By Marylouise Goodwin and Helen Goodwin.

We often wonder why it is that the Innocents always smoke cigars. We saw Max Laughlin with a long one yesterday but he was too busy, per usual, to explain it to us... Another mystery on the campus is WHO is the unknown man who sent Mardel Silvernail, Tridelt a dozen and a half roses... We may not be super sleuths but we did find out that Pi Phi Sayre Webster and Jack Wright, Beta have turned their platonic friendship into a steady deal. Wow!

Dave Webb, ATO, is considering matrimony, or so it is rumored. Is it love or is it the war?... Dick Reitz, Phi Psi of last year, is taking his last look at Nebraska before joining Uncle Sam's forces. Theta Peg Lemon, Sig Nu Stan Maley's pal, is going to help him celebrate on the big Phi Psi picnic... Speaking of picnics don't forget the ATO affair Friday night at Penn Woods. It should really be a big deal.

Bill Schaumberger, Beta, has not

Marion Patton, Lt. Larmon Wed Oct. 10

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Patton announce the marriage of their daughter, Marion, to Lt. Harold D. Larmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Larmon of McCook. The ceremony took place October 10, at the Washington cathedral in Washington, D. C.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white silk marquiset, with full sleeves and a full skirt. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Rev. Charles W. F. Smith performed the ceremony.

The couple will be at home in Triangle, Va. Lt. Larmon is with the marine corps reserve and is now attending base defense school at Quantico.

Both the bride and groom were university students. Mrs. Larmon was affiliated with Alpha Phi and Lt. Larmon was a member of Alpha Tau Omega and Alpha Kappa Psi.

raved in vain for he now has a date with cute Theta pledge Jinny Malster for the Beta house party Saturday night... Joe Sonderland will be whipping up this week-end again to take in the Beta house party and see DeGee Nancy Raymond... Other dates to the affair will be Paul Dinnis and Jean Kerl, Kappa; Dick Peters and Pat Perish, Theta. Bill Scribner won't be there with the mysterious Margrute to our knowledge, but will be wolfing, per usual.

Ad: Wanted something 5' 5" with eyes of blue and blonde hair. Pee Vee Wykert. This was too late to classify.

Coming this Saturday night is the Pi Phi spook party. Joyce Junge and Bill Loeffel, Farm House will be on hand as will the rest of the sisters and their dates.

Quoting Duke Eberhart—"According to reliable female sources, Fritz Wolfe, Phi Gam, is the smoothest dancer on campus."

Friday, Jerry Tubbs, D. U. and Marg Swanson, Alpha Phi are planning a big night—just what is still a secret.

Prof. Returns Booklet Taken 41 Years Ago

The following letter was received by the University library this summer:

Librarian, University of Nebraska Lincoln, Nebraska

Dear Sir: Herewith I am sending you a booklet that has recently turned up, compressed by weightier tomes. Forty-one years ago I must have neglected to return this when I left the university, for which neglect I now apologize. It is, I believe, a faculty privilege not to be fined for keeping a book overtime.

Sincerely yours, MORGAN BROOKS.

The booklet, "Elementary Problems in Current Electricity," published in 1895, had been marked missing in the past several inventories taken of the library.

Ag Home Ec Club Sponsors Annual Picnic on Oct. 15

Home Economics club annual picnic will be held on the lower campus of ag. college from 6:30 to 8:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 15. Games and group singing have been planned for entertainment and food will be served.

Tickets must be purchased by Wednesday night so that the number of people attending will be known. These tickets may be obtained in ag hall and in the home ec building either Tuesday or Wednesday. The price of the tickets will be 15c for freshmen and 30c for superclassmen.

'R' to 'Z' Students Check Information For '42 Directory

Students whose last names begin with the letters, "R" through "Z" should check the information concerning them for the Student Directory either at the check stand in the Union or in ag hall on ag campus between today and Thursday, according to John J. Douglass, directory editor.

Douglass predicts that the directory will be out in about two weeks.

Economics Group Discusses Power Situation in State

Economia met last night in the Faculty lounge of the Union to hear a discussion, "Public Power in Nebraska," by Prof. C. E. McNeill, professor of economics. The club is composed of the faculty and graduate students of business administration; faculty and graduate students of rural economics, and the faculties of economics at Nebraska Wesleyan and Union.

Announcement was made yesterday of the engagement of Miss JoAnn McCoy of Lincoln to Lt. Ray Prochaska. The couple attended the university where Miss McCoy was affiliated with Chi Omega. Lieutenant Prochaska was a member of Delta Tau Delta.

Litterer Promises Business Booklet Will Be Out Soon

Oscar F. Litterer, instructor in statistics and business research, announces that the first fall edition of Business Review of Nebraska Business Conditions will be published Saturday. Two articles, "The Price Ceiling in Canada," by George Kleiner, instructor in economics; and "Nebraska Continues to Prosper," by Mr. Litterer, will appear in this report. A chart, compiled to show the comparison in the rise in the cost of living conditions between Canada and the United States from 1939 to July, 1942, will also appear.
