

Society...

Queer noises have been known to emit from radio transmitters but the one with which the campus cryers start their program off takes the tin cup . . . It's tops in corn.

Back to the old stamping grounds for the game and the week-end were Phi Delt of a couple of years back Cliff Meyer with his pin back, Bob Hedges, FH, and Pi Phi Shirley Johnson back to go to the Sig Chi party with pinmate Ed Faytinger . . . SAM Norm Hahn is in a quandry again because Diana Lagman came down from Omaha to see him.

Going steady again and for about the fifth time (with the same girl) is DU Dick Lyman. This girl is blond high school lassie Mary Anne Peterson . . . Pi Phi Janet Hemphill left for Missouri

Friday to see Dick Clas, donor of the diamond she now wears on the appropriate finger.

Dining at the Kappa Sig house this noon will be the Kappa Clark twins, Marjorie and Dorothy. Margie will be the guest of Vern Ingraham, while Dorothy, who wears a diamond from brother Jack Clarke will be the guest of the whole house.

One of the better parties of the season was the one the Farm House threw at the Cornhusker Friday eve. Some of the dates there included Ed Loeffel and Peggy Lemon, Theta, Dale Wolf and Lois Gaden, Pi Phi, Lee Biggs and Pat Gilligan, Alpha Phi.

Another Friday night house party that was a big success was the DG Rocket party. The walls were decorated with sketches showing the sisters and their dates in 1965. Quite a future for some of the gals—Virginia Trowbridge a movie star, Helen Johnson an Amazon brandishing the club over poor frail Jim Nicola, and then of course "Too Innocent" were Mary Lee Tomlinson and Dick Harnsburger holding hands.

If the Betas, or at least some of them seem a little paler than usual you can chalk it up to the fact that they've contacted a slight case of food poisoning somewhere along the line. Fifteen of the brothers are in bed with it. Some sources say that the Taus did so as the stalwart Betas would be in a weakened condition before the intramural football play-off, last Wednesday.

Civic Leaguers Visit Ellen Smith Hall on One Trip

A group of 30 junior high school students visited Ellen Smith hall Thursday morning as a part of their work in the Junior Civic League. The students on this trip were interested in finding out about the employment possibilities for students on the campus.

Numerous trips of this kind are sponsored each semester for junior high school students by the Lincoln Junior Civic League.

Noted Engineer Speaks on War And the Crisis

President James W. Parker of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers spoke on the part engineers are playing in the present national crisis before the Nebraska section Friday night. Chairman J. K. Ludwickson of the Nebraska section presided at the meeting.

President Parker said the country is reaping the benefit of the training and experience of these men which admirably fits them for a part in the war effort.

Declaring "engineers are about the same wherever you find them," President Parker said that "all are exerting every ounce of energy in the war effort."

St. Paul's Holds Second Vesper Service Tonight

Second in a series of 40-minute vesper services will be held at St. Paul Methodist church, 12th and M streets, at 7:30 this evening. Dr. Gerald Kennedy will speak on the theme, "Seeking God" and will be assisted in the service by Martha Coltrin and Rex Coslor.

Following a supper at 5:45, the university students will start a new series of discussions centered around the political, economic and sociological aspects of the peace which will follow the present conflict.
