BY MARY LOUISE GOODWIN.

That frantic urge, which is worse than the sting of a turnip termite, has finally overwhelmed us and has spurred us on to journalize on a few of the more tastier and delectable campus goings-on between fraternity brother and sorority sister.

With all due apologies to the fair readers of this column who know how it should be written, we will proceed with how it shouldn't be written...for instance here's a case concerning Phi Gam, smooth and sombre DeWayne Wolf. Come the weekend of Feb. 5 and 6 he anticipates troubles galore for that is the date of the Tri Delt party to which current girl friend, Jean Hazen will probably take him which is fine and dandy—but!! he has also received a telephone call from home town girl friend indicating she wants to go to the Phi Gam party with him the following night. Such complications. Incidentally, wonder if Wrede Smith is too busy these days to notice the hit Blitz Lillibridge is making with DUs, especially with Don Young.

Wonder how long it will be before someone besides the ATOs take over the parties. They did an excellent job last week end... The very last thing in what to wear to keep the wind out are undoubtedly Al Zikmunds' smooth blue and white coveralls. They're nothing but neat.

The quadrangle evolving three DUs and Bob Saalfeld, little Dickie Luther, and golden voiced Curt Kimball and a local queen named Sophie has finally worked itself up to a climax with the "voice" winning out. Congratulations Curt. And speaking of the DUs how about smooth-boy Tom Drummond and his standing Friday night date?

Surprise for the AOPis

The AOPis scattered their pearly white molars all over the carpet Monday night when Mary Ellen Bonebright and Phi Gam Bob Gilmore passed the candy and cigars. It all comes out however that she has had the Fiji pin since Christmas but it didn't make its appearance until Monday night...Cigars and candy were also the order of the evening at the Kappa Delt and Sigma Chi house Monday night. Judy Hughes and Frank Moyer, recently back from the army did the honors in honor of the new diamond that Judy now wears.

Also back from the army and to visit Lauralee Mundil is Lt. Phil Van Keuren and right welcome too.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Barney have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Bette Belle, to Sgt. Robert B. Morey. Miss Barney is a graduate of the university and has been teaching high school at Bloomfield. While in school she was a member of Chi Omega, Pi Lambda Theta, and Alpha Kappa Delta, sociological honorary fraternity. Sgt. Morey has attended the University of Nebraska and the Lincoln school of commerce. He is now stationed at Tucson, Ariz., where he is in training as an aerial gunner.

Westbrook Gives 10 to 12 Men Chances with Singers

Changes in the membership of the University Singers will give 10 or 12 men, both tenors and basses, the chance to sing with that group. Any who are interested should see Dr. Westbrook some time in the next two weeks for further details. Participation may be either for credit or without it, and the participant may be from any college.

Auto Hits U of N Student Alighting From Bus at Ag

Struck by a car as he alighted from a Traction bus at 35th and Holdrege streets Monday night, Robert Opp, university student of 1510 Vine street, was reported "resting comfortably" at his rooming house Tuesday. Opp sustained only minor bruises in the accident.

According to police, Opp stepped from the bus and started walking across the street when he was hit by a west bound car driven by Floyd Wilson of 2336 No. 17th street.

All students are privileged to sing with one of the university choruses, likewise for credit or without it. These groups will combine with the university orchestra for a spring concert or May 9 in the coliseum. The works which will be performed then are Haydn's "Creation" and "A Song of Victory," a patriotic number by Fletcher.

College enrollments are down nearly 14 percent from the fall of 1941, the United States office of education reports.

Two hundred twenty-six of the University of New Mexico's 1,200 students are from states other than New Mexico, and five are from foreign countries.

Display Features Illustrations Of Books by American Artists

... This Week

Illustrations of American artists are featured in this week's display in the main-floor showcase of the library. Among the books which contain the illustrations is "Farm on the Hill" illustrated by Grant Wood, nationally recognized for his paintings of Iowa farm life. Another of the books is a novel in wood engravings done by Lynd Wood. He has done five other novels in wood cuts.

An illustration from "The Song of Hiawatha" shows the work of Frederic Remington, who is famous for his illustrations of horses and Indians. Illustrations of Rockwell Kent, one of America's foremost magazine cover artists, are shown in "Candide." An illustration from "The Knave of Hearts" shows the work of another American illustrator, Maxfield Parish, famous for his posters and magazine covers.

Also shown is an illustration of Thomas Hart Benton in the book "Grapes of Wrath." Other illustrators whose work is shown in the display are James Daugherty, known for his pictures illustrating American history, Paul Bransom who has illustrated "Call of the Wild," and Newell L. Wyeth, who has illustrated "Rip Van Winkle."
