

Party Line

BY JANET MASON.

Wolfgang (Douglass) Monroe has finally found an answer to his plea for a new society editor. The first job which confronts any new society editor is to straighten out the unauthentic reports of his predecessor. Namely, Betty Ruth Dunlap, Chi O., does not have Sig Ep Ray Miller's pin.

It has been rumored that Charlie Spivak is coming to the Turnpike Friday—but from previous experiences we have learned not to stake too much on rumors. Nevertheless, a few of the wishful thinkers have made dates for the affair. One date in particular which caught our attention was that of ATO Johnny Thompson and DG Helen Johnson. Phi Delt Johnny (C-Card) Jones will be seen with Miggs Manning, Kappa pledge and Bob Ferguson, DU, with Helen Greusel, AOPI. Norm Holk and Bill Gist will be patronizing Fred's Friday night in view of the Theta initiation which will occupy the time of Joline Ackerman and Barbara Schlater.

Things I've Always to Know. Why the ATO freshmen don't have the nerve to give Jawn Mason a full-cut; or (why I am going into hibernation after Monday night)?

What choir that Jean McCartney signs in practices until 12:30 on Wednesday nights?

Why Mark Hargraves, George Wright and Jim Nicola are importing three girls from Missouri for week-end dates? Could it be to promote the football game between Missouri and Nebraska?

Competing with the Fiji-Tau tussle is the DU luncheon dance Saturday at the DU house. Among those present will be Bill McCormaughey and his Alpha Chi "steady" Eunice Ensor, Kurt Kimball and Alpha Phi Mary Lee Stauf and Kent (speedy-on-the-track-how-does-he-do-on-the-grass) Kratz and Mary Tussey.

Perhaps Cornhusker sales will flourish with this bit of information: A stolen glance through the Cornhusker files revealed that Alice Louise Becker has been holding out two interesting pictures, taken at a Phi Gam party last year, of a well-known sports writer with one of his fraternity brother's girls. Wow!

Seen coking in the Union was Bob Terhune, para-trooper, formerly of UN, with Mary Lee Tomlinson, DG.

The biggest order of the day for Saturday is the Fiji-Tau tussle bringing together Finn Howard, ATO, and Lois Scofield, Alpha Chi, John Binning, Phi Gam and June Griffen, Tri Delt, and Bob Schlater, ATO and Judy O'Conner, Kappa.

News comes of the marriage of Ginny Hay, Kappa, and Harry Rinder, Beta of last year, last week following Harry's commission as an ensign.

A parting word results in a fervent hope that the new N-club initiates will recover from their boardings in time to enjoy an eventful week-end.

Special Navy Board to Meet March 23-28

Men interested in reserve commissions in the navy are being invited to appear before a special selection board which will sit in Omaha from March 23 thru March 28 it was announced here Wednesday by Lieut. R. N. Larson of the naval officer procurement staff at Des Moines.

Any men under 50 years of age who feel that they may qualify as naval officers will be interviewed. Lieut. Larson said it is likely some students graduating this spring can qualify.

The board will have offices at 820 WOW building, 14th and Farnam, in Omaha. Complete applications will be given those who qualify and medical examinations will be made.

Johnny Riveter Goes 'All Out' For War Effort

Somebody wondered how John Echernach, full-time riveter at North American Aircraft Corp., Inglewood, Calif., could subscribe $40 of each weekly pay check to buy war bonds.

"It costs me nothing to live," he explained. "I get my room and board for managing the Beta Theta Pi fraternity. You see, I'm also a full-time student at the University of California, Los Angeles."

As a side line he serves as salaried business manager of the campus humor magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Clark announce the engagement of their daughter, Marjory Ellen, to Aviation Cadet Jack H. Reams, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Reams. Both have attended the university where Miss Clark is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Cadet Reams is training at Morningside college, Sioux City, Ia. No date has been set for the wedding.

Dr. Westbrook, Prof. Lentz Lead Group at Norfolk

Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook and Prof. Don Lentz of the school of music will jointly conduct a mass high school band and choral clinic Friday in Norfolk. At least 15 northeast Nebraska high schools will be represented by music groups.

Sponsored by the Norfolk junior college, the clinic will start at 9 a. m. o'clock in the high school auditorium with choir and band rehearsals. Concluding performance of the day will be a mass choir and band concert in the evening at the Norfolk city auditorium. Admission charges will be war bonds and stamps.

Dear Sir:

Some students think fall is the best time of the year. When you ask them why, they all reply: "Because of football."

Nebraska has traditionally had strong football teams and the sport ranks top among university sports. A spring game with Missouri would add interest to student activities, now lagging with all of the ERC men leaving for the army.

President, Coed Counselors.

Dear Sir:
Tassels are the University of Nebraska's official women's pep organization, as you know, and naturally they favor any action that will promote school spirit and university sports.

As a member of Tassels, I know that the group will wholeheartedly back the idea of a spring football game with Missouri. That old school spirit and enthusiasm needs to be revived once again.

Our boys can also get into shape for future army call by conditioning for a game.

Lila Howell
President, Tassels

Word has also been received from Max Laughlin, Kosmet Klub president; Alice Louise Becker, editor of the Cornhusker; Pat Chamberlin, president of the War Council; and Polly Petty, chairman of the Student Foundation. Every one of these student leaders pledged their personal support, plus the support of their organizations, to promotion of the spring football match.

Student Talent In Fifth Union Variety Show

Employing student talent and film entertainment, the Union will present its fifth variety show of the year Sunday at 8 p. m. in the ballroom.

The Pi Phi trio, composed of Dolores Weaver, Marilyn Simpson and Helen Vennum, will sing popular selections as a part of the vaudeville show, and Jeanne Rotton will give piano interpretation of semi-classical music.

Taken from Shakespeare.

"Boys of Syracuse," a comedy starring Alan Jones, Martha Raye and the late Joe Penner, is the full length movie of the evening. Taken from Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors," the plot involves the complications of twin brother and twin servants living in ancient Athens.

A Donald Duck quickie, "On Ice," will complete the program.

Thru an error in yesterday's Daily, a rooming house was listed as "Carl Coop." It is not a coop house but a girl's boarding house.

Iowa Chemist Says Bananas Provide Fuel

AMES, Iowa, March 15.—Motor fuel from bananas is a chemical possibility, according to Dr. L. A. Underkofler of the chemistry department of Iowa State college.

Dr. Underkofler, consulting chemist for the Office of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, has just returned to the campus here after nearly three months investigation of the process in Costa Rica and Honduras. He conducted his investigation in the laboratories of the United Fruit company at San Jose, Costa Rica, and La Lima, Honduras.

Use Surplus.

The process for making motor fuel was developed as a possible means of using bananas which are now rotting on the ground for lack of shipping facilities. Dr. Underkofler said that while chemically possible, the process must still be developed by chemical engineers on a commercial basis.

Dr. Underkofler has had a part in work that has been carried on at Iowa State college recently for the production of alcohol from grain by a new process.
