Present William Gold Key Honors

Twelve business administration seniors were elected to Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary bizad fraternity, as announced last night by Dean S. D. Clark at the annual college banquet in the Union ballroom.

Those named to the honorary are:

Gerald Eugene Archer
Jean Adair Baker
Robert Maynard Bjodstrup
Gene Elliott Bradley
Robert James Fast
Robert Carl Guenzel
Richard Stephen Harnsberger
Sylvia Mae Katzman
Anthony Frances Nocita
Philip Leland Saunders
Sterling Bernard Stage
William Robert Ward

William Gold scholarship keys were presented to ten freshmen students of 1941-42 having the highest standing throughout the year. The keys were awarded by Prof. Karl Arndt, preceding an address by Nathan Gold, who originated giving the keys in honor of his father.

Professors Perform.

Following the honors presentations, A. B. Carson, instructor in the college, presided as master of ceremonies. Because of a shortage of jobs for bizad professors, Carson explained, a poll was to be taken among the teachers to discover what they would be fitted for in the event that the college should become non-existent.

Subsequent stunts had faculty members C. M. Hicks and G. M. Darlington collaborating in a barber shop scene complete with wigs and pruning shears. F. C. Blood selling eggs from a tray, Karl Arndt teaching the alphabet to dolls and D. F. Cole delivering singing telegrams.

Radke Heads Business Staff Of Schooner

New business manager of the Prairie Schooner will be Joanna Radke, Arts and Science senior, it was announced yesterday. She will take the place of Kurt Porjez, who resigned last week to go into the army.

Coming from Rockford College, Ill., last year where she was an honor student, Miss Radke has edited the Rockford Review—a literary magazine. She was selected from among five persons applying for the position.

All students interested in any form of creative writing are invited to attend a literary meeting to be held in the faculty lounge of the Union at 7:30 tonight. Dr. L. C. Wimberly, will preside at the meeting, sponsored by the Prairie Schooner.

New assistant business managers is Bill Eberline, journalism junior, in charge of publicity.

Schedules Meet.

To begin her work Miss Radke scheduled a literary get-together of all those on this campus who have done some writing tonight at 7:30 in the Union. She has also filed an application for a new office room in the Union.

The present office of the PRAIRIE SCHOONER is located in the Administration building. Students interested in working on the SCHOONER should contact Miss Radke in Room 209.

Offer Commissions For Meteorology

An opportunity for young men in the Selective Service and the Enlisted Reserve to attain commissions as 2nd lieutenants in the meteorology division of the Army Air Corps was revealed yesterday in an announcement of a special army-sponsored meteorology training program received by Dean T. J. Thompson, head of university manpower.

Young men of excellent basic training in mathematics and science courses, either through high school or beginning college training, may apply for the basic pre-meteorology courses, introductory training to the Army three part meteorology program resulting in a commission.

Not in Advanced Drill.

High school graduates, freshman and sophomore college students, members of the ERC not in Advanced drill may apply; those in V-1, V-5, and V-7 are not eligible. No qualifying examinations are given; all candidates must be fully qualified by transcript or scholastic record to receive consideration. All subjects in the Army three-part program are given at the college level and credit toward a degree is likely to be granted at most of the participating institutions. Candidates under Selective Service will receive considerations upon obtaining their releases from their draft boards.

All candidates filing for the basic C program may apply in the office of Administration, and must send their applications to Thomas Marshal, c/o the University Meteorology committee, Music Building, University of Chicago. Applications for the basic training must be made out immediately, as training begins Feb. 15. Candidates may select a preferable school at which to receive their basic training in their respective corps areas. (See METEOROLOGY, Page 2.)

Council Plans Chest Drive, Aids WSSF

Consideration of plans to perpetuate the organization through the war years and approval of the WSSF drive was the main order of business at the Student Council meeting last night.

A proposal to select holdover members by a proportional method was described by Dave Marvin and will be introduced on the business docket at the next meeting. Some discussion was held on the Council's membership, and the subject was turned over to a committee which will confer with the elections group concerning the membership next year. Dick Harnsberger, president of the council, went on record as favoring the holdover system.

The Council will support the WSSF drive to be held the last of February, despite some argument to the contrary. A United War Chest drive has also been planned for next semester.

A $50 grant owed the Student Foundation by the Council was turned over to the War Scholarship Fund at the request of John Jay Douglass, president of the Foundation.

WAA To Offer $25 Scholarships To Three Coeds

Three $25 scholarships are to be offered by the WAA. Two will be for scholarship and participation in intramurals, the other for scholarship and need of finance for schooling.

All girls are eligible for these scholarships. Application blanks must be obtained from the WAA office at Grant Memorial Hall by Friday at 5:30.

Number Cases Of Frost Bite Rise on Campus

Frost bite cases hit a new high on the campus this week as temperatures dropped to a sub-zero level. Six men were treated at the Student Health for frosted ears.

Since the initial break of the cold wave Monday, the mercury has climbed back up to a bearable temperature. Co-eds are already beginning to appear in sweaters, skirts, and silk hose, and have laid aside their slacks, ski suits, and cotton stockings.

Yesterday's sun created a noticeable thaw in places. As a whole, everything is looking better than it did two days ago, except that exams are two days much closer.

Cornhusker Takes Rifle Club Pictures Tomorrow

Members of the Rifle Club are to have their pictures taken tomorrow at the West Stadium. At 5:30.

War Group Holds Victory Jamboree

Door prizes, games of chance, and dancing will all be included in the Victory Jamboree sponsored by the War Council Saturday from 10 to 12 p. m. in the Union ballroom. Carrying out a theme of war stamps, the Jamboree is intended to increase war stamp purchases by the UN students.

First prize winner of the door prizes will be given a free telephone call to any service man stationed in the United States, and other door prizes will be announced later. Numbers for the lottery will be given at the door.

Roulette Wheel.

With three Greek houses contributing $25 war bonds, the war scholarship fund sponsored by the Nebraska Student Foundation passed the $1,000 mark yesterday, reaching $1,100, almost 50 percent of the established goal of $2,500.

Two sororities, Chi Omega and Alpha Phi, and the Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity each contributed $25 bonds, bringing the total for the week to $100, including the $25 bond given Monday by Alpha Chi Omega.

Women's Phys Ed Graduates Fill 'Unusual' Posts

Miss Mabel Lee, director of women's physical education at the University of Nebraska, has received word from three of her former pupils at the university that they are in rather unusual fields of work.

Miss Ruth Diamond, a graduate of 1931, arrived in England the latter part of December to begin service as a recreation director with the Red Cross.

Miss Dorothy Zimmerman, '31, who resigned her position as assistant professor on Miss Lee's staff last October, also is an assistant service club director with the Red Cross in England. Miss Patricia Pope, '40, has been appointed police-woman on the police force at Detroit.

be used in place of chips by the players, each player having the opportunity to win all of the stamps bet on each game.

Dancing to the music of the juke box will be continuous during the two hours of the jamboree. A ten cent admission charge for each person will be required to cover the cost of the juke box operation.

Dorothy Douglas, War Council member, is in charge of the Victory Jamboree, Lois Christie, vice-president and secretary of the council, will draw the numbers for the door prizes, and Ronald Metz, War Council member, will do the announcing.
