seems the seniors had sneaked and taken the forks with them.

Freshmen Sneak.

While we are on the subject of sneaking, the DU freshmen slipped away from their elders and almost missed the candy passing between Dean Yates and Charlotte Smith, Pi Phi... That was only the beginning at 426 No. 16th, however, as Betty Krause and Jim Bell, Beta, were responsible for the arrival of a huge May basket full of candy and later hilarious doings with Jim and Betty getting more than one smackeroo from some of the sisters and brothers... A third box of candy and the final blow to figures and digestion was presented by Marge Owen, Pi Phi alum, and George McMurtrey, now a student in Omaha.

The Sigma Chi's really went in for cleanliness in a big way Monday with as many as eight of the brothers finding themselves in the showers. The funny thing is that two of them aren't even pinned and just got in the wrong crowd... Kappas and Phi Psis plan a picnic Friday night, if it doesn't rain, of course... We wonder if Betty Winn, Alpha Phi, realizes what is going on behind her back. As far as we know, the steady deal between her and Ben Clark, Phi Psi, is still steady for her but we are beginning to doubt if Ben is thinking along similar lines. Maybe it is all an arrangement of their own... See ya, tomorrow.

Towne Club Installs Laurel Morrison Head

Laurel Morrison was installed as president of the Towne club at a mother-daughter breakfast held at the Union Sunday morning. The breakfast—at which sixty were present—is an annual affair given by Towne club girls for their mothers.

Other officers elected were vice president, Lucena Churchill; activities chairman, Ruth Sherburn; secretary, Mary Dennis; treasurer, Carol Griffing; social chairman, Roxana Brown; historian, Virginia Stuermer; music chairman, Jean Austin; publicity chairman, Mary Kierstead. WAA chairman will be chosen next fall.

Dorothy Jean Bryan, out-going president, gave a short resume of the club's activities of the year at the breakfast. The club and the mothers all went to the St. Paul's Methodist church services after the breakfast.

John A. Hopkins, associate professor of economics and sociology at Iowa State college, left recently to make an industrial survey of Argentina.

Cornhusker Sells Glossy Pictures

Glossy pictures used in the 1942 Cornhusker are now being sold by the business staff at the Cornhusker office in the Union.

Students are invited to stop at the office to see the pictures which are being sold at a minimum price, according to Shirley Russel, editor of the book.

Miss Steckelberg Presents Senior Recital at Temple

Janet Steckelberg, a fine arts candidate for degree with distinction, will present her junior piano recital tomorrow at 4 p. m. at the Temple.

The program will include Toccata and Fugue, E Minor, Chopin; Andante in F, Beethoven; Carnaval, Op. 9, Schumann; Danse, E Minor, Debussy; Etude, E Minor, Op. 5, Chopin and Etude, C Minor, Op. 25, No. 12, Chopin.

Chem Fraternity Goes to Pioneer Park for Picnic

Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary chemistry fraternity, will hold its annual spring picnic in Pioneer park Saturday afternoon. A softball game will be featured in the afternoon's entertainment. The picnic is open for faculty members and chemistry students.

A service honor roll compiled by the campus newspaper lists 249 Texas Christian university students in the armed forces of the United States, Canada and England.

A native Icelander, August Sveinbjornsson, freshman in chemistry, is assisting the University of Wisconsin's new course in modern Icelandic with native vocabulary and pronunciation.

A number of Wayne university classes in retailing are being conducted inside district stores this semester in a project to make university vocational training of the most immediate value possible.
