by
Jean Baker

While the rest of the campus high-lights were prosaically doing the soft lights of various spring formals, house parties, and Jimmy Lunceford at the Pike last week end, and being contented about it, what did Alpha Z Delt Marg Hartman do with her week end but take the fatal, final step that changes her name to Mrs. Lieut. Forrest Hathaway. Leaving the campus "for a week end at home," Marg decided to ring the bells Sunday night with her home-town Romeo and the nuptials took off Monday at 5. The couple then drove to Greely, Colo., and Marg returned to the campus to finish the semester yesterday, and the Lieutenant flew to ol' Virginie, where he is serving in the army air corps. Congratulations for the neatest trick of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway!

Telephones can again be rung for beautiful Pi Phi Jeannette Mae Smith, for hot comes the news that definitely off is the steady deal which lasted from last October with footballer Howie Debus as the sparring partner. Whew!

Finishing Up.

Starting the week end with a country club are the dauntless DU's, who are cooking up their last spring party of the year at Broadview. Dating thither are the Gamma Phi Babcock twins with Don Broehau and Frank Meroney. (You'll have to contact Don and Frank who is tripping with who, if they can tell the twins apart!) Poses to the new Sig New pledges, Jim Nungate, Byron Peterson, Don Young, and Dick Batschelder. And don't take too many boards from the actives...

and the same to Marvin Faltas, neophyte at the Sig Ep domicile.

Driving all the merry way to Crete and back for a picnic (but what a picnic) are the gay little AGR's and their dates Saturday night. Wally Fausche, who, incidentally is looking for a wife to raise his summer army pay, will drag Pi Phi Sayre Webster, while Willard Visek and Lorene Bennett, Jack Paulson and Leona Brant, Chi O of last year, and Glenn Kavanda and Phyllis Ellenberger will also enjoy an open fire in the woods at night...

Not to be outdone, altho they swear they didn't know of the coincidence, Farm House has scheduled a picnic on the same busy night out at Pioneer. Dale Brockemeier and Jerry Buller, Alpha Chi, who have both campuses on edge wondering, will be among those present, while Randy Pratt and Tri-delt Joan Blumer, complemented by Warren Hutchinson and Marg Adams are all set for the afternoon and evening affair.

Last Dance Tomorrow.

Now for that last big coliseum filler on the 1941-42 social calendar—the N-club dance featuring, of course you know, Tony Pasteur and his smooth band and but smooth blues singer. Along with the rest of the 7,000 student enrollment will trot Kappa Dinky Ford with Lyle Wilson, happy Phi Psi, Alpha Xi Delta Peggy Jones with Delta Sig Joe Anderson, and Jean Wochner of the same house with Bill Rist, ATO, Theta Jean Murray with Kurt Knudson, Phi Psi (my, how those Phi Pisis do pop up in the Pink Rag), and Tri-delt June Griffin with John Binning, Phi Gam. The latest whirlwind romancers, Kappa Sig Harold Hopkins and Theta Sheila Wheeler will also bounce, as they are going to the Pike next Thursday to swing and sway with Sammy Kaye.

Advance reports on Sammy Kaye also include Grace Leaders and Kappa Sig Jasper Clark, and Tri-delt Mary Jo Kobus with Glenn "George" Ulrich, as a change from Bob Garey?...

But the last report of the year on campus capers in the last rag of the year wouldn't be quite complete without the news of another candy passing. This time Marg

Ag Party Tomorrow Begins at 6

The party on ag campus tomorrow which is taking the place of Farmers' Fair and several other annual spring parties will begin with a picnic at 6 p. m. on the lower ag campus. The picnic is being sponsored by the home economics club.

Following the picnic the Ag Social association will sponsor a sing. At 9 p. m. the YWCA will give a mixer to which all students are invited.

Those in charge of the afternoon and evening's events include: picnic, Leah Jane Howell and Jean Stewart, co-chairmen, and Carol Chapman in charge of the tickets and publicity. The sing is in charge of Dorothy Sic and Don Tracy. Peggy Strachan will take charge of the mixer and Rose Wood has been responsible for the publicity. Tickets for the events are on sale in Ag Hall only for 30 cents. There are a limited number of tickets available, so students are urged to get them as quickly as possible.

Hayse and George Russel did the time-honored customs. Congrats!

Please boys, don't all go away to the army unless you're to be stationed in Lincoln, and girls, don't all go and get married, and do, everybody, have a good old time this vacation!
