Frosh Gridmen To Play Game This Friday

Mentor Bill Pfeiff's frosh grid squad will play its first competitive ball of the campaign Friday when the first-year gridmen oppose each other in an intra-squad match.

Frosh grid privileges will be different this year than of other years. The entire squad will be guests of honor at the Northeast-Lincoln high game this week-end. Instead of the annual frosh trip, a big dinner will be staged for the gridgers.

Pfeiff intends to pit his "A" and "D" teams against the "B" and "C" outfits. Starting for the A team will be Pesek and Samuelson, ends; Skog and Hall, tackles; Gilbreath and Tegt, guards; Moore, center; Brestel, quarterback; Kessler and Eisenhart, halfbacks; France, fullback.

Members of the "B" team are Smith and Hayes, ends; Fouts and Lucht, tackles; Croissant and Rhein, guards; Keller, center; Leshner, quarterback; Earthum and Myers, halfbacks; Boehmer, fullback.

"C" squad consists of Drummond and Procter, ends; Carmen and Beck, tackles; Parker and Wilson, guards; Kokjer, center; Wagner, quarterback; Foy and Shires, halfbacks; Poss, fullback.

Lineup for the "D" team lists Schlesiger and Tieman, ends; Seefeld and Echlers, tackles; Schocke and Ebeits, guards; Greenwood,

Bob Steuber Tops Big Six Scoring

Missouri's All-American half-back candidate, Halfback Bob Steuber, led the Big Six scoring parade as play swung close to the mid-season mark.

Steuber is far ahead with 39 points, 25 counters ahead of his teammate, End Jack Morton who has 14 points. Ki Eisenhart, Howard Debus, Al Zikmund, and Randall Salisbury have all scored six points. Each crossed the goal against Iowa State.

Horse Sense

By Norris Anderson
(Sports Editor)

Nuke Van Saft, erstwhile Student Union director here, writes from Chicago where he attended the famous Windy City "Wailing Wall" club Monday noon.

Our friendly enemy Bo McMillin spoke before the sideline quarterbacks concerning his "po' lit'le boys" performance against the Nebraska Cornhuskers. Bo spoke particularly of "that pesky end, number 44" as pictures of the fray were turned on the wall.

Said Bo: "That Number 44 on the Nebraska team, a young fellow named Marv Thompson, was all over the field. Watch him get in those plays—every time—he was in our hair all afternoon. He is a great end."

Bo's statement is merely a reflection of the "pro-Thompson" statements opposing mentors always issue after a game with the Huskers. Thompson's slashing, heady style of play catches the eye of grid fans who know their game. Mr. Casual Fan watches the showy end who snags a flock of passes. Nebraska is not a passing team, so we have to offer for Big Six and national recognition—Marv Thompson, one of the nation's top defensive wingmen.

It required one more line of copy to squeeze in an additional add line, so a line of yesterday's column went amiss. Said line listed fast-passing Perry Fuller and hasty Kenny Elson as top prospects for the Husker basketball varsity. Fuller is a minor letterman, Elson, a major N man.

Listed among the officials for the Minnesota fracas "Field Judge—Jay Berwanger, Chicago."

Mr. Jay Berwanger happens to be the closest existing semblance to a one man football team. He single-handedly half-backed the University of Chicago team to a top rank in the Big Ten when the grid sport down Windy City way was strictly a la bone pile.

Jay's only performance in Lincoln was in 1935 when Sam Francis, Cardwell & Co. routed the Maroons, 25-7. Vet Parke Carroll will referee, Ab Hinshaw of Omaha will serve as field judge.

