

The Daily Nebraskan

Vol. 43, No. 57

Lincoln, Nebraska.

Friday, April 23, 1943

Uniformed Campus Observes Easter

Towne Club Takes 'V' Speaking Honors

... Thetas Second

Towne Club's team came out on top in the Victory speaking contest at the Temple last night, edging out the Kappa Alpha Theta team by a narrow margin. Jerry McKenzie, Delta Gamma, won first place in the individual speaking ratings.

This was the first time in the history of the intra-mural debates that a woman's team has won the trophy—a silver gavel—and also the first time an unaffiliated team has taken the honors.

Virginia Steurmer and Dorothea Lemon were members of the Towne Club team. Miss Steurmer spoke on "Rationing" and Miss Lemon on "War Bonds." The winning speaker, Jerry McKenzie, also discussed war bonds.

Second place in the individual ratings was taken by Joline Ackerman, Kappa Alpha Theta; and third place went to Jean Cowden, Chi Omega.

Coed ROTC Ushers for Air Corps Sunday

Members of the womens' ROTC unit will usher at the sunset church services for air corps boys Easter Sunday.

The coed-ets will wear their uniforms of white blouses and dark skirts and will meet at 4 o'clock in the east stadium.

Temporary squad leaders again took charge of the squads in the drill yesterday and others were appointed by Lt. Robert Adams for next meeting. Permanent leaders will be appointed on the last meeting of the company for this semester to officiate next year.

Aircrew Warblings Boost Coed Morale, Bring Blushes

BY KIT CARSON

Now this is what I want to know! When fifty cadets break into a merry "We're never too busy to say hello! hello, hello, hello!" does one do an about-face, and shake each hand personally, come to attention with a snappy salute, or walk dumbly by, hoping that the slip isn't hanging three feet, and that your hair looks like you combed it at least day before yesterday. Nothing is funnier than a confused coed trying to get to class in front of fifty wolves. (Er, that probably doesn't include all the cadets!)

We would be willing to bet that the cadets know just about every song (mentionable and unmentionable) that's ever been printed. College songs, high school glee relics, and songs for, er, all occasions.

We Know 'em Now

By this time, any girl on the campus can sing every other line of the army air corp song. It's such a good song that we often catch ourselves marching with a one, two, three into an astonished English class. The day the prof calls "Halt," we'll know we're really gone!

"For Me and My Gal," "Around Her Neck She Wears a Yellow Ribbon" and "Roll Out the Barrel" are three favorites of the march-

The contending champion for the intra-mural debates was last year's winner, Phi Kappa Psi, which was, however, eliminated in the third round because of ROTC activation.

Replace Debates.

The victory speeches were given on wartime subjects in keeping with the university's war effort, and were introduced to replace the annual intra-organization debates. Ten women participated in the competition, three houses and four individual speakers.

Besides the winners the entries were Joan Bohrer of the Kappa Alpha Theta team; Margaret Newman and Roberta Burgess, who made up the Gamma Phi Beta team; Janet Mason, Alpha Chi Omega, and Pat Curry, Alpha Phi.

Union Variety Show Stars Hyde, 'Soldy'

Sixth in the series of Union Sunday evening variety shows will be the Easter show featuring Bob Hyde and Romulo Soldevilla with their original music and songs and the movie, "The Men Who Knows Too Much."

Filmed by the versatile Alfred Hitchcock, who produced such suspense thrillers as, "Shadow of a Doubt," "Rebecca" and "Suspicion," the film stars Peter Lorre, the world's worst criminal in the title role.

"Elmer the Elephant," a Walt Disney technicolor cartoon will complete the program.

Pat Lahr, Union social director advises every one to come and see the film billed "for adults only."

ing army. But do they know what a good song "Gee, But I Want to go Home" is? The campus has picked it up so fast that it could be number one on the Hit Parade.

But it really doesn't make much difference what you sing, boys, or how you sing it, we'll like it—just as long as you keep on singing!

Ensign Anne Dorsey Speaks On WAVES Requirements

Ensign Anne Dorsey of the WAVES will speak on the recruiting of officer candidates Monday afternoon at 5 p. m. She will talk in the Union ballroom to any university women interested in the navy auxiliary program.

