BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

Pledges were up to their usual Monday night stunts. The Fiji yearlings took Dee DeVoe along for good measure, and from what we can gather it was better than good. . . . The Theta pledges aren't stepping so lively these days. The actives spend the time after the pledges left thinking up new and different calisthenics for the pledges left thinking up new and turn. . . . Also skipping with food, silverware and the like were the pledges of Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Sig and Sigma Delta Tau.

In case you're as confused as we were, we'll clear up a little misunderstanding for you. Kappa Shirley Klyn is, and has been, pinned to Jim Evinger, Kappa Sig, since last summer. Bill Palmer of the same house merely sat with Shirley at the game. Honest there's no trouble there. . . . The bubble has burst and Pres Hays, Sig Nu activity man and Pi Phi Betty Dobbs are no longer going steady, and after all these months. . . . Another couple no longer on the steady list but still good friends is Kenny Greenwood and Marian Coombs.

Down for Game.

Down last week-end for the game were Chi O of a couple of years back Ruth Salisbury and Leonard Chadek, Nu Sig. . . . Charlott Peck, Marjorie Lew John, Leona French, Lois Bridenbaugh and Francis Simon came back to see Alpha Xi sisters last week. . . .

After the false alarm last week the Alpha Phis are finally entertaining Betas Johnny Edwards and Harold Salisbury, ATO Jim Critchfield, and Sig Alph Jack Martin at dinner. It was all planned for last week but about fifteen minutes before time to eat the girls discovered that they had forgotten to send the invitations.

Triple Delt Mardele Silvernail is now going steady with Delt Bob Keller. It was probably Bob who sent all those roses a couple of weeks ago. . . . John Jay Douglas, erstwhile politician, had luncheon yesterday with Dean Verna Boyles.

Right Finger, Left Hand.

A brand new diamond is now sparkling on the left hand of Tri Delt prexy Mary Helen Dietrick, a gift from Dick Gallatly, Delt.

That "coke" date Alpha Phi Dorothy Hanks and Delta Sig Warren Jefferys had Monday must have been mutually enjoyed. Anyway they are following it up with a date this week end. . . . KKG gal Anna Mary Lee has a big date this week end with Phi Psi pledge Jack Blankenship. You might ask Jack how he first secured a date from Anna Mary, he has a system.

Students Hold Regular Bible Study Classes

A new innovation in religious welfare instruction will be started this evening when the Lutheran students of the campus begin a regularly conducted study of the Bible for the school year. Rev. H. Erck has engaged room 102 of the Temple building for the class.

Sessions will be held at 7:30 to 8:30 on each first and third Wednesdays of each month. All students who are interested in the discussion of religious topics are invited. For the first ten sessions Rev. Mr. Erck has chosen the general topic, "Things Christian." This evening will be concerned with, "Christian Education."

All discussions will be free. Participation is invited for all. All classes will be dismissed promptly at 8:30, allowing all students plenty of time to get back to their houses.

Women's Dean Describes New Dorm Set-up

To explain the control of Carrie Belle Raymond dormitory under the new system set-up this fall, Verna G. Boyles, dean of women, yesterday described the dorm control system.

As dean of women, Mrs. Boyles is over-all head of university women's residences. Under her at the dorm there are three head residents with equal powers, Miss Wilson, freshman advisor and head of Love hall; Miss Aspinwall, assistant freshman advisor and head of Northeast Hall, and Miss Johnston, upper-class advisor and head of Raymond hall.

Each hall has its own officers, and over these the governing body elected last spring, including Shirley Phelps, president; Laura Lee Mundel, vice-president; Anne Louise Wellenseik, secretary; Jean Pratt, treasurer; Addy Kloepper, publicity chairman; Rogene Peterson, social chairman in charge of outside activities; Selma Phingsten, social chairman in charge of Lyon, academic chairman.

Dorm residents elect representatives from each corridor. The house council meets every Monday evening.

War Council Offers Courses in First Aid, Home Nursing

Beginning Tuesday, Oct. 27, the Student War Council will sponsor first aid and home nursing classes to be held in the Union once a week for ten weeks. Red Cross members will serve as instructors, and there will be no charge except for manuals.

Each class will be limited to 25 members, and leader in each group will be notified before Oct. 24. Students without leaders may sign up at the Union.

The schedule includes: First Aid, Tuesday, Oct. 27, 4-6 p. m.; Wednesday, Oct. 28, 7-9 p. m.; and Thursday, Oct. 29, 7-9 p. m.; and Home Nursing, Thursday, Oct. 29, 7-9 p. m.

Anne Seacrest is chairman in charge of the classes.

Popularity of the song, "I've Got a Gal in Kalamazoo," led men students at Kalamazoo college to choose Sara Woodley, a native of the city, as "the girl in Kalamazoo College."

Fifty-eight students have enrolled for study of Portuguese at the University of Texas.

Miss Jo Belle Durce, affiliated with Chi Omega sorority, recently announced her betrothal to Henry Blakeslee Boyden, Phi Delt. Their marriage will take place Oct. 31.

Tomorrow . . .

(Continued from Page 1). United Student effort for war savings, to be followed by a series of similar "stamp days" sponsored by the Council every Thursday. Percentages will be worked out based on the number of total student enrolment buying stamps that particular Thursday, and the results will be published each week in the Daily Nebraskan.

Enthusiastically backing the Thursday War Stamp Drives, War Council Chairman Laurel Morrison asked that "students aim every Thursday for 100 percent!"
