

Sophie Gets Her Man!!

STERNIE STERNBERG . . .
Sophie will go crazy dancing to his music.

Mortar Boards Throw Shindig

"Once I had a girlfriend, her name was Sophie Glutz. She loved me and I loved her. We lived on cigar butts. Some people think I'm crazy, some people think I'm nuts, They're sure of everything but me."

Shhhh! I just escaped from a lunatic asylum. I came to the university because I heard about the Mortar Board party and I knew I would feel right at home there.

They tell me the Mortar Board party is nuttier than the booby hatch I came from. My spies are everywhere and they inform me that at the Black Masque party Saturday night the girls escort the fellows and that's delightfully unconventional.

But that isn't all. The girls bring their dates to the dance on skates, pogo sticks or on horseback and in sleighs, wheelbarrows or in the pocket of a kangaroo. We never had this much fun at the nut house!

We Like Post Office!

At the affair they have picnics on the dance floor, play hopscotch and post office and chase those green and purple gnomes right up the side of the wall and across the ceiling. And a little bird told me that the fellows wear so-called cor-sages such as a three-foot headdress, a cactus with a banner, "Now, who's stuck?", a prisoners' hat with a ball and chain, fruit baskets, neon lights, wigs, underwear over their suits or baby bonnets.

The dance, with Sternie Sternberg and his band, will be held at the coliseum so that we'll have plenty of room to run and play. The girls will go unconventional again by presenting their secret passions in the form of the six eligible bachelors. The price is $1.25 a couple and that's less than we used to charge for our hoodowns at the Bideway Home and Sana-

18-Year-Olds To Register On Campus

Youth Start Registering For National Draft Today At Registrar's Office

Authorized to act as registration center for all male students who have attained the age of 18 years since July 1, the registrar's office begins registration proceedings this morning.

The registration period lasts from today until Dec. 31.

All men whose eighteenth birthdays fall within the dates of July 1 and August 3 are required to register between Dec. 11 and 17.

All students on the campus, whether resident to Lincoln or not will register at Room 103 of Administration building.

Later Registration.

A later registration will be provided for all whose birthdays occurred during Sept. 1 and Oct. 31. This will be held beginning Friday, Dec. 18 and ending Thursday, Dec. 24.

The third group are those whose birthday fell between Nov. 1 and Dec. 31 and they will register between Dec. 26 and Dec. 31.

Beginning on Jan. 1, all youths are required to register with their local boards on their 18th birthday, it was announced. Order numbers of the new registrants will be assigned by age therefore making unnecessary a national lottery.

Air Corps, Naval, Reservists Report Army . . . Navy . . .

Applicants for the Air Corps reserve who began enlistment papers prior to Dec. 5 and who have not taken the required examination, will take the test this morning at 8 o'clock in Nebraska hall. The aviation board will be on the campus once only and today is the day. There is a possibility that the examination will be repeated at 1 o'clock this afternoon, but all those that are able should be on hand for the one given this morning.

All applicants for enlistment in the Naval Reserve must report today to the local navy office to clear themselves thru this office. They also will make arrangements to go to Omaha Sunday afternoon to take their physical.

Dean T. J. Thompson, armed services representative, said that all those who have not completed their enlistment must report today and in addition finish all papers entirely by Dec. 14 at midnight. After that date there will be no more naval reserve enlistments taken.

Waring to Honor UN On Program . . . Tonight At 6

—From Journal.

FRED WARING.

. . . Play's UN Favorites.

Spotlighting the Cornhuskers of Nebraska on his "Nebraska for Victory" program this evening at 6 o'clock over radio station WOW Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians will play tunes recently selected by UN students.

His "Pleasure Time" program dedicated once each week to a college or University is written on a theme of music for victory.

Daily Runs Poll.

Several weeks ago, the Daily co-operating with Waring ran a poll on the campus to determine the four tunes that the students wanted to hear his play. As the result of that poll, the orchestra leader will conduct his orchestra in four selections that received the most votes.

