

Mizzou Top Names Big Six Entrants

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 5. (Special to the Daily Nebraskan). In preparation for the Big Six outdoor track and field carnival May 8 in Lincoln, Missouri's speeding Tigers won every event and scored second in all but two to defeat Washington university and Rolla School of Mines yesterday afternoon.

According to unofficial tabulations, the Tiger squadron placed second in the Drake Relays a week ago. Illinois' track and field men carried 26 medals back to their Champaign stronghold and Tiger athletