

Vol. 41, No. 149

Lincoln, Nebraska.

Friday, May 15, 1942

N-Club Reveals Mystery Queen Tomorrow Night

party dancing to the music of Virginia Ford and Betty Ann Tony Pastor learn the identity of Nichols. the reigning beauty of the cam-pus, the Queen of Queens.

Chosen from six coeds who have previously been named to the university's royalty, the queen will for university parties as far as be, in the words of the two men who know the secret, "super lovely;" and will be presented in the usual unusual manner, according to Bill Smutz, N-club member.

Title Originates This Year

The title of Queen of Queens originated within the club this year, and it is hoped that the presentation will become a tradition as have the honors of Nebraska Sweetheart and Prom Girl. Those

Nebraska's second big dance mystery will be revealed Saturday night as couples at the N club

Informality will be the keynote of the occasion, which is designed to provide that last bit of fun before finals, and it's the last call ceive grades until next fall,

Pastor Music Is Hot

N-club members are more than pleased with their choice of orchestra, which features Eugenie Baird as solist and Johnny Morris, composer of "Knock, Knock" as drummer. The Pastor organization likes its music hot, with an individual slant.

The sponsoring organization has asked that couples attending the party wear informal clothes; skirts and sweaters and high heels for the women and sport clothes with coat or jacket for the men.

Tickets to the N-club party may be purchased at $1.50 a couple at the Union office, Uni Drug, Magee's and from any N-club member.

Infantry Takes All High Awards

For the first time in the history of the units at the university, the infantry made a clean sweep of the company, platoon, and individual compets, by taking firsts, seconds and thirds in all events.

In contrast to other years, when the sun heat reduced the cadet's weight step by step, the 48th annual compet was brought to a close with a shivering crowd of onlookers watching the competitors perform coolly and comfortably. Displaying for the last time before Colonel Charles A. Thuis, the cadets concluded their ROTC training for the year.

Winning company of the compet was company E of the

Rifles Elect Francis Cox New Captain

Francis Cox, junior advanced drill officer, was elected the new captain of Pershing Rifles at the closing meeting of the club last week.

Ed Doyle, sophomore basic, was elected the new first lieutenant, and Bob Walstrom and Don Shaneyfelt, both sophomore basics were elected second lieutenants, Stewart Hauptmann, freshman basic, was chosen the new first sergeant of the club.

Jack McPhaill, the retiring captain, reviewed the business of the club during the meeting and hoped the club would maintain its membership and standing on the campus next year despite the present war. Cox previewed to the group the schedule of events the club would undertake next fall, after school is again begun.

Final awards were made to the three outstanding riflemen in the club, as the closing activity of the infantry, with company D taking second and K third. Winner of the platoon compet was company M of the infantry, with company taking second and C third. Winning team of the first aid compet was the team representing Company F of the infantry unit.

In the field artillery competition, Battery C nosed out battery F by seventh-tenths of a point to take first place as best battery for the year. Battery A's gun squad won the competition in their event.

Arms Spelidown.

Jack Knicely won first place in the individual manual of arms spelldown. Winning second place was Sidney Schwartz, and third, (See AWARDS, page 2)

Emergency Causes Delay In Yearbook

Summer Addresses Must Be Left at Cornhusker Office for Mailing List

Red Guidon Elects John Fitzgibbon

John Fitzgibbon, junior advanced drill officer, was elected the new captain of Red Guidon, honorary military organization for advanced field artillery officers

Other officers elected for the new year are: Ruben Heerman, executive; Don Roth, secretary; Mel Sahs, treasurer, and Gerald Skoog, liaison officer. All are members of the junior advanced field artillery unit.

Red Guidon was organized on this campus in 1937 by Major eral, on active duty. Since that Love Hall date, it has been very active in promoting a closer relationship among the officers of the artillery, and aiding them in their training for an officership in the army. At the present time its membership is over 80 cadets, making it the largest organization on the campus for advanced drill officers.

Corn Cobs Select Frank White Prexy

Outgoing officers of Corn Cobs and Colonel Frankforter, sponsor, named Frank White, president of the men's pep organization in the last meeting of the year Wednesday night.

Other officers elected were Jack Hogan, vice president; Max Laughlin, secretary and Sheldon Kaufman, treasurer. New actives in the group handed in suggestions for committees and Colonel Frankforter and outgoing officers talked to the club on the future of Corn Cobs.

The new president is a member of Kosmet Kdlb and Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was secretary of Corn Cobs for the closing year. Hogan has been a cheerleader and on the business staff of the Cornhusker. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

> member of the Innocents so ciety, Laughlin is also a member of Kosmet Klub and Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity. Kaufman has been a cheerleader and is a member of Ed Doyle. Zeta Beta Tau fraternity.