Those chosen are "Abraham," "Beyond the Blue Horizon," "Can't Get out of This Mood," and "Dear Old Nebraska U." The last piece named was the one written by Waring himself after a number of students had signed a petition asking him to do so.

Song Presented.

The song was presented formally to the university in May, 1940.

Besides playing the tunes that students desire there will also be a tribute to Nebraskas contribution to the war effort.

U of N Offers Military Map Reading Course

Course To Carry Three Hours Credit; Instructs Also in Night Mapping

A course designed to aid military personnel in becoming expert map readers will be offered to students during the second semester by the department of geology.

To be known as Military Geology, Topography and Map Interpretation, the course will carry three hours university credit. Besides teaching map reading, the course will offer instructions in aerial photography interpretation, field mapping at night, panoramic sketching and other similar subjects.

The university administration hopes that all ROTC army, navy and marine corps students will enroll in the class.

G. W. Rosenlof Announces Dates Of Registration

The order of early registration was announced yesterday by G. W. Rosenlof, registrar, as freshmen in Junior Division began their pre-registration conferences with advisers. The deadline for freshman conferences is Dec. 22.

Upperclassmen will meet with their advisers Jan. 11 to noon Jan. 16. Agriculture students will register Jan. 12, 13, 14 and 15 only.

After seeing their advisers, students will take their application for registration to the dean of their college or to the junior division for approval of the courses. Fees will be paid from Monday, Jan. 25 to Thursday, Jan. 28.

UN Warden Group Sees Air-War Bombs In Action

C. B. SCHULTZ.

. . . "Civilian Bomb Defense," is his subject next Tuesday night.

Col. C. J. Frankforter of the chemistry department and Dr. C. B. Schultz, director of the museum, will collaborate in their lectures on war explosives at the second meeting of the volunteer university air raid warden class Tuesday night at 7:30.

This meeting will be held in the Avery lab lecture room instead of Social Sciences auditorium in order that Colonel Frankforter may demonstrate a few of the various kinds of bombs used in modern warfare, and the ways in which they are extinguished.

A recognized authority on explosives thruout the nation, the colonel is at present, in addition to his university duties, helping at the ordnance plant in Meade and Wahoo.

Dr. Schultz's lecture will immediately follow Colonel Frankforter's talk, and will be concerned with protective measures the ordinary citizen can take against the damage of bombs.

Student Foundation Adds New District Chairman

Jean Larson has been appointed western district chairman of the Nebraska Student Foundation, as announced yesterday by John Jay Douglass, president. She will replace Lee Farmer who has been called to the armed forces.

It was also announced that the Student Foundation will select two executive committees, one made up of faculty members and another of students, who will take charge of soliciting funds for the post-war scholarship fund sponsored by the Nebraska Student Foundation.

Composed of Presidents.

The student committee is composed of: President of Mortar Board, Dorothy Weirtech; president of Innocents, Preston Hayes; Editor of the Daily Nebraskan, Bob Schlater; president of War Council, Pat Chamberlin; president of Student Council, Dick Harnsberger; president of AWS, Janet Curley; junior class president, Bob McNutt; and senior class president, Bob Fast. The faculty committee has not yet been named.

To stimulate the interest of the student body in giving to this cause, one-half of the proceeds from the coke machine in Nebraska hall will be turned over to the post-war fund by the Foundation. One $25 bond has already been given by the organization to start the fund rolling.

Another recent undertaking of the foundation is sending window displays to strategic spots in the state, publicizing the university in war work.

Barbs Hold Jukebox Dance in Union XYZ Before Christmas

Barbs will dance to the jukebox and hold a general get-acquainted party the Saturday before Christmas holidays in parlors X, Y and Z of the Union.

The fun will begin at 9 p. m. and last until midnight. All un-affiliated students are invited to attend the party. Admission will be ten cents.