Odd bits: Scouting notes on Minnesota appeared on the Husker bulletin board yesterday in grim tones. Those Gopher faces on the scout board were downright menacing. Lynn McNutt, the second string Northwestern back, is Husker Bob McNutt's baby brother. "Right smart kid, not at all like me," says our society ed. The Scarlet menace, Tom Farmer of Iowa, has completed 21 out of 51 passes this term for 479 yards. Grid "ranking" Expert Paul B. Williamson has Nebraska rated 61st on his current list. Bernie Bierman's Seabawk team heads the chart. Gopher Bill Daley is currently hitting a seasonal ball-lugging average of eight yards per try. Sideline observer at frosh practice yesterday was Ol' Jawn Pesek, End Jack Pesek's pop. Jawn was in town for his wrestling joust with the Hungarian Olympic champ, Ferenc Virag.

AGR Drops Tilt To Farm House

Farm House won its second game in as many nights last night by rallying in the third period to nip their arch rivals, Alpha Gamma Rho, 7-6.

Holland turned likely defeat into victory for the "O" street men when he intercepted a stray AGR pass and outran his opponents 33 yards for the score. The winning extra point was a result of a Minthorne to Fitzgibbon pass.

The AGR touchdown was also the result of an intercepted pass return. Midway in the second quarter, Brown nabbed one of Minthorne's passes to score.

Beta Theta Pi 28; Phi Kappa Psi 0

It was all Bill Arnot as the Beta's ran roughshod over another opponent—this time the Phi Psi's by the score of 28-0.

With Arnot completing passes all over the field the Beta's were never in trouble.

Phi Delta Theta 13; Delta Upsilon 0

It took the Phi Deltas one half to solve the DU defense before scoring a brace of touchdowns during the final half to win 13-0.

Garnaas Boots

Sending the pigskin goalward here is Gopher quarterback, Bill Garnaas, who'll bark signals against the Huskers Saturday. Garnaas is a triple-threat player, also ranks tops defensively and as a signal-caller.

Donels Makes Shifts to Get Cyclone Drive

AMES, Ia.—Pleased by the progress shown by his reserves against Marquette, Ray Donels, head football coach at Iowa State college yesterday discarded a first team designation for the Cyclone squad.

Donels announced that the starting lineup would include the men who looked like first team players Saturday. Past performances no longer will be enough to hold a place on the team.

The first indication of a change in the lineup came last night when Donels sent Sophomore Ron Norman of Fairfield and Junior Vic Weber of Harlan to the left half and fullback spots in a backfield which included Capt. Royal Lohry at quarterback and George Gast at right half. Ellis Alexander of Merville also drew plenty of attention in the fullback slot.

No starting lineup was indicated as Donels scrimmaged the varsity squad against the freshmen for the first time this year. The Cyclones ran offensive plays at the frosh for most of the scrimmage session. Later the yearlings walked thru Drake plays to let the varsity see the Bulldog offense in action. Wednesday night the varsity is scheduled to go on the defense against the Drake plays.

Husker Eleven Sharpens Play For Gophers

Husker gridmen staged blocking and tackling drills last night as they held their last rough workout prior to the Minnesota fray.

With Howie Debus doing the flipping, the Huskers ran through some passing plays. Debus was throwing the ball with the accuracy he displayed as a freshman. Principal receivers were Marv Thompson, Al Zikmund and Jack Hazen.

Presnell continued to use the same first team as he used earlier in the week. Thompson (game captain) and Hazen were at the end posts; McNutt and Schleich, tackles; Von Goetz and Strathan, guards; Partington, center; Metheny, quarterback; Zikmund and Debus, halfbacks; and Eisenhart, fullback.

Second team halfback, Marv Athey, missed the latter part of the drill.

If you find that travel conditions have changed, please remember—bus lines are doing a big wartime job.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

- 1 90,000,000 persons rely on motor transportation!
- 2 Because of gas and tire rationing, millions more are now riding buses!
- 3 That bus lines must carry this tremendous load with the same number of buses they had in peace-time!

You and millions of others can make travel more pleasant by observing these simple rules:

HOW TO HAVE A BETTER TRIP—

- 1 Travel only when really necessary; then, plan trips well in advance.
- 2 Travel less crowded schedules; go week days.
- 3 Get tickets early; take only 1 suitcase.
