... Calls On Each Student

An examination to qualify candidates for officers training in the navy has been set for April 20, to be taken in the law building by all V-1 students and members of the Marine reserve that are of sophomore standing.

The announcement, made by Dean T. J. Thompson, calls for the examination to be taken by all members of the navy program V-1, who are sophomore students or who are in their fourth semester of work, and the Marine reserves who are not yet of junior standing in semester or in credit hours. The term junior standing implies 53 credit hours for all students other than engineers, who require 64.

The examination will be given in two sessions on Tuesday, April 20, with the morning session beginning at 8:30 and the afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. Each examination will be two hours in length. "At present, the plans

Names of 15 university students and one faculty member elected to Phi Beta Kappa and 23 elected associate members of Sigma Xi were announced at the annual joint spring banquet for the societies at the University club last night.

Robert A. Alberty, elected to both organizations, was cited for having the highest average among the Phi Beta Kappa members, his average is 93.42. Sigma Xi associate members are chosen primarily on the work they have done in two or more departments of pure or applied science. Alberty was recommended by the department of chemistry and mathematics for the Sigma Xi associate membership.

Sixteen Phi Beta Kappa members were announced last December. The total for the year is now 31. Prof. D. A. Worchester of teachers college was made an honorary member. List of new members were read by Prof. Clifford M. Hicks, secretary of PBK and Prof. F. W. Norris, secretary of Sigma Xi.

Delehant Talks.

The pre-trial system in judicial procedure was advocated by Judge John W. Delehant of the Federal District court in an address before the group.

"The practice is eminently sound in theory and principle, a forward step toward accuracy and principle, a forward step toward accuracy and certainty as well as simplicity in the administration of justice."

According to Judge Delehant, the pre-trial system is the most effective contribution to the securing and administering of justice that has been discovered in the last 75 years.

Names Virtues.

Summing up the virtues of the system, the speaker listed the following time in court heard and allowing points. (1) the system (See HONORS, Page 2.)

War Council Holds Second Coed Enrolment ... For War Work

All coeds who have not registered with the war council for some phase of war work are asked to do so in the Union lobby by Friday of this week.

Postcards have been sent to these girls notifying them of the registration by Catherine Wells, chairman of the war work committee of war council.

All girls who have signed for a war activity and who have not attended their class, are being called by the notifications committee, of which Janet Krause is chairman.

By the end of the week, war council hopes to have every girl engaged in some sort of war work, if she is not carrying too heavy a schedule of school work or outside employment. Exceptions are made by the committee in this case.

KFOR Gives Skit of War Council's Work ... Thursday

The history, aims, and the present activities of War Council will be reviewed on KFOR, Thursday at 4:45.

The skit under the direction of Miss Margaret Perkins, head of the university radio department, was written by Janet Haggart, a member of War Council.

Year's Highlights.

The fall scrap drive, the Red Hot and Blue show, and the latest event, the welcoming dance for air corps cadets are a few of the highlighted subjects.

Castings for the fifteen minute dramatization will be announced later in the week.

Library Exhibits Rare 15th Century Editions ... Published 450 Years Ago

BY BOB WILKINS.

Three old volumes published in the 15th century compose the new display in the third floor showcase of UN library. The first of these, "The Works of Lucius Lactantius," was first published at the shop of Conrad Swerynheym and Arnold Pannarts not far from Rome. The edition shown was published March 22, 1493 by Vinc. Benalius. Copies of this edition are very rare as only three books were printed.

The second book, also published in 1493, is Schedel's "Nuremberg Chronicle." It served as an atlas, "Who's Who," and history book. The "Chronicle's" biggest selling point was its many pictures.

Westbrook, Lentz Judge Participants At Music Festival

Dr. Arthur Westbrook, director of the school of music, and Don Lentz, director of the university band, will judge participants in the annual public school music festival at North Platte April 29 and 30.

The festival will include bands, orchestras, ensembles, choral groups and soloists from grade schools and North Platte high school.

Thursday evening Dr. Westbrook will conduct the high school a cappella choir, and Mr. Lentz will conduct the symphonic band.

Candidates For Tassels File Today

Unaffiliated women who wish to be considered Tassel candidates for the coming year must file applications by noon today. City campus girls should place their applications in Miss Piper's office in Ellen Smith hall. Students on ag college should file in Dean Burr's office listing their present activities, scholastic average, and hours in the university.

To be considered for Tassel membership, applicants must have an 80 average, be carrying 12 hours in good standing and must have attained sophomore standing by next fall.

A Tassel rush tea will be given Saturday afternoon, April 17, from 2 to 4 o'clock at the Alpha Phi house at which all girls who wish to be considered for membership should attend. New members will be chosen to fill barb women-at-large vacancies at this time.

Library Lists Pocket Guide For Soldiers

The exhibit now in the main-floor showcase of the library features copies of the "Pocket Guide" books which have been prepared for soldiers going overseas.

This series is a publication of the war and navy departments of the United States. Among the booklets shown are the guides to China, Australia, North Africa, Great Britain, and Egypt.

Also shown in the display are various booklets from the war service library which were published to help the American public make the best of war-time meat rationing. Two large charts show the relative vitamin and protein content of various foods. Also shown is a "Victory Meat Extenders Receipts Book."

Not Public Typewriters!

The typewriters in the Daily Nebraskan office are not public machines.

Only Daily Nebraskan workers will be allowed the use of the typewriters. Other people found using the machines will be accused of using school property without authority.
