Bowser Is Dog Tired

for this is exam week. It'll terrier heart out when I tell you that I'm close to flunking out of N. U. Well, let's go from tree to tree and see what's doing this week. Say how about this Allan Casey, freshman ATO pledge, dating "Babe" Mornick, who is a senior Pi Phi active. Chi Omega coincidence is that three of their pledges from Tekamah, Charlene Cameron, Joan Potadie and Barbara Fischer, all go steady with Phi Gams from the home town. Iowa State Sig Alphas came over to see their football team go down in defeat. They enjoyed their stay on the campus enough, however, that they have invited five Kappas to come over to Ames this week-end for a house party.

Girls Who Tend

toward getting plumpish, when sitting down appear quite lumpish. Betty Jean Haney, Kappa, will be seen this week-end with KS Bill Flory who has a lump on his forehead. Gamma Phi Beta Ella Mae Oberlander is going to Omaha this week-end. Her sisters predict that she will come back minus the pin she has been wearing of Fred Kroll, Alpha Sig, who is now in the air corps. Ten SAE lads are taking dates to Nehawka, Neb., this Saturday night.

Stop Whistling Fellows!

It's impolite to express so forcibly your appreciation of the way the coeds look in those new Petti dresses from Ben Simon & Sons. That's Mary Lee Tomlinson, Delta Gamma, in the picture above looking lovely in one of the new Petti numbers. The dress she is modeling is white with all-around pleats, three-quarter length sleeves and a separate skirt and top. The dresses are by the famous designer Petti, but you'll be as popular with the fellows as one of George Petty's drawings when you appear in one of these numbers. All the Petti dresses are in pastel shades and are form-fitting. They are offered in pastel shades of blue, green and maize in addition to the white. Sizes offered are from nine to fifteen.

Mary Helen Dietrich, Tri-Delt, is wearing a new Petti dress and a new diamond ring from Delt Dick Gellatly. Mary and Dick are planning to go to Manhattan a week from Saturday for the Kansas game. Stop in today at Simon's dress department. Their department features all the latest dresses for campus, sports, casual and formal wear in addition to the special Petti dresses.

I Like Mathematics

when it isn't over my head, but then I feel the same way about pigeons. Helen Fuller, Alpha Phi, broke down and let Sig Chi Dale Harvey have a date with her for a week from Friday. Tom Crummer, Phi Psi, ought to move across the street to the Theta house. He's over there constantly, well—within hours I guess, seeing "Margie" Kenner. Phi Delt Rod Smith, who until recently went steady with an Alpha Chi Omega active, now has a "steady" deal with Alpha Chi pledge Roma Stall. The botany prof asked, "What color are violets?" With a sly smirk I sez, "She don't wear any."

A Rag staff member got to talk to the famous Bob Hope yesterday. Norrie Anderson had met Hope on the coast two summers ago and renewed the acquaintance in Denver last summer where Hope played an exhibition golf match. He had Hope promise to dial the Fiji number if he ever got to Lincoln and yesterday Hope dialed from the airport between planes.

Get Set, Get "Hep"

Gold & Company's Debutante Shop is offering "Hep" hats for college wear. Pictured are two of Gold's campus favorites. They are rain or shine hits with every college girl. Included in their selections are shower-proof "stormies" that keep their shape come rain, snow or hail, top-whirl "bumpers" that look "all-reet" topping lovely coed hair-dos, and jaunty jeeps that will stay on no matter how these autumn winds blow. The glory of it all is that these hats sell for the low price of $1.00.

Wearing Gold's campus hats are Alpha Phis Sadie Hawkins and Jean Kolezar, Arda Allen, Alpha Chi Omega pledge, and Kit Carson, the Theta who has been dating Phi Delt pledge Dick Thompson. You will be fashion-wise if you stop into Gold's hat department today.

New Deal

is up with Phi Gam Bob Miller. He had his pin out last year, but now is wearing it and dating another girl, Betty Winn of the Alpha Phi domicile. I said to her, "Boy, I'm feeling like a new man tonight." My blind date replied, "I'll say you are." Alan Chapman, Delt, is dating "Dinnie" Ford, Kappa. Last summer Dick was begging Lynn Dale, who is now Mrs. Bill Richardson, for dates each night. Five Fijis are making the trip to Oklahoma this weekend.

If We're Not Too Late

here's an aid to keep from flunking out of school. Long's Nebraska Book Store has reference books on every college subject which they are closing out at 49c to 69c. To be used as a supplement to a text book or even, if necessary, for your only book in the course, these volumes serve as valuable study aids when you're "boning" at the last minute for a big test. Drop over to Long's across from the Administration building and browse among these books which are displayed in cases along the entrance-way. You're bound to find something there you want, and while you're there buy all of your student supplies—notebooks, paper, stationery, pens, pencils—everything for the student. Don't forget that Long's has a Post Office sub-station for your convenience.

Returned to the Campus

is First Lieutenant John Coe of the army, former Beta, to see Theta Barbara York. The Delta Upsilon boys and the Alpha Xi Deltas are having an hour dance tonight. Will "Steamboat" Fuller and Jerry Tubbs, Frankie Smith and B. Martin be friends for at least one evening? A DG pledge, who mustn't kiss a fellow until after the sixth date, said, "Mister, you're one of those terrible lovers." Her lad replied that he hadn't even held her hand. "I know, and it's terrible," she came back. In parting the puppy must tell you what I heard the other day. I walked up to a Great Dane and asked, "Is that a poplar tree over there?" He barked, "No, we prefer the lamp post on the corner."

Look at the Birdie

in Miller and Paine's photo studio and have your pic taken for the 1943 Cornhusker. This year's annual will probably be the last for the duration so you want to be sure to get your photograph in. Deadline date to have junior and senior pictures taken is Nov. 15. If you wait until the last-minute rush during the last few days, the studio might be too busy to accommodate you. So don't put it off, but go down today to Miller's fourth floor and have your portrait made.

"Corny" Idea

was the Kappa Sigs' invitation to their barn dance Saturday. The bids were tied to an ear of corn. The campus is really going rural this week-end with the Farmers Formal on ag campus and the KS party. Kappa Sig dates for their barn shindig are Dave Miliken with Jean Swarr, DG who has dated several other boys in the same house this year; Ed Doyle and Eleanor Lot, Alpha Phi; Larry Taylor bringing Chi Omega pledge Lenore Beck and Bill Orr escorting Mary Jo Gish, Dee Gee freshman. Overheard one Beta saying to another last Saturday night, "I'm not under the alcoholness of inchol, but thinkle peep I am," Stewart replied, "I'm not half so think as you think, but fool so feehish I don't know who is me."

Do I Worry

about the shortage of tires and gas. Why no, why drive a long way when there's a dance right on the campus. It's in the Union's own ballroom with one of the best bands in this territory, Henry Mattison and his orchestra. The day is Friday, the time is from nine to twelve and the admission is only 25 cents per person. The dance last Friday was a big success. Turn out this week; there'll be a fine crowd.

Betty Will

let anyone kiss her because she once slapped a lad who was chewing tobacco. On the QT Jim Weasner, Sig Alph, has a standing date one night a week with Betty Jo Lendley, Alpha Phi pledge. Pat Herminghaus of the Alpha Phi house has given ATO Jim Critchfield back his pin, but they are "good friends and still dating."