Students Leave Grade Envelopes Students who have not as yet left their self-addressed, stamped envelopes in the registrars office should do so to-day. Those not having envelops turned in will not re-

Defense Group EndsCampaign For Magazines

Magazines, not more than four months old and in fairly good condition, are urgently sought by the Student War council in their campus-wide drive to collect reading material in the form of magazines for distribution to the army boys over the country.

Individuals and organized houses are asked to contribute as many magazines as possible. Magazines will be collected today from the houses and various campus buildings that have been conducting independent drives, while individuals may hand contributions in at the Union lobby any tiem today.

With over 5,000 books collected on the campus in response to the Victory book drive, recently sponsored by the Council, a similar enthusiasm and wholehearted cooperation is expected of the campus by the Council in this magazine drive.

Air Candidates Begin Exams

Candidates for the aviation air force reserve who appeared before the "aviation cadet examining board" yesterday have begun taking their physical examinations.

Ag College Cooperative Hall Houses 48 Women; Burr Presides at Services

A formal dedicatory service will be held Sunday, May 17, at 3:00 p. m. at Love Memorial Co-operative hall on ag campus. The hall, a gift of the late Don L. Love, prominent Lincoln citizen and friend and benefactor of the university has been the home this school year of 48 home economics women.

Invitations have been sent to about 50 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Love and of the college to attend the services. The program, with Dean W. W. Burr presiding, will consist of an invocation by Dr. McConnell of Plymouth Congregational church, and a vocal solo by Marian Swanson, president of the hall

Mr. J. L. Teeters and Mrs. W. E. Barkley will speak in apprecia-tion of Mr. and Mrs. Love as friends of many years' standing. Acknowledgments of gifts and in-

(See SUNDAY, page 6)

Cornhusker Final Payments Due Final payments on the 1942

Cornhusker are now due, ac-cording to Ed Calhoun, business manager of the yearbook. They may be made in the Cornhusker office in the basement of the Union.

Daily Ceases Publication Until Fall

Today's issue marks the final Daily Nebraskan until next fall. The staff takes time off now to do some studying for finals since considerable midnight oil has been burned in putting out each day's paper.

A new staff was named last Tuesday by the publications board to carry on next year. Special thanks should be paid those who are graduating or who will not be in school next year and working on our staff. To our readers and supporters the old staff members say "Thanks."

NIA Schedules Outing Tomorrow In Antelope Park

Changing the site of their barb-que from Pioneers to the more appropriately named Antelope Park, the NIA Council will hold their outing tomorrow night. All Barbs attending are instructed to meet in front of the Union at 7 p. m., where cars will take them to the park.

Price of the entire bar-b-que, may be purchased in the barb ofthe district chairmen.

year. The winners of first, second and third places are respectively, Wilbur Mumford, Lee White, and

Band's Open Air Concert Is May 20

As a pep-tonic to exam-tired nerves the varsity symphonic band will present an open air concert of restful music in front of the Stadium May 20 at 7:15 p. m. The program will feature the singing of Elizabeth Farquhar, soprano star of "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Due to emergency conditions which have caused a delay in printing, the Cornhusker may not be ready for distribution by May 25, according to Shirley Russel, editor of the yearbook.

Because of this situation, it is necessary that every person who bought a yearbook come to the Cornhusker office and leave his summer address. Final payments must be made by May 25 or have the book sent COD. This will be done on request only.

There will be a few extra books obtainable and those wishing to buy them should see Ed Calhoun, business manager, or come to the Cornhusker office which will be open for a week after the close of school in order that Lincoln residents may call for their books there.

Kosmet Klub, men's honorary dramatic society, yesterday an-nounced the initiation of seven sophomore workers and three other honorary members.

New active members are Bob Henderson, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Jack Higgins, Alpha Tau Omega; Bob Miller, Phi Gamma Delta; Don Tracy, Alpha Gamma Rho; Alan Jacobs, Zeta Beta Tau; Paul Toren, Sigma Chi, and Tom Drummon, Delta Upsilon.

Honorary members admitted to including transportation, is 40 the club are Prof. L. A. Martin, cents, and NIA heads promises a director of the spring show; Mary good time for everyone. Tickets Adelaide Hanson, author of sevmay be purchased in the barb of-fice of the Union or from any of the show; and Jo Weaver, dance ins, Ed Calhoun, Max Whittaker, | director,

At the banquet following the initiation, Walt Rundin, retiring president of the organization, spoke on the Klub's activities for the year and turned the presidency over to Max Laughlin, recently elected head.

Other officers of the Klub are Bob Shoemaker, business manager, replacing Bert Smith; and Don Young, secretary, succeeding Jack Stewart.

Other out-going members of the Klub are John Gayer, who left earlier in the year for army Robert Gelwick,