Ensign Dorsey is a member of the public relations office of the naval officer procurement department at Des Moines. Altho the minimum enlistment age for officer candidates is 20 years, Ensign Dorsey will review the training necessary for admission on

J.P. Colbert, Blackman Teach Unit

Professors J. P. Colbert and J. S. Blackman of the engineering mechanics department of the college of engineering have been assigned to full time duties with the STARS program on ag campus.

Courtesy of Lincoln Journal.

J. P. COLBERT.
... goes to STARS unit.

At present the program has (See STARS, page 4.)

Social Work School Plans Week's Events

Inquiry Group Handles Questions At Conference in Ellen Smith Hall

As a part of a plan to acquaint undergraduate students with social work as a career, the Student Association of the school of social work will sponsor a social work week on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week from 1:30 to 5 p.m. in Ellen Smith.

Many inquiries have gone into the school of social work from students regarding the nature of social work as a profession and its training requirements.

Give References.

Students who are interested in finding out about social work may come to Ellen Smith any one of these days and have their questions answered. Printed material and a list of references will be available for those who would like to do a little reading on social work.

meeting the age qualification. She is the fifth person to speak on Nebraska campus in the series

Daily Suspends Easter Edition

The Daily Nebraskan will not publish an issue for Sunday, April 25, because of the Easter week end. The next Daily will be printed Tuesday, April 27.

Churches to hold Special services

Traditional Easter services will be held this Sunday at all the churches in Lincoln for the second time since war has been declared by the United States on Japan.

A dirth of uniform-less men is the biggest change on the campus since last year, but air corps men and activated ROTC cadets in the library and the STARS unit on ag campus will be free to attend services Sunday morning and may secure passes for church on Sunday evening.

Along with the regular Easter

Daily Stops Delivery To Frat Houses

Due to the recent drop in the membership of fraternities and because of a gas shortage, copies of the Daily Nebraskan will no longer be delivered to fraternity houses, announced Don Papez, business manager. They can be obtained in Social Science, Student Union, M. E., and Andrews.

services, the student churches are planning various special services for students.

Methodist Services.

The Methodist Student House is having communion service at 6:30 Sunday morning at the St. Paul church. Two morning services will be held also, one at 9:30 and one at 11. Dr. Gerald Kennedy will give a sermon on "A Handful of Stars."

The early morning services, sponsored by the young peoples' group of the church will include students Louise Lehner, Phyllis Clark, and Elizabeth May, string trio, and Lela Lyne, organist, in its program.

LSA Holds Good Friday Service.

The Lutheran Student association is having no regular service in the Union on Sunday, but Good Friday services will be held at 7:30 p. m. today in the Union, Parlors Y and Z. Regular Lenten services will be held.

Episcopal services will be held today at 10 a. m. with a passion (See EASTER, page 7.)

Dressing Class Meets for Two More Saturdays

There are only two more Saturdays left in which university women may roll bandages toward the second 10,000 quota.

A large per cent of those signed up for surgical dressing who usually attend are going home for Easter so will not be there this Saturday. Katherine Wells, who is in charge of surgical dressings stated that all women who would be in town and had signed up for surgical dressings should be present tomorrow since so few would be in town.

Fifty Contributions Goto UN War Fund

BY ED FAYTINGER.

This year the quick change from a peace-time campus to a war-time campus saw many war organizations, drives, and classes take their place as a part of the University of Nebraska and its organization. Of the many war-time campus activities the War Scholarship Fund provides for the future both for the students and the university.

The War Scholarship Fund, under the sponsorship of the Nebraska Student Foundation, will serve as an aid to selected veterans of the present war upon their return to school. The fund will be used in awarding scholarships of not more than fifty dollars per semester to any student who matriculated in some college of the university and thereafter served in the armed forces of the United States.

Reaching Goal.

The fund is gradually coming within view of its $2,500 goal for the year, as donations from various organizations and personal contributions continue. All moneys collected will be presented to the finance secretary of the university and will be invested in War Savings Bonds.

This amount will be handled by (See WAR FUND, page 5.)