

Society...

BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

Paeon of the pigskin has finished rocking the country and dear old Nebraska U's grid stalwarts are once again seen here, there, and everywhere. Season may not have been the very essence of success, but we still like our grid boys.

As we sit, raveled in our mole-skin, we shiver and wonder what the guys and gals accomplished over the Thanksgiving breather. Our teletype starts clicking its magic rhythm and we grasp enough news to fill this column.

In Omaha.

Yes, it was a great week-end particularly for those lucky people who spent their time in Omaha. For instance the Taus who turned out enmasse or the Fijis or the Kappa Sigs or the Phi Deltis... For those unlucky few who had to stay in this dull village there was Art Jarret and his band to make life a little more worth living. And then of course there was "George" Washington Slept Here... Just ask Pat Catlin or Bob McNutt about it. They saw it from the front row.

Hangs Pin.

About the biggest news over the week-end that we can scrape up is that another Sig Chi bit the dust. Bob Mizera hung his cross on AOPi Peggy Capron. All of which sews up a little romance that has been on the fire for some time now.

Not so long ago we said that Kappy Kellog, D. G., was on the verge of going steady and so she is but not with ATO Ray Calkins but with Phi Gam's Bob Miller.

Dick Chambers, DU of last year is back in town for a few days to see pinmate Marcia Barkey. At present Dick is a naval air corp cadet.

Uh-Uh—It's Not Steady.

In case anybody has been curious, Kappa Pat Catlin is not going steady or for that matter never was, with Beta Homer Sheridan. (Not even 'til gas rationing.)

It's been rather chilly of late over at the DU house and not for the reason you think. The furnace broke down during vacation. The Sigma Nus had the same trouble and the fellows strongly suspect sabotage.

A steady deal that has been growing steadily more unsteady and is now completely off is the one between Delt Bob Keller and Tri Delt pledge Mardel Silvermail.

Bob Berger . . .

his roommate, sophomore George Schmelzer in his boarding house.

Expresses Opinion.

Life says that Berger when asked why he thinks this war is being fought, "shuffles his feet and mutters something about the rights of all free men." The article continues that Bob says that being a soldier will be "Just fine"; but that he "can't explain how facing thought of war makes him half excited and half scared and sort of hollow inside, so that he would rather just concentrate on hoping that he'll be a good, average soldier because they'll need a lot like that."

Described and pictured is Berger's family and his hometown boyhood, school and social life. Bob won the national soap box derby championship in 1938 and captained Nebraska City's basketball team, was an outstanding passing halfback on the high school football team and won letters as a jumper on the track team.
