

Party Line

BY JUDGE MASON

As I sit here trying to dictate the so-called society news to secretary Kay King, (secretary's note: I'm practicing for civil service typing exams) I can think of but two things (1) The cute smile and the friendly wave of a sentry on duty (2) A fervent wish that something would happen within these dull prison walls. And so we plunge into what didn't happen today.

Phil Van Curen, Casanova of 1939 (what do you mean '39?) returned to the campus and was seen coking with Laura Lee Mundil. Another Union spectacle was former Innocent and Managing Editor of the Daily, Merrill Englund, Kappa Sig. He was seen coking with Jean Cowden, Chi O. Norrie Anderson, Fiji, informs us that he was a very good sports writer which leads us to the remark that he is not needed here.

Little Messenger.

Our little black kitten, commonly known as "The Snitch," came trotting into the Rag office today with a letter in his mouth. A glimpse of the letter brought forth the news that Dortch Douglas was pinned to a man from UCLA. Who, what and why is yet to be answered.

Heads or Tails.

Week end dates for Gene Reese, Fiji, will probably be a toss up between Maxine Thomas and Mignon Marcy, Kappa. The latter was a former pin mate of the man in question. A couple seen together with possible plans for the future are Beta Dick Smith and Shirley King, Alpha Phi.

We are still wondering why Kay Detweiler, DG, broke a date with George Abbott for Saturday night and has such a weird opinion of said person. It's nice that drill starts at 5:00 so a late column can be no respecter of persons.

Steady or Unsteady.

What could be more amusing than the steadiness and unsteadiness of couples on the campus. While Patty Welch, Pi Phi, and Dick Haggert, Delt, steadied, Mary Kay Waring, Theta, and Darle Larson, DU, unsteadied. These late columns tax one's brain. Here comes the Snitch again! He has been on a trip through the library where he found Dick Luther, DU, doing right well in the army's favorite pastime. When asked what he was shooting he replied that it was game money to take Jean Donnelly, DG, on a Saturday night date. Wonder if he'll get the—date?

Wesleyan university has recently been appointed a V-12 college in the navy's training program.

WHO IS HE?

Is it Norris Anderson? Is it an ag college student? Could this be a youngster who just heard about certain 1933 AAA policies—or is it a prelude to things to come?

Best way in the world to find out, according to Bill Thornberg, president of Innocents, is to attend the "Farewell to Arms" dance in the coliseum on Friday, May 7.

Social Service Group Hears Miss James

Eighth lecture in the series on "Social Services in Wartime" will be given by Miss Sara James, regional representative of the social security board, in the faculty lounge of the Union this afternoon at 4:30.

Speaking on the subject of "War and Public Assistance," she will cite some of the interesting effects the war has had on the public assistance program. Discussion will center around the numerous opportunities the war has presented for employment for the aged, the blind and for mothers which has greatly decreased the number receiving assistance.

Miss James is well qualified to explain the many ways in which the war has affected the public assistance programs. The meeting will be opened to discussion among the group at the close of the speech.

AWS Board Holds Ivy Day Tea Dance

BY SHIRLEY CROSBY

We're sort of going to miss you activated on Ivy Day. No interfraternity sing and so few men wandering around will take some of the fun out of it. But not for long, because we'll be seeing you from four till six, and if you buy the tickets now it'll only cost you ten cents. Meaning of course the AWS sponsored tea dance in the Union ballroom, after we find out who are the new Mortar Boards and who can sing the best.

You can drag a date or leave em unconvoyed—you'll still get to dance to the latest juke box songs. Tickets are being sold to all organized houses, but if you're undecided, tickets can be bought at the door for fifteen cents. Of course you guys know how much it will mean to our morale to see you for longer than between classes, so there should be very little indecision.

Jo Martz, chairman, has also announced that all cadets are invited.

Shoes, Clothes Fill Truck for British War Relief Drive

With several pairs of shoes given by (of all people) a sorority house, and an entire wardrobe "just back from the cleaners" given by an Alpha Sig who is leaving for the army, the campus British War Relief drive for winter clothing filled the Red Cross Ambulance Corps truck with UN donations.

Sponsored by the War Council and the city British War Relief, the drive was to furnish warm winter clothing for the people of England. Mary Lou Holtz, War Council member was in charge of the drive on campus.

Peggy Miles, Lois Wright, Wini Edie and Shirley Brigham were the collection committee. Janet Krause, notification chairman, was in charge of telephoning.
