

Race Develops for Second Place in I-Ms

Sports Whirl

By Bob Miller

That was quite some trip that the Husker track team took into strike back to West Point and surrounding territory last weekend... It was the first time some of the Husker performers had ever been back to New York and up to the Point and for them, it was impressive... Biff Jones and family were on hand to welcome the 15 cinder-men along with coaches Ed Wier and Glenn Presnell who went along as guiding hands.

AFTER leaving from the Husker institution last Thursday, the team rolled into the grounds at West Point on the Hudson river in time for the evening meal... After that had been put out of the way, there was a tour of the military institution and then the 15 were bedded down in the post barracks... The next morning brought with it a more extensive tour of the layout and then in the afternoon was the meet... At 7:30 in the evening, the entire group left from Weehawken for a ferry ride to the West 42nd street pier, where a bus took them to the Paramount hotel, the mecca of their remaining jaunts.

WHILE in New York they took in the Lucky Strike program and rode a sightseeing bus thruout the town... On Sunday afternoon most of the group took in the major league game between the Yankees and White Sox which provided a good climax to the trip... They even had an excursion to the top of the RCA building, seventy stories above the city and made a side invasion of the Rainbow room, which was closed since it was Sunday.

ON the return trip, the train into Chicago was a quarter of an hour late, making the railway officials hold the train for Lincoln, but the Huskers took it in fine style and got home Tuesday morning... For some of the seniors the trip was a little monotonous since they had journey back on track trips into New York, but for some of the others it was a new experience... Ki Eisenhart, weight man, "couldn't see much difference between New York and my home town"... He hails from Culbertson, Neb.

ALL of the group picked the showing of the mile relay team as the best single accomplishment of the trip... They were unanimous in voicing approval of the quarter mile anchor run by Bill Conner in which he took the baton 20-25 feet behind the first place man and tossed off a quarter that was close to the 48 second mark to win by a yard or so... Don Morris did not compete back there due to a pulled ligament sustained in the Drake relays.

I-State Faces Strong KU Team May 9

AMES, Ia., May 6.—Iowa State college, seeking its third straight outdoor dual meet victory of the year, will meet stern opposition from the University of Kansas track team Saturday. On paper the meet shapes up as the closest of the year for the Cyclones.

Bill Hargiss, coach of the invading Jayhawks, has three certain first place winners in Milo Farnetti, the best javelin thrower in the Big Six; Don Pollom, sprinter and hurdler, and Don Ettinger, high jumper.

Farnetti Leads Big Six.

Farnetti has thrown the javelin 198 feet so far this year to top the best Cyclone throw by George Gast by some 17 feet. Pollom has run the 100 in :09.9 and the low hurdles in :24.5, better than anything turned in by Iowa State. Ettinger has high jumped over six feet and has cleared 22 feet in the broad jump.

For the first time this year Paul Darling, all-around star for Iowa State, will have some competition in the field of versatility, Charlie Black, sophomore star of the basketball team, will be entered in the pole vault, the discus, the javelin, broad jump and shotput and is rated strong in every event.

Several other basketball stars have been drafted for track duty by Hargiss, including Ettinger, and Evans, the latter a sprinter.

So far this year the Cyclones have defeated Grinnell college by 86½ to 35½, and Drake university, 73 to 58.

Betas Cop Jack Best Title But Second Spot Is Toss-up

By Bob Miller.

Beta Theta Pi is 1942 fraternity intramural Jack Best champion.

The Betas won the runner-up spot in softball and with it the much sought-for trophy symbolical of general all around excellence in intramural sports, without tennis and golf included.

If the Betas had not been awarded the track trophy this year, they would have been eligible for another award. After the track meet was over the Betas were in the runnerup position but an ineligibility on the Alpha Tau Omega first place team took away 20 points from the ATO total and gave the Beta squad the championship.

Betas Came Close.

Had the ATO's not been ruled ineligible the Beta group could have claimed the intramural championship and also the trophy for winning the most points and not winning a major championship.

So much for the first place. The real fight is still present for the runner-up trophy with tennis and golf results not computed as yet.

The Phi Gamma Delta team is now resting in second with a 44 point lead over third place Delta Upsilon but there is nothing that the Phi Gams can do now but wait.

The DU's are in the quarter finals of the tennis fight and should they win the championship plus the points they picked up in golf they would be able to garner the second place trophy.

Both tennis and golf will be played off in the next four or five days if the weather permits. So far this week, the courts and links have been too wet for any play.

In the golf race, the Betas and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon swingers are the finalists with the Sigma Nu's slated to meet Phi Delta Theta for the consolation prize.

This consolation prize is important also because the Phi Deltas and Sigma Nus along with the Kappa Sigma boys are neck and neck in the battle for the trophy awarded to the team scoring the most points but failing to land a major championship. Sigma Phi Epsilon won the title last year as Delta Upsilon carried the Jack Best trophy home for a year's stay.

In the tennis playoffs, the Betas are in again. They must play the Alpha Taus for a final berth to see who will meet the winner of the other semifinal tilt. The DU's will play the winner of the Delta Tau Delta-Sigma Alpha Nu contest. The last contest was a split and it will take a play-off to find the fourth semifinal winner.

The Betas and ATO's have a tie to play off, having already split their matches in the prescribed number of games.

"We have had good spirit and a lot of fight this year," commented Tom Brogan, assistant intramural director, "and we want a lot more of it next year."

There were 21 fraternities taking part in I-M activities this year and the interest shown was evidenced by the high percentage of members taking part in the well-developed all sports program.

Well, that is the way it stands now. The Betas in the finals of golf and the semifinals of tennis have already won the 1942 I-M title and the big race is for the second place honors.

The Phi Gams have the inside track with a lead of 44 points but the DU's by winning tennis, a 50 point minor sport, and rolling up some extra points in the earlier brackets of the golf tourney could manage to win the desired prize.

At any rate the I-M season is about over for another year and the heads of all those concerned can rest easy with the thought of a good job well done.
