Gophers In Readiness For Fast Hockey Season Minus Veterans

... Cuts No Ice In Nebraska

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 7.—Losing 12 good hockey players via the armed services and graduation is enough to play hob with any squad, and yet, Coach Larry Armstrong can say that he sees "good possibilities" in his big, but green Minnesota hockey team.

"The boys are not as fast nor as experienced as last year's men but they are pretty heavy and they ought to come right along—especially after a couple of games," says Armstrong.

Lose Vets.

Among the men lost from last year's squad are Capt. Al Eggleton, Freddy Junger, Bobby Arnold, Burt Joseph and John Peterson. They will all be hard to replace, but Coach Armstrong will be able to get an idea of the strength of his new team in the earliest games.

As yet, he is not decided on his first and second lines but as the schedule approaches, Mally Williams and Pat Ryan seem to have the call at the wings; veteran Dick Kelley at center; and Bud Leckie and Co-captain Don Nolander at the defense posts. MacThayer will probably be in the nets.

Narrow Edge.

Pressing this sextet the closest for starting positions are Wingman Paddy Ryan of Hibbing; Center Fred Heiseke and Versatile Bob Graiziger.

Veteran Five To Represent Kansas State

... On Saturday

AMES, Ia., Jan. 7.—Iowa State's inexperienced basketball team will meet the first of its veteran foes in Big Six play in the Kansas State five here Saturday night.

The game will be the opener of a doubleheader which will include a contest between the Cyclone freshmen and the Iowa State Navy Typhoons.

Five Vets.

Coach Chili Cochrane will start five veterans against Iowa State Saturday including four regulars from last season. Dean Lill, 6-foot 3-inch forward, is the only Wildcat who was not listed for regular play last season. Lill gained his experience as a reserve.

Bruce Holman, one of the sophomore stars of the 1942 season, will team with Lill at the forward positions. Marjo Dirks, the Kansas State center, traded off with Danny Howe at the pivot spot last year.

The guards, John Bortka and George Mendenhall, both saw regular action last year.

The five players accounted for one-third of the points scored against Iowa State by the Wildcats last year.

Cyclones Untested.

Against this array of veteran talent Coach Louis Menze will send four untested sophomores and a junior who was a reserve most of the 1942 campaign. Rollin Kuebler, center, is the only letterman among the five players scheduled to start against Kansas State.

The rest of the lineup will include Ray Wehde and Orlyn Feuerbach, forwards, and Ron Norman and Gene Oulman, guards, all sophomores.

According to Ensign Davis, many people have a mistaken idea of the V-9 class. It is an officer candidates class which will be called to active duty when its members are needed and does not insure completion of college courses. "Any technical training that can be had in college," she added, "will be valuable at the time of entering any branch of the armed services. Mathematics is especially beneficial."

Women graduating in January and desiring to become a member of the WAVES should investigate enlistment now. June graduates and desiring to become a member before graduation.
