What's duller Monday socially speaking? We can't think of a thing unless it's the campus crier comments.

Fiji brothers rallied to the cause in the Union the other day and kidnapped DG Kay Detweiler. Purpose of this Lindberg law violation was to convince Kay that she should break her Mily ball date with a Sig Alph Innocent. The brothers grabbed her at 4:00 and didn't return her until 7:15. She was not quite convinced we understand.

Military Ball.

And speaking of the military ball, the face that it's almost three weeks away hasn't stopped many of the campus guys and gals from making big plans for the occasion, formal or no.

Alpha Phi's Retire.

Two more Alpha Phis joined the ranks of those going steady last week-end. They Eleanor Lof and Becky Ely who are going with Kappa Sig Ed Doyle and DU Steve Wiles, respectively.

There are a couple of mysteries running around loose that people would like cleared up. One of them is, what is the big attraction over at the Nebraska Book Store these days that keeps Sig Nu Jim Alexander over that way most of the time.

A Sparkler.

The other concerns popular Theta pledge Shirley Wright. Rumor has it that "Shirts" is expecting a sparkler from one of Uncle Sam's bird men in the toe of her Christmas stocking. How about it?

The Sig Chi and the Alpha Phis have evidently put up their shooting arms for the time being and called a truce. Anyway brothers Jim Hohnson, John Dall and John Bullware are squiring Shirley King, Esther Blanchard, and Marg Patterson of that hut to the military ball.

Back in town for a few days was Bob Hall Delta Sig to see Jo Cherny, Alpha Xi pinmate.

OPA Sets Tire Inspection Period Between Dec. 1, Jan. 31; Outlines Plan

All passenger car owners must have their tires inspected between Dec. 1 and Jan. 31, the OPA announced last week. After the first inspection, car owners with "A" gas cards must have their tires inspected every four months. All competent tire men in each community will be appointed as inspectors by local war price and rationing boards.

OPA Assures Unrestricted Xmas Travel

Government Requests Holiday Travel Limit Before 'War Business'

Government officials do not intend to put priority restrictions on passenger space during the holidays, according to an announcement released yesterday.

Altho it will take "practically everything on wheels" to handle the country's holiday bus and train travel, Joseph B. Eastman, director of defense transportation, has pointed out that so far it has not recognized or sanctioned any priority control over passenger space by railroads or bus lines.

War Business.

Addressing itself to the public at large, according to a story carried by the AP, the government has requested: "Please don't travel over the Christmas and New Year holiday season unless you are moving on war business." It has not, as yet, imposed specific restrictions on its own employees.

The bulk of holiday travel, ODT expects, will be that of furloughed service men coming home from camp or of relatives and sweethearts going to army posts to see them.

Altho Eastman's office has had no notice of restriction, officials who declined use of their names said that in some cases railroads might have imposed a semblance of such control simply by holding back a few tickets for last minute emergency use of military or government officials traveling on defense business.

Phys Fitness Group of Nine States Meet at UN Thursday

Personnel to organize physical-fitness programs in the high schools of nine states will meet for instruction during the regional physical-fitness institute at the university this week, November 19-21. Faculty for the institute will include persons from the army, navy, national defense and health offices, and the U. S. Office of Education.

The meeting opens Thursday morning with an assembly at the Student Union, and closes Saturday afternoon with a round-table discussion. Talks and demonstrations will concern gymnastics, combatants, games, sports, and aquatics.

Capt. R. V. Chase Transferred To Active Duty

Capt. R. V. Chase, recently of the infantry instruction staff, has been transferred to active duty at Camp Wolters, as a part of the two year transfer plan of ROTC instructors.

Captain Chase came here in the fall of 1940, and has since been actively instructing the first year basic infantry cadets. Early this summer he was transferred to the recruiting office, and until his departure from the university was in charge of recruiting students for the army enlisted reserve, army air corps, navy and marine air corps.

The transfer was an action of the two year transfer plan for ROTC instructors now in effect in the country. After two years of instruction it is planned to remove the officers and place them on active duty.

Baptist Student House Is Open For Studying and Recreation

Available for Baptist students at the university is the new church student center at 15th and R streets. The center is equipped for student study, relaxation, club meetings and recreation.

The house was purchased when the city of Lincoln bought the property it formerly stood on to construct 15th street thru to R. The dwelling was moved to its new location, put over a full basement and completely remodeled. Kitchen equipment, a fireplace and furniture have been installed. Plans have been made for the purchase of dishes for 60 persons and equipment for ping-pong, indoor baseball and shuffleboard.

Money for the project has been received from four sources: A small mortgage loan of the property, current income of the Baptist student council, gifts from Baptists over the state amounting to $700 and a gift of $340 from the Baptist board of education.

Librarians Are Wanted to Fill New Positions

Library assistant are wanted to fill jobs in the federal government, the Civil Service commission announced last week. The three types of jobs open, junior library assistant, under library assistant and minor library assistant, offer salaries ranging from $1,620 to $1,260.

All three jobs require either training in a recognized library school, a library apprenticeship course or paid library experience. Appointments will be made on the basis of a competitive two and a half hour examination in general subjects and elementary library methods. Any American citizens, regardless of age, is eligible if he is physically capable of performing the duties of the job.

The date of examination has not yet been set, but applicants writing to the Civil Service commission will be notified as to the date and place of examination.

Union Displays Surrealist Art In Book Nook

Surrealism describes the majority of the pictures displayed in the Union book nook student art exhibit. Varying from vague, blended shades to vivid, eye-catching colors and from hazy to hair-line outlines, this art exhibit expresses the modern trend of student art.

Several of the outstanding sketches are a map of Treasure Island, a loud and vivid scene of a midway at a fair, a jungle village, and several drawings that look like one thing to one person and something else to another person.

The speaker for the evening will be Dr. Paul Kennedy, new pastor at the St. Pauls Methodist Church. His subject will be "Religion in a Revolution." A short discussion will follow the talk.

UN Grads Appointed Naval Cadets

Four Alums Complete Basic Training Work At Pensacola Base

Max H. Bailey, Max E. Butler, Harry A. Detweiler, and Howard L. Floerchinger, former Nebraska men, were recently appointed naval aviation cadets, as announced by the public relations office of the Naval Air station at Pensacola, Fla., where the four men were transferred.

All the men with the exception of Floerchinger were members of ROTC, and Butler was also active in varsity athletics. They all took their elimination flight training at the naval reserve base in Kansas City, Kas., and reported at Pensacola late in October.

Upon completion of the intensive course at the "Annapolis of the Air," they will receive the designation of Naval Aviation with a commission as Ensign in the naval reserve or as second lieutenant in the Marine corps reserve.
