Pick Class Prexies, Eligible Bachelors

After a comparatively quiet two weeks of pre-electioneering, Nebraska students will go to the polls on both campuses today to fill two class presidencies, select six "most eligible bachelors" and vote on an amendment to the Student Council constitution.

Candidates for the senior class presidency are Roy Byram, NIA candidate, and Bob Fast, Union party, while NIA candidate Bob Dewey and Union-backed Bob McNutt will vie for the junior class presidency. Only members of a class will vote for the president of that class.

OPA Postpones Gas Rationing Registration

Car-Owners Must Fill Out Cards completely; Register in Schools

Registration for gas rationing cards has been postponed until Nov. 18, 19, and 20, at Lincoln school buildings, it was announced late last night by OPA officials.

On Thursday and Friday the registration will be conducted in all elementary school buildings—not junior or senior high schools, however—from 3 to 7 p. m. Saturday the registration will be carried on at one place only, the board of education building at 2215 Randolph from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Bring Blank.

It will be necessary for all applicants to bring with them the application blank for Basic A book, properly filled out and signed by the person in whose name the car is registered. All filling stations have these blanks, according to Supt. M. C. Lefler of the Lincoln public schools.

It is important that the serial numbers of five tires be listed on the blank, he said, and in addition the automobile registration card must be presented with the application blank. Without either one the ration book will not be issued. Applications must also be filled.

Poll booths for city campus students open from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. will be located in the basement of the Student Union, while ag college students will vote from 9 to 5 in Ag hall 303. No votes from ag college students will be accepted at the polls in the Union.

Field of 14.

Out of a field of 14, six "most eligible bachelors" will be selected by women voters for presentation at the Black Masque ball sponsored annually by the Mortar Boards.

The 14 candidates are Gene Bradley, Bob Bramson, Lyle Chotema, Ki Eisenhart, Dick Geesaman, Ted Greene, Preston Hays, Randall Pratt, Bill Robinson, Bob Schlater, Dean Skokan, Paul Toren, Jim Weesner, and Hank Bathman.

Voters will also have an opportunity to express their approval or disapproval of an amendment to the council constitution which would provide for preferential selection of holdover members to the council "within a week after Student Council" elections in the spring.

Amendment.

The amendment, which would represent an addition to Article IV, Section 3, reads, in full: "Within a week after the Student Council elections the outgoing council shall hold a meeting at which holdover members shall be elected in the nearest whole number. If the party does not have sufficient members of the outgoing council to elect this representation, the total number of holdovers shall be cut until that ratio can be met."

Presbyterians Hear UCLA Grad at Dinner

Ballot Artists' 'Toast Of Europe,' Appear Here

One of the outstanding ballet groups in America, the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, will appear in the university coliseum tonight.

Under the auspices of the Lincoln Symphony orchestra the performance will be open to university students and the public. Ballet artists have been the toasts of European capitals for years and these artists are rated as the finest in the field today.

LEONIDE MASSINE.

Executing a ballet figure is Leonide Massine, artistic director of Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, whose group will appear tonight in the coliseum.

The company has enthusiastic reviews from all over the country. Time magazine's critic, John Martin, wrote of "Snow Maiden" a ballet to be presented here:

Admirable Addition.

"An admirable addition to the repertory, with the mark of a singularly gifted creator upon it—It has a gentle and tender beauty that is objectified in a structure of the greatest skill and delicacy. Completely lucid, and manages without affectation or strain to be fresh and original and altogether distinguished in style."

Under the direction of Leonide Massine a large company will present four ballets. Single admission tickets are $2.75 and special season tickets for the entire series of concerts given by the Lincoln symphony sell to university students for $3.85.

WAA Rifle Club Ready to Shoot

UN Classes Dismissed . . . ROTC, Tassels Hold Armistice Parade

Participating in Nebraska's annual celebration of Armistice Day will be the university cadet corps and Tassels, women's pep organization, in a ceremonial parade to be held Wednesday morning at 10:30.

In conjunction with the parade, all classes from 10:30 to 1:30 tomorrow have been officially dismissed.

Weather permitting, the parade will promptly get underway, with first call at 10:30. From their initial starting points, all companies and batteries will move by their customary route to the parade ground, according to an announcement of the cadet brigade staff. The varsity band will again lead as in all previous parades.

The Tassels, led by Jean Christie, will carry the service flag onto the field and formally present it to the brigade. Flank-
