

Party Line

What could be more beautiful than to see George Abbott fuming and fussing as he tries to get the rag staff moving so he can get to assembly not less than a half hour late. He should be officer of the day to protect himself from AWOL.

Who could be more aware of coming Easter than one who tries to get news about week end dates? There just ain't none—except:

1. It isn't enough that most of the fellows were activated, thus deserting the girls on Friday nights, but those few remaining are taking great pleasure in dating off the campus. ATOs, Bill Munson and Bob Buxton have planned a week end picnic with nurses. Following the ATOs example, a bunch of Sigma Chis have decided on Lincoln high school debs for their Friday night entertainment; Bill Heinzelman's doings, no doubt.

Renewing's Fun.

2. It looks like Theta Marian Lynch is renewing an old acquaintance with John Bottorff. They've been seen together quite a bit lately. Another renewal of acquaintance is that of Bob Flansburg, Beta of last year, and Addie Kloepper. Their re-acquaintance, or should I say patching-up, is being done through V mail, as Bob is in the air corps.

3. Nancy Mauck supplied candy at the Alpha Chi house Thursday night to announce her engagement to Carl Leonard, former Nebraskan.

4. What could be more appropriate than a prediction that a steady deal is brewing between Dedric Kimball, DU, and Mary Stauf, Alpha Phi.

Wants a Date.

5. An interesting one-sided meeting at Kings last Saturday is still waiting for hard earned results. Leonard Dunker, DU, discovered, sitting in a booth across the aisle, a smooth high school girl known as Joan Damewood. He has been pestering friends for a week to get him an introduction. Good luck, Dunc!

6. Pinnings and engagements were flying so fast a few weeks ago that we couldn't keep up with them, then came a lull and now we find them breaking up almost as fast. Latest pin break-up is between Sigma Chi Jack Grainger and Ruth Werner, Pi Phi, at Denver.

7. Word comes of an interesting party held at the Stuart theater on night. Participants were the girls of the Bombshell Stage Show and some UNP boys, whose names are deleted of necessity.

Which?

Time to tell of week end activities away from Lincoln: John Hardy will spend the week end at his home in Omaha and we wonder who will see more of him; his parents or Pat Morris.

Jean Miser of the dorm will help Bob Saalfeld, DU, make plans for Easter by visiting his home. Also forsaking home will be Rodney Smith, Phi Delt, who plans to accompany his steady Jean Larson, Alpha Chi, to her home.

Phi Delt's Bruce Allan and Rex Wagner will attempt to "light up" a dull week end by traveling to Omaha, and Phi Delt Don Cooper and ATO Chuck Heider will find their diversion in Cheyenne, Wyo. Chuck is planning to see a certain Pi Phi whereas Don is going along for the ride (it says here.)

We received news that Pvt. Fred Turner of the library aircrew became the proud father of a baby boy Thursday. He's from Michigan.

Three Kappa Sigs stepped out Wednesday night to relieve themselves from a week of hard studying. Bob Von Seggren was with Bobbette Burke, Gamma Phi, Bob Koefoot with Patty Pierce, Theta and Bill Palmer with Aggie Fox, Alpha Chi.

If you've waded through the column this far we will leave you with instructions to treat your eyes with boric acid and enjoy your Easter "vacation." You library residents, be sure to send an Easter letter home telling your folks what a wonderful time you're having.
