Out of the Depths The Daily

Kosmet Klub. Weathers Triple Trouble, Holds Show Saturday

BY BOB MILLER.

If analogies are in order-you have heard of the fighter who was down but not out-who took the count of nine and then came back to win the fight. Well . . .

Kosmet Klub's banner dipped and even dragged in the dust this fall as all the forces of the elements were against it. But it weathered the storm and still waves on!

Bliss to Reality.

Returning from a vacation to find an accelerated academic year, Kosmet Klub actives began their plans for their annual fall revue. In previous years the show was one of the bright spots on the activity calendar and this is what they wished to

It is hard to say what the first setback was that the Klub received, but when the reverses started they came thick and fast. Out of a clear sky came a bolt when Panhel, with many different channels contributing to the final effect, announced that the sororities on this campus would not take part.

This is war, a fact that will remain without so many different sources reminding us of it. Well, that was the reason that sororities could not put together their talents to take the (See DEPTHS, Page 2.)

Ag College Junior Wins Essay Contest

Second Place Honors In Nebraska Competition Awarded to Ag Senior

Dale Wolf, junior in ag college. was announced as winner of the annual essay contest sponsored by Swift and Company. The contest was open to all students of the college and clased for the writing of an essay on any phase of livestock marketing. Joe Koudele, senior, also a UN student, won second place.

Wolf will receive a trip to Chicago and be a guest at the Chi-cago market fat stock and carlot show. The show will be held December 2 to 5, and will replace the annual International Livestock

(See CONTEST, Page 4.)

Theatre Needs One Man-But Desperately

WANTED!

One, tall, dark, handsome, and intelligent man-by all the coeds on the campus, of course-but even more desperately by the speech department, to play the leading role of Mortimer Brewster, drama critic, lover, and gal-lant hero in the next University Theatre play "Arsenic and Old

Tall, dark and handsome-but even these requirements could be sacrificed if the man could read intelligently, show his emotions convincingly, and make love on the stage under the brilliant lights, as well as on a park bench under the

Men, if you fit any one of these requirements, why not apply at the Temple, care of Joe Zimmer-

For Military Ball . . .

One Corsage—Means Nine

good to know that his girl is behind the war effort even by so small a thing as wearing war stamp corsages," stated Cadet Col. Dick Arnold yesterday concern-ing the War Council's new idea of victory stamp corsages for the military ball.

One corsage, worth 50 cents in stamps, will provide nine .30 caliber rifle bullets for our armed

First day sales of the military ball corsages did not meet the expectations of the War Council. All cadets and men students who plan on attending the ball are asked to purchase these red, white and blue corsages for their dates.

Regular Booths.

The regular war stamp sales booths, where the military ball corsages will be sold, will be manned by representatives of the fraternities and men's co-ops until Friday afternoon at 3:40 p.m. No corsages may be purchased after that date.

The coupons given at the time an order for a corsage is given will be redeemable Dec. 3 and 4 for the flower-like corsages made of five 10-cent war stamps tied with a red, white and blue starred and striped ribbon. Purchase price of the corsages are 60 cents

Cadet Colonel Arnold, disregarding the military angle, expressed his personal thoughts by stating: "From the boy's point of view the girl's date is not required to put out so much money for

"It does a fellow in uniform | money he does put out is toward a worth-while and lasting cause."

booths as in the past.

The corsages will be made at

The sale of the corsages will not disturb the regular Thursday war stamp sale day activities. Students may purchase their quota of war stamps from the regular cost by the Rosewell Floral comthis effort of the War Council.

Vol. 42, No. 42

Lincoln Nebraska.

Wednesday, November 18, 1942

Counselors Hold Annual Dinner in Union Tonight

DuTeau Edits Alumnus, Highlight John Douglass Assisant Of Program

BY MARJORIE MAY.

Ralph Reeder, who resigned to become ag college editor, Ellsworth DuTeau will edit the Nebraska Alumnus with John Jay Douglas, senior at UN, as assistant editor.

Reeder's last issue of the Alumnus, that for November, which came out yesterday, is an attractive and well illustrated edition and the editor's resume of his years at UN and the people he knows make an interesting ending to his career on the Alumnus.

Starts in Publicity.

To begin his journalistic occupation, Ralph Reeder started out by working in the University publicity department. "I was," he writes, "editorial assistant to Lawrence Pike, who was assistant to Robert Crawford, who was assistant to Chancellor Burnett, In other ords I was in a direct line for the chancellorship."

The people he met considers a cross-section of humanity-"some quaint, some dull, some admir-

Also notable in the November Alumnus is an article by Edna D. Bullock titled "My Alma Mater Reminiscences of an '89er." This is one of Miss Bullock's series of University Sketches and describes student life as it seemed in the '80s. Particularly good in these pages are the photographs of early campus scenes such as U Hall.

