No Objections Here

The Student Council last night figured out a way to perpetuate itself. Everybody agreed that its plan was a little shady from a constitutional point of view, but if no one objected too strenuously, the group agreed, the plan would be carried thru.

The Council's idea in general is to forget the annual spring election because of the uncertainty of enrollment in the various colleges and also of the improbability of many winning candidates to return to school. Perpetuation is provided by the election of hold-over members who will definitely return to school and who will reorganize the council in the fall. Barb and greek ratio would be unaffected.

We don't believe there will be any strenuous objection to any course of action the council might choose to take—mainly because no one is particularly interested.

It is too bad that we won't have a spring election about which the few people on the campus interested in politics can rant and rave, but even that is for the better.

Perhaps, factional differences will be forgotten, and barbs and grecks, with no election to stir feelings, can get together to accomplish the many tasks involved with the student participation in the war effort.

Need for change in the Student Council set-up, however, has been obvious for years. Perhaps, this is the first step.

A Bloody Story . . .

It's a bloody mess.

A lot of students are wondering why the War Council hasn't made a drive to organize a blood bank from blood that red-blooded university students are dying to contribute.

Well, there is nothing the War Council would like more than to collect some blood, but it can't be done feasibly here.

Neither the Red Cross or local hospitals have the facilities to organize a blood bank here. Local hospitals, as a matter of fact, say they have enough blood for civilian use to last them for a while.

So you anxious students will have to keep your blood pressure down, and your blood to yourself—for awhile, at least.

V-Mail Clippings

Eight men have left or are contemplating leaving their jobs at the man-short Union Grill in favor of the army, navy or marines. The roll of honor includes DALE

FRITZEL, CHET FERGUSON, BILL GUNION, FRANK CHRISTENSEN, BILL GILL, BOB and ROY BALLANTYNE, and BOB GOECKING. Best of luck to the boys and also to the Union!

Three others who will leave this week for the Army Air Corps received their calls Tuesday. They are JERRY KATHOL, DICK BONNELL, PERRY FULLER and CLARION BUETHE. Jerry leaves the Delt house, Dick, the Betas, and "Beeth" departs from the Beta Sigs.

Second Lt. JASPER CLARKE, Kappa Sig of last year, is in town on a very special leave obtained so that he could marry Kappa Kappa Gamma Dorothy Clark last Sunday. The lieutenant has just completed training for the Signal Corps at Yale university where he graduated fourth high in his class.

Back for a short furlough was Sergeant BOB RUBY, Delta Tau Delta two years ago. He is now instructing in the communications school, Paratroops, Fort Benning, Georgia. Bob came back to see Alpha Chi Mary Lou Holtz.

A story about another fledgling paratroopist came into V-Mail the other day. He was the number one man in the group of 20 standing at the door of the plane waiting to take the jump. His plane was the last plane in a V-formation.

The day was clear and sunny. As he stood there waiting for the signal to jump, he saw the first man in the plane ahead tumble out. The jumper pulled the rip cord too soon. The chute was caught up into the plane propeller; the man was dragged after it. His skull was cracked against the wing, and he dropped like lead from the sky.

The man in the second plane saw his body smash against the earth just as he was commanded to jump. Paratroopists jump when they are told. He jumped immediately . . .

Capt. KENYON PAYNE and his wife, the former Jane Boucher, are back in town. The captain has been transferred back to the Lincoln Air Base to the new glider school which has just been established. When here, he was a Beta, and his wife a Theta.

News from the Sigma Chi house relates that Lt. S. G. BILL BUCK was aboard the U. S. Courier during the flight of the Jap navy at Guadalcanal. Bill is an observation flyer.
