BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

Well kids, this is the morning after the big party... Need we say more? Glenn Miller was, according to reports in the hospital but the band played on without him, and Johnny "Scat" Davis jived with the best of them. There is a rumor here about the athletic department is thinking of drafting him for the team but the rag staff had him all sewed up for their game against the Yearbookies. Darn such weather.

Friday night was an especially big occasion for the Deltas. Jerry Kathol and AOPi Opal Johnson clinched their romance with a diamond and so all the fellows saw that she was duly felicitated.

Make Up and Split Up.

Alpha Chi Betsy Wright and SN Nate Holman have patched up their differences and Betsy is again wearing the white star... Footballer Al Zikmund, SAE and Pat Green have decided to call it off again and Zik showed up at the Ball with Winnie Edee.

And Saturday night the Sigma Nu's Piggie Dinner... Chi O Mary Ellen Beachley will be there with Louis Creamer, Mary Helen Alexis with Don Grant, and Prexy Pres. Hayes with DG Helen Johnson.

One of the happiest men at the ball Friday was Palladian Hank Marvin. Marge Holmes, UN coed of last year, came up from Kansas to take in the army shindig with him.

At high noon yesterday Jane Shaw and Jack Hyland, Pi Phi and Beta of a couple of years tied the tethers tightly in a ceremony performed in David City.

Up for the week-end are Kappas of last year, Mary Runyan and Mary Ralston who danced at the Ball with Beta Bill Edwards and ATO Bill Munson. And Kappa Susie Stone, now at KU, was with Beta lawyer, Jack Stewart.

And while we're reminiscing—DG Kay Detweiler finally appeared at the big party with Jim McKimmy. SAE fledgling, after her original date with Bob Fast, who is ill, had been switched to Louie Seybold, who also caught a flu bug.

squad co-ordinating precision movement with fancy drill manual.

The inspection, held yesterday, is an annual event of the activities of the second regiment of the Pershing Rifle organization. The Nebraska company, officially known as Co. 2, is affiliated with Iowa university, University of South Dakota, University of Wisconsin, and University of Minnesota in the second regiment. Previous to the inspection, the visiting officer, Lt. Col. McNerdon, was host to Col. Anderson and the Pershing Rifle staff at a pre-military ball dinner Friday evening at the Cornhusker hotel.

Coeds Glitter Despite Informal Atmosphere; Black Predominates

By Betty King.

Well, the ball is over, and here I sit soaking my feet in hot water and thinking about all the beautiful dresses I saw.

The perennial favorite, black, was well represented by Dorch Douglas, Kappa, in a smooth black number with a pale coral yoke flanked on each side with a silvery

Director of Art Addresses Guild Meeting Tonight

Mrs. Nellie Vance, director of art in the extension division will address a meeting of the Lincoln Artists' Guild next Thursday night in Morrill hall.

In her capacity with the extension division, Mrs. Vance organized an art gallery which has been displayed in schools and communities over the entire state. Since the project was created two years ago, Mrs. Vance has traveled to 83 Nebraska counties. During the present school term she has made 24 trips with the gallery.

Though the extension division is carrying out the educational art project, it is being partially supported by the Carnegie Corporation. Travel restrictions have somewhat affected its progress of late.

Mrs. Vance's lecture will be the third in the Artists' Guild series. Her subject will be "Experiments in Art Appreciation."

Palladians Initiate Four

Four pledges were initiated into active membership of the Palladian Literary society last night in Palladian hall of the Temple building.

New members are Dale Brehm, baugh. President Ralph Marlette was in charge of the initiation, assisted by Vice President Marjorie Johnston.

flower design. Pat Beadle, Chi Omega, is another girl who prefers black. Pat's dress featured a turquoise yoke edged a band of deep rose beading.

Jill Smith, Pi Phi, wore a black dress with a flower of white beads and green sequins on the shoulder. Jeanne Dresden, Theta, wore a striking black dress with an over-yoke of black lattice work. Lorraine Rabe, Alpha Phi, wore black with diagonal stripes of turquoise and vermilion across the bodice. Stripes of the same colors are used in opposing diagonals on the skirt.

White New Favorite.

Margie Andrews, Alpha Chi wore a red silk crepe dress, studded with square silver metallics in diminishing sizes.

Virginia McDonald, Chi Omega, wore the new fushia shade in a two piece dress with pockets of gold sequins.

Ruth Lund, Alpha Chi, and Mary Ellen Beechner, Alpha Xi Delta, are two blondes who chose pale blue to accent their blondeness.

Miller Absent.

One disappointment threaded its way thru the large crowd as Capt. Glenn Miller, the former maestro of renown, was not on the stand to direct the university band in presentation proceedings. According to unofficial sources Captain Miller is in an army hospital with pneumonia.

His absence did not detract too much from the presentation which in novelty and originality was the most appropriate of the last decade. For after the entire corps of cadet officers were formed facing the stage, the lights were dimmed and a huge spotlight flooded the center of the stage.

Miss Craft Presented.

Resplendent in her outfit of white with scarlet piping, Miss Craft was presented standing in an army jeep. She returned the cadet colonel's salute and her army escort driver drove the jeep down off the stage and toured the coliseum, returning up a ramp to park in the middle of the stage where she was met by Cadet Colonel Dick Arnold.

The honorary colonel then presented Arnold with the traditional saber and he reciprocated with a huge bouquet of white and red flowers.

The two then wound their way under the saber arch and the grand march was completed. The university band playing for the march also played the first dance piece which appropriately was White Christmas.

Scat Takas Over.

That was the signal for the remainder of the dancers to take the floor. Music for the rest of the evening was provided by Johnny "Scat" Davis and his orchestra.

During the presentation and grand march, two units of the Pershing Rifle company performed creditably. The crack platoon lacked the polish of the crack squad but combining the two, an atmosphere of perfection per-

U. of Colorado Offers Course In Japanese

Asking for applicants to attend its Navy Japanese Language school, the University of Colorado sent a communication to Dean C. H. Oldfather of arts and science college.

The course in Japanese will run from eight to twelve months and students will expend up to 15 hours a day in an extensive study of the language. When students complete the course they will be commissioned in Naval reserve, and it is likely that the trained graduates will be used with the fleet in the Pacific.

220 Enrolled.

Attending the school now are 200 students. The physical qualifications are not as rigid as the Navy program has fixed in the past, and the pay for the accepted students is quite adequate. Applicants must be between the ages of 20 and 30 and must have at least three years of college work with Phi Beta Kappa standing.

Students enrolled in the army enlisted reserve and Marine Reserve are not eligible for the school, but students in V-1 and V-7 Naval Reserves are eligible to apply. Interested UN students should consult Dean Oldfather not later than next Dec. 9. Applicants are required to have a personal interview with Boulder officials and must meet their own travel expenses.