Includes Letter.

Included in the Alumnus besides the regular columns are the letter

Composer Returns . . . For Fighting Men To Play Own Work

Pvt. Paul Koenig will conduct his own arrangement of "Bach's Concerts for Two Violins" on November 22 at the Lincoln High Vespter Concert.

Private Koenig, now stationed at Camp Forrest, Tenn., was Don Lentz's assistant last year.

Johnson Beam and Thomas pany, which is co-operating with Pierson, two U. N. students, will play the violin parts.

of Robert W. Stevens giving the Taking over the place vacted by University of Nebraska full permission to use his song "The Cornhusker" whenever and in whatever way it may desire.

> This is the beloved Alma mater song beginning "Come a-runnin" which students have sung since 1909. An article headed "He gave the 'Cornhuskers' Their Name" tells of Cy Sherman who saw his first Nebraska football game 49 years ago.

Military Ball Tickets Ready

Company commanders may check out Military Ball tickets anytime affer noon today in Nebraska Hall, according to Col. George Schappaugh, chairman of the ticket committee. Students not in R. O. T. C. may also sell tickets and may check them out at the same time. Students who sell ten tickets will be given a free one.

Varied Entertainment Open to All UN Women; 573 Tickets Purchased

The annual Coed Counselor dinner, one of the largest events to be sponsored by any university women's organization during the school year, will be held this evening at 6:30 in the Union ball-

This dinner is a part of the work done by the organization in helping women to become acquainted with campus life and in encouraging greater friendship between freshmen and upperclassmen. Members of the Coed Counselor organization and their "little sisters" and all other university coeds are invited.

Features of the annual Coed Counselor dinner tonight will be a style show with 14 university models: a Delta Gamma trio; and speeches by the Misses Elsie Piper and Letta Clark, who are the two sponsors of the Counselors, and (See COUNSELORS, Page 4.)

During This Week . . . YMCA To Contact All Men In Annual Campus Dance . . . For Members

YW-YM Holds Joint Meeting

the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Copenhaver, Nov. 21 at 7:30.

Copenhaver is the game leader for the extension service department of the university and is well known to students on both campuses for the instruction he and Mrs. Copenhaver have given in square dancing.

Annual membership drive of campuses. Officers and Y repthe university YMCA is under way resentatives are making an effort the university lands ag and city to see to talk to every man at the university

All men living in organized house will be contacted personally and men not included here will be A group of 36 YWCA and reached by personal canvass and YMCA ag students will meet at telephone call.

Membership chairman on ag campus is Lawrence Boydson and president is Bob Peterson. On the city campus Jim Hanson is membership chairman and Norman Sundberg president. Men making contacts on the city campus also include Warren Stage, Don Papez, Homer Livermore, Eldon Niemann, Dave Marvin, Norman Yale Gotsdiner, Ronald Metz, John Burt, Loui Aukes, Meyer Ucoka, Dick Howell, an Bob Wilkins.

Offers Varied Program.

"The Y offers a program of numerous discussion, recreation, fellowship and social groups, "Norman Sundberg, president, plained yesterday. "Several projects are carried on in co-operation with the YW, and arrangements are being made with the city Y to use its facilities at membership rates.

"Any man who has not heard from a Y representative should see one of the men listed above or stop at the YMCA rooms in the Temple building to talk to Gene Floyd, Y secretary, sometime this

Gettman Addresses State Group of English Teachers

Dr. Royal A. Gettmann of the English department spoke to Nebraska English teachers in Omaha recently. His subject was: "Are Novels Worth Reading?"

128 Men Report for First Meeting Of New Physical Fitness Class

Reporting for the first meeting in the new physical fitness course, offered by the university, were 128 men who turned out Monday evening to receive their first instructions from Dr. R. G. Clapp, supervisor of the course.

Deciding on the time at which the course should be offered and ironing out many other details were the main topics under discussion at the first meeting.

Because of the short amount of time left before the current holiday season, training will not officially begin until Nov. 30, the first Monday after vacation. Since the curricula of the course is progressive in nature, Dr. Clapp felt it would not be wise to start the training until that time.

However, the opinion was expressed that any individual desiring to physically prepare flowers, and he knows that what himself for the course should see Dr. Clapp or any of the instructors in charge for individual fitness schedules between now and Nov. 30.

This course, planned for instruction to all male students interested from 5 till 6:30 every week-day afternoon, is not a substitute or has not been offered competitively with that one offered by the military department on Saturday mornings.

Basic Course.

It is not a commando course involving commando tactics, but initially a physical fitness course supplementing the commando course taught by the military department under the supervision of First Lt. Robert Adams.

The reason for promoting this course was to provide the students, both military and civilian, with a means of building up their (See FITNESS, Page 4.)