"Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition," and we do mean literally—downs came out yesterday... Ah, it was a great week-end tho. Sally Busch, Kappa got shanghaied on the train to Kansas by Phi Psi John Cook. Kappa sisters knew about the deal and had her suitcase all packed... A couple of Phi Gams came back from their week-end with a couple of dears in the car and a couple of deers tied on the out side—both of which are out of season for the Fijis, or so they tell us.

The Alpha Xi Delts raked in quite a loot—Peg Jones came back from her breakfast date with Delta Sig Joe Anderson, home on furlough, with not only a Delt Sig pin, but also a diamond for the appropriate finger... Jean Wochner of the same house and FH Dale Bookemeier have decided to call it steady.

And K-C...

DU Tom Drummond is a bit perturbed these days. It seems that Alpha Phi Mary Sinclair has a ten date rule. Now all Tom wants to know is, "Are coke dates included?"

No one had a better time in Kansas City this week end than Beta Bill Edwards, unless it was Ren Bukacek. We understand that the show(?) was something not to write home about... Max Laughlin's stock has gone up considerably with the campus females. Get a date with Max and you'll get a ring or a pin—from some one else. He's decided to charge a fee for his services... Dale Harvey and Bob McNutt dropped into the office today to say that they'll make the supreme sacrifice and change their shirts

Tryouts Over... Student Union Names All-girl Cast for Comedy 'Brief Music'

... On Nov. 20

When tryouts for the first Student Union play, "Brief Music" ended last Friday, Jean Cowden, student director for the play, announced the cast, with Betty King and Betty Heine playing the two leads. Other members of the all girl cast included; Dorothy James, Pat Beadle, Lois Neumayer, Jean Buckley and Janet Mason.

The play takes seven girls thru

Vespers Open To Frosh Women First Time Today

Freshmen will be allowed to attend Vespers today at 5:30 p. m. at Ellen Smith for the first time. Captain Albert Kelly, of the Salvation Army, will speak on "Importance of Small Things." Captain Albert Kelly, of the Salvation Army College in Chicago. He has been in Lincoln since June. The Salvation Army is planning to open a Youth Center on North 23, and until that time, Captain Kelly is assisting with the work at 11th and Q.

Special music will be by the Vesper Choir under the direction of Roma Biba.

if the girls will start speaking to them again.

Pins and Wings...

Looks like a steady deal between Theta Pat Chamberlain and Jack Simpson, Sigma Chi... Kappa Shirley Kay Moore has a pair of silver wings from the boy in the air corps we told you about last week, who flew up to see her... Pi Phi Virginia Davidson and John Lee must have had fun at the Turnpike Saturday, anyway they're following that date up with another for the Sig Alph house party this Saturday.

Sigma Kappa Eleanor Kant went to Texas over the weekend via air to see Lt. Ken. Druitt, a Lambda Chi from Oregon... The Sig Nu hay ride Saturday night turned into a barn dance due to the accident, but we're glad to report that Jean Murray and Duke Schatz, who were detained at the hospital over Sunday were brought home yesterday afternoon, and aside from being a wee bit on the stiff side and slightly bruised and battered, are as good as new.

An old flame never dies and to prove it Pi Phi Helen Kelley is again wearing the Kappa Sig badge of Harold Hopkins... Fijis had cigars last night furnished by Al O'Conner, back on the campus for a few days. The girl in the case is none other than Aline Housman, and the Theta sisters were the ones who got to munch the sweets.

Election...

ing the re-election of Dwight Griswold, republican, but Griswold is generally conceded as the favorite.

Elect Sheriff.

Student interest also centers in the Lancaster county sheriff election with Myles Holloway, the incumbent who charged university students with flagrant larceny in the recent scrap campaign, opposing Bill Tiernan.

Today is election day in many other states and political observers are watching to see if the president retains control of his wartime congress. Heavy favorite for the senate in New York is republican Thomas A. Dewey who is outcampaigning democratic John J. Bennett despite the president's personal entrance in the race to back Bennett. Also in danger of defeat are democratic incumbents Clyde Herring of Iowa and Culbert Olson of California.

three years of a woman's college, giving a touching and realistic character study of each. The plot centers around two young college women with a natural and deep affection for each other, one of whom goes from near suicide to near genius thru the domination of the other, both falling in love with the same man in the end.

"Brief Music" is a modern comedy of character with its greatest appeal lying in the naturalness of the individuals, making them people who we see around us every day. It will be presented Nov. 20 in the Union ballroom, admission by identification cards.

out in the present conflict, almost without exception, he said. "Commanding officers in the field are very enthusiastic in their praise of these officers."

Speaking on ROTC progress, Murphy traced the history of the Nebraska unit, which goes back originally to the establishment of land grant colleges by the Morrill Act of 1863, which stipulates that in such colleges "agriculture, the mechanical arts, and military science be taught."

Prior to World War I, according to the colonel, we had no set-up similar to that of today, the modern organization coming with passage of the National Defense Act of 1920.

Full Load.

Outlining work of instructors today, Colonel Murphy declared, "each instructor in the department is carrying a full load, with classes scheduled from 8:30 to 5:30 daily, and from 8:30 to noon on Saturday." For the first time, seniors this year are being instructed in, and given an opportunity in "instructional methods," with the results so far showing "very enthusiastic" response.

In all training this year, all but the most essential theoretical phases of training have been discarded, with practical instruction substituted.

"We feel that ROTC instructors are in closer touch with their students than any other group on the campus," Murphy stated in closing, "in these times we are better prepared to be close to them."

The dinner meeting, open to all faculty members, was sponsored by the American Association of University Professors.

Kosmet Klub Workers Meet Wednesday

There will be a meeting of all Kosmet Klub workers Wednesday at 5:30 p. m. in the Klub office in the Union. Franklin White, business manager, announced that anyone wishing to try out for the Klub can still do so at the meeting tonight.

Research in methods of storing high-octane gasoline and preventing its deterioration is in progress at the University of Texas.

Camouflage is being taught at Queens college and Columbia university in New York.

Barb Social Event... NIA Sponsors Pre-election Dance in Union Saturday... Boyd Brewster To Play

First in this year's general barb social activities will be held next Saturday night when the NIA Council sponsors a pre-election dance in the Union ballroom.

Boyd Brewster and his student band will play for the dancing, and the NIA may present a floor show during intermission. Price of administration to the party is 25 cents per person.

Representatives from different barb houses and organizations on the campus are in charge of selling the tickets, according to Virginia Sturmer, NIA social chairman in charge of the affair. Barbs not included in these groups will be contacted by the district system managers.

Initial All-Barb Party.

Although many of the co-ops, the dorm, and Towne Club have been holding hour dances and sponsoring parties, this is the initial event planned by the Nebraska Independent Association Council for all unaffiliated students on the campus.

The regular matinee dance sponsored at each home game by the NIA Council will be held after the Missouri game this week in the Union ballroom.

Salesmen Appointed.

Students selling tickets from different organizations are as follows:

Ruth Sherburn, Towne club; Jimmie Howe, Brown Palace; Bill Green, Bachelor's club; Dwight Davis, Cornhusker Co-op; Eleanor Jacka, Carrie Belle dormitory; Pat Sand, Howard hall; Gladys Henderson, Wilson hall; Geraldine Thomas, Rosa Bouton hall; Dave
