Kappas, Sammies Take Firsts In Homecoming Scrap Contest

Awarding four cups instead of the previously planned two, Innocents Society last night announced Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Alpha Mu winners of the contest to collect the most scrap and Delta Gamma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon as winners of the cups for arrangement of scrap.

Preston Hays, president of the honorary, presented the cups at the annual Homecoming dance. Hays complimented students on the interest shown in the drive and called it the most enthusiastic turn out since the Rose Bowl rally. Total amount collected in the campaign was 150 tons, a per capita total of 166 pounds from 1800 affiliated students.

Scrap in front of the Sigma Alpha Mu house was piled to the second story mark and included many heavy items. Kappa Kappa Gamma's had collected two large "euclids" with tractor treads. The SAE house was disguised with a camouflaged mortar as the point of a V, supplemented by a V-shaped sign reading "From the Sigs to the pigs." Delta Gamma slogan was "Delta Gamma Drive to Victory" above a filling station (See SCRAP, page 2.)

Innocents of Past Met With Actives

Annual homecoming luncheon of Innocents active and alumni members was held at the Union building Saturday noon at 12:15. Innocents of the university classes of 1902, 1912, 1922, 1932, and 1942 were each represented by a speaker. Verne Hedge of Lincoln presided.

Nelson Wires Praise

R. SCHLATER, Editor, Daily Nebraskan, Lincoln, Neb.

Congratulations on the splendid record turned in by the University of Nebraska fraternity and sorority students in their scrap drive. The materials situation is now one of the limiting factors in war production and every pound of scrap collected will help to build more tanks, planes, guns and ships. Your record is an outstanding one and a direct contribution toward winning the war.

University Players Plan Year's Program

With the announcement of five young men in New York to get on the stage who all share the same small apartment, because of financial difficulties.

Programs of plays for the season include "Arsenic and Old Lace," by Joseph Kesselring; "Out of the Frying Pan," by Francis Swan; "Thunder Rock," by Robert Ardey; "What Every Woman Knows," by James M. Barire and "Claudia," by Rose Franken.

First production of the year will be the sparkling comedy, "Out of the Frying Pan" to be given on Nov. 4, 5 and 6.

Action of the play centers around three young girls and three

A big-time Broadway producer lives in the apartment below them and the scheme of the six is to somehow get the producer to see their production of one of his plays. When he is finally persuaded to listen and watch them, the performance of a murder scene is so realistic that policemen swarm into the room.

Cost of the play selected after tryouts last week includes Carlene Hohensee, George Blackstone, Helen Kesselbach, Robert Black, Larry Taylor, Mary Huffman, Janice Marx, Romulo Soldevilla, Jo Weaver, Bill Palmer, Bud Sch-

Indiana Power Brings 12-0 Win

BY NORRIS ANDERSON.

Sports Editor.

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Oct. 9.—Combining a superb running attack with strategically called and deftly executed passes, an Indiana offensive powerhouse launched its comeback drive here today with a 12-0 victory over the Scarlet and Cream.

A colorful Homecoming crowd of 24,000 spectators saw the somber-garbed Hoosiers overshadow the Huskers in every department save gameness and pluck. Time and again did the streamlined Indiana offense move deep into Nebraska territory only to lose the ball on downs.

First Score.

One minute remained in the first half when Indiana struck for its initial touchdown. Dale Bradley's fumble on the Husker 25-yard stripe fell into the ever-preying hands of Pete Pihos, Hoosier soph end sensation. Another bright soph product, "Mac" McKinnis churned his brown legs eight yards goalward.

One more hasty dash by the Negro star brought the ball, first and ten, to the 16 yard stripe. Renowned Billy Hillenbrand demonstrated his prowess on the next play with aid of a perfect block by Lou Saban, his quarterback. Billy cut wide thru the Husker left tackle, spun away from three tacklers, and was loose for the remaining 16 yards goalward.

Saban's conversion attempt swerved to the right. A brief Husker flurry, which saw Howie Debus flip 20 yards to Wally

Polly Ann Petty Is New UN Pep Queen

Before one of the largest crowds ever assembled at a university dance, Polly Ann Petty was presented to students as the 1942 pep queen last night at the Homecoming dance in the coliseum.

Innocents Name State Committee

Innocents' state-wide University of Nebraska committee were announced Saturday at the homecoming luncheon by Woodrow Magee, president of the Alumni Innocents association. Magee asked the committee to "disseminate information concerning the university's program, value, needs and problems."

Chairman of the committee is Frank S. Perkins of Fremont. Committee members are:

Carl D. Ganz, Alvo; J. Stewart Elliott, Beatrice; Kenneth Neff, Bridgeport; Donald Sampson, Central City; Harry B. Coffee, Chadron; Edwin D. Crites, Chadron; M. M. Jennings, Davenport; Ray Sabata, David City; and Glenn R. LeRoy, Fairbury.

Stepping from a facsimile of the football program from yesterday's game, Miss Petty was given the traditional satin cape denoting the queenship by Janet Hemphill, last year's pep queen. Franklin White, president of Corn Cobs, presented the new queen with a bouquet of roses.

Preceding the announcement of the award, Corn Cobs and Tassels, sponsors of the dance, heralded Jack Hogan, new yell king in a similar ceremony.

Miss Petty is a member of Alpha Phi sorority, and of Student Foundation. She is five feet, six inches tall, has dark hair and blue eyes. As pep queen, she will reign at the Homecoming celebration next year.

The Homecoming dance climaxed two days of celebration which included the university scrap drive, the Nebraska-Indiana football game and the dance in the coliseum.

WAA Meets Tuesday

W. A. A. council will meet Tuesday noon for their regular business meeting.

ladies whose apartment-house basement is full of roomers that they have murdered.

"Thunder Rock" will be given Feb. 17, 18 and 19. The story is a fantasy of a lonely lighthouse keeper whose life is built around six people shipwrecked 90 years before and brought back to life in his own imagination.

"What Every Woman Knows" is James Bartlett's best known play concerning a Scot lassie married to a politician. Dates for this play are March 24, 25 and 26.

Final production of the season will be "Claudia" the hit still running on Broadway starring Dorothy McGuire of Omaha. This drama portrays the transition of a young bride, who is still a child mentally, into a mature woman.
