Spring is trying awfully hard to come thru these days and people like DG Kay Detwieler and Phi Gam Morrie Dingwell are way out in front of it. We usually hear about people going steady due to the influence of the spring weather. Everyone goes steady then 'cause they haven't the ambition to look up a different date every week end. Kay and "Ding" decided to call it steady Saturday night which takes a couple of very swell people off the eligible list.

We had a couple of other steady deals to tell you about but one of them turned into a pinning before we got around to it and the other one is just no longer steady. Kappa Sig Aubrey Petit turned over his pin to Alpha Phi Dorothy Huffman Sunday night while KKG "Sweets" Campbell and Sigma Nu Jack Young have called it all off for a while at least.

Delta Gamma Betty Lillibridge has finally made up her mind after playing around for over a year. All of which brought another DU pin into the DG house as of Saturday evening. Guess Don Young thought the DU party was as good as place as any to give "Blitz" the pin.

The Palladians got candy and cigars at their dinner dance at the University club Saturday night in honor of the new diamond Marjorie May received recently from Ralph Marlette.

Maybe it pays to advertise—early this fall Sig Chi Bob McNutt was advertising in this column for a girl friend. He evidently found one because Saturday night he hung his coveted cross on Alpha Chi Mary Mason.

Dave Webb, ex-ATO pledge who left school to go on active duty call in the Air Corps, was married Christmas day to Margaret Fulton of Grand Island.

KKG Annamary Lee is going steady with Phi Psi Harold Cullinan at least until he goes to the army. While she was home for vacation the Phi Gam whose pin she wore before coming to school visited her and left with her again his pin. So now she's going steady and pinned all at the same time except to different people.

Uncle Sam has his finger on Tau Jim Van Landingham and Thursday he leaves for training in the Naval Air Corps. Lots of luck, Jim!

Triple Delt Adeline Leigh is flashing a new diamond from Mel McCarty, Sig Chi at Colorado Aggies.

Mardel Silvernail also of the Tri Delt house received a long distance phone call the other night which lasted for 10 minutes and the call came from California.

We have the candidates for BDOC honors running in the spring but why not have a LDOC contest right away? Far and away top candidate for Loudest Dresser on Campus is the Fiji scribbler, Norrie Anderson, who features such coy items as red socks, night-mare sweaters, and about every other idiocyncrasy of race-hoss dress.

The Fiji's are looking a little green again today. Two of the brothers came thru with the cigars last night. To wit: Bob Miller passed the smokes while happy Kellog furnished the DG's candy and Theta Marge Christenson whetted the Theta's sweet tooth with pinmate Paul Wykert handing out cigars.

Jim Evinger, KS distributed cigars to the brothers and KKG Shirley Kyhn supplied the Kappas with the first candy they've had this year.

Georgie Porgie Abbott, that super-duper Rag man, continues to make time in that Ginny McCulla league. The rag wolf had his little red riding hood down at the Journal Saturday night. Awooooo!

Palladian Has Dinner, Dance Saturday Nite

Seventy-second annual boys' banquet and dance was held by the Palladian literary society Saturday night at the University club. Theme of the program was "Blackouts" and Hugh Stuart acted as toastmaster.

Toasts were given by Ralph Marlette "Planes Sighted," "Lights Out," Charles Coale; "Dropping Bombs"—music, Betty Toothaker; "Planes Pass By," Charlton Stuart; "The Siren Sounds"—an impromptu—Betty Toothaker and "All Clear," Bob Veach.

Chaperones for the party were Col. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy and Judge and Mrs. R. S. Simmons.

Colby college is placing increased emphasis on American history this year.
