BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

Well twirl our turbin if tomorrow isn't the night that the gals take over and the boys primp and powder their noses and load their escorts down with everything from an over-aged rifle (the kind the military department uses) to electric shavers. The latter are brought along because the fellow is planning to have a long evening that will probably wind up some time the next afternoon.

Neva Hill, AOPi, isn't worrying about the rubber shortage or gas rationing. She's transporting her date in her little red wagon. Only thing now is—is she going to let him ride or make him pull?

Kay Duncan, Pi Phi of last year is coming down to see that Alpha Sig Stan Scott gets to the Mortar Board party. His Alpha Sig pin is still firmly chained to her arrow by the way.

Only Each Other.

This little bit of news took us a bit by surprise but any way here it is. DG Betty Jo Nye and DU Bob Trenchard have decided to forsake all others and call it steady.

Tonight seems to be about filled up to the brim with things to do and places to go... First off the Corn Cob dinner dance at the University club with Johnny Cox's orchestra. It's going to be fun; just ask prexy Frank White, Ed Faytinger, Mort Zuber, Sid Swartz, Bill Thornberg and Jack Hazen, who will be there with DG Janet Krause, Pi Phi Shirley Johnson, SDT Beverley Marcus, Jean Hirshorn, Theta Shela Wheeler and Kappa Mary Clair Clark. The guest of honor will be Pep Queen Polly Ann Petty, Alpha Phi who will be escorted by Gene Reese.

It Happened In . . .

And then the Theta's Sun Valley house party... Taking this in will be Kit Carson with Ernie Larson, Phi Psi; Jean Rotton and Jam Johnson, Sig Chi; Marian Lynch with Sig Chi Bob McNutt; Toni McQuistan with Chi Gam Bud Johnson; Jean York with Phi Gam Norrie Anderson; and Helen Goodwin with Beta Bill McBride. The last two are also planning on stopping at the Beta pledge party for activities too, as are AOPi Helen Freeborn and Tom Hyland.

And over at the Cornhusker the Gamma Phis and their dates will be dancing to the music of Hank Mattison and his orchestra. Here are a few of the dates: Roberta Burgess and Alpha Sig Hank Buthman; Nancy Coe with DU Frank Maroney; Betty Kingdon with KS Gene Olmstead, and Virginia Kunsel with another KS, Bob Von Seggern. Ella Mae Oberlander is having a navy air corps man from Omaha come down for hte affair. His name is Fred Kroll. By the way, the party is open to everyone and no bids have been sent, but everyone is invited.

The anti-dance league which has been Dave Marvin's pet activity is dead. It died a slow death the other night when Jean Brehm and Dot Christian enticed Dave into dancing again. Now all Dave wants is a date to the Black Masque ball tomorrow night.

Cobs' Dinner Dance Tonight Takes Place of UN Migration

... Pollyann Petty Is Guest

Corn Cobs will close their fall activities with a dinner-dance tonight at the University Club. Guest of honor for the evening will be Pollyann Petty, Nebraska Pep Queen, who was presented by Corn Cobs at the annual Homecoming dance.

The dinner, to which only active members may attend, will be followed by the dance in the University Club ballroom. "Guests for the dinner, immediately following the presentation of bids previously circulated by members of the club," stated Roland W. Finley, chairman of the evening's activities.

Because of limited traveling facilities due to the war this year, the club did not organize a migration trip for the students, so the dinner-dance was substituted," declared Franklin White, Corn Cob president.

Two UN Students Speak on Sunday About Homelands

... Philippines and Hawaii

Two University of Nebraska students, Arcadio Benez and Miss Nora Maehara were the first speakers to appear in a series of Sunday evening meetings for young adults and high school students held at Trinity Methodist church.

Benez is a native of the Philippine Islands, the son of a former member of the Philippine national assembly before the islands fell into Japanese hands. His brother, a doctor, was killed in the fight on Bataan.

Miss Maehara was in the Hawaiians. Recently she returned to this country as an evacuee.

Both spoke on their native lands. Benez is studying philosophy at the university and plans to earn his Ph.D. at Columbia, after which he wants to return to his homeland to aid in the postwar reconstruction. Miss Maehara is a junior in the department of sociology.
