

Summer Sleuthing

By Janet Hoggart

Ah, another vacation coming up presently! As Professor Wimberly of the English department says—we live from vacation to vacation. Isn't it fun—no studies, no classes. The girls over at the Kappa House are stocking up on fireworks getting ready for the big day.

One of the newest of June brides is Chi O Betty Jean Maxwell, who was married at the house Sunday night, to Bob Gottschalk. Thus climaxes a keen little romance. Still at the Chi O House, Kappa Sig Walt Plummer who is now a lieutenant in the dear old army just left to return to camp after a brief leave to see "Bobbie" Lee.

It's Always

Such a problem to know what to get these young couples for a wedding present, but your troubles will be over if you whip right down to Gardner's Jewelry at 1220 "O" st. Gardner's will help you select the correct gift, one that the recipients will value all their lives. And while you are down there ask them to show you their new "King Richard" silver design. For smartness and lasting beauty this English Renaissance silver pattern just can't be beat.

Friday Night

The boys over at the Beta House cooked up a super picnic to South Bend with such couples along as Phi Psi Spencer Porter and Agnes Fox, Alpha Chi; Lee Taylor, Beta and Shirley Russel; Homer Sheridan, Beta, and Pat Williams, DG; "Merlie" Buller, Alpha Chi—the girl with the luscious tan and Bill Arnot; Beta George Townsend with Anne Seacrest, Theta, and Alpha Chi Wilma Schacht with Phi Delt Bud Kruger. Speaking of Agnes Fox and Spence Porter, there are rumors about that they are going steady, but "Aggie" and Spence deny it. DU Don Young is coming this week end from Mitchell, S. D. to see Agnus, so the rumors must not be true—or is it a secret.

Among Those

dancing at Gus Arnheim Saturday were Theta Jean Murray and Beta Paul Dennis; Becky Ely Alpha Phi and DU Dick Geeseman; Nina Armstrong and Sig Alph Jack Rhokar—say, this little deal seems to be in the groove lately; and Vivian Hildebrandt with pin-mate Walt Morrison, Delta Sig.

Dr. Pfeiler, professor of German here at Nebraska, was a dinner guest at the dorm Wednesday night. After dinner he reviewed his book "The War and the German Mind," for the girls.

Almost A Surprise

Is that whirlwind romance of Beatta Bradbury and Lowell Doupe of the air corps, now officially a steady deal. But another couple we liked seeing together, that of Theta Marilyn Hare and Phi Psi Hugh Sawyer is about to be split up because Hugh has to report to Annapolis July 8.

New twosome to hit the campus more or less regularly is that of Peggy Lemon, KAT, and Stan Maly, Sigma Nu, who were last seen dancing to Gus Arnheim's orchestra. Something different this summer is Hank Marvin's activities—that is, different for him. He now seems to be depending mostly upon Marge Holmes' letters from Kansas to keep him company, and he used to be a "date a new girl every week" man!

Alpha Phi

Dorothy Huffman was a bit confused Saturday. Before their date to Gus Arnheim, Aubry Pettit, Kappa Sig was whipping along in his car to pick up Dorothy's brother when the strong arm of the law handed him a ticket—and it wasn't to a Policeman's Ball. Sans lettuce leaves, he asked Russell Leger to escort Dorothy, but later in the evening he found an old dirty dollar bill somewhere and showed up at the Pike.

Besides the University Theater, Bob Hyde, Alpha Sig, is keeping very busy this summer corresponding with Alpha Phi, Lois Christie.

Doing Their

Part for National Defense were Tripple Deltas, Doris Crittenden, Ruth Grant, and Mary Martin Tunks who attended the USO dance at Antelope Sunday night. This was really a noble gesture which some of the rest of us should follow as a precedent—lots of fun too. Still in the Tri Delt House, Betty Jo Nelson and DU Burl Martin were out riding the ferris wheel at Capital Beach Friday night.

Blond Grace Leaders was back for last week end and about Lincoln with Kappa Sig "Jasper" Clark while Sigma Nu Jim Jones is in California in the Air Corps.

Palladians

Are planning a big picnic on the Fourth, but the place it will be held has not been decided yet.

At the Union Variety Show Sunday were seen Virginia Clarke and that ultra violinist Johnson Beam who are together—well—quite a bit. Also Wayne Thompson and Harold Alexis whom everyone wishes would pass the candy, but right away quick.

ZBT Leonard Lutbeg burns the midnight oil these nights, but not studying. No, he keeps his roommate awake while he writes long epistles to a certain Frances Rubenstein of Omaha.

Not to Be

Outdone by the boys who recently wore their pajama tops around the campus for a day, the girls of the all-state music course appeared at breakfast Monday wearing their pajama pants underneath their dresses. The girls had agreed to wear them all day and to all classes but towards afternoon many of them had rolled them up under their dresses. All this is for initiation into an organization called W. P. B. (Women's Pajama Bottoms) which has been started since the girls came to Lincoln. Their motto is "We wear the pants of the family."

High school girls living in the Alpha Chi House gave a party in parlors XYZ in the Union for all the music students with dancing and bingo making the evening a great one. Some of the more noted couples there were Janice Wilson and Ted Brunson, and Gene McCarty with Katie Hirsh. Having hot fudge sundaes in the grill after the party was Ginger Reeder with Norman Leger and Tom Green.

And Now

I want to thank Norman Leger of Burchard, Nebraska, for contributing the news of the music course each week to this column. Besides carrying a full course, Norman has kept an eye on the society to help keep you Rag readers posted on what's going on.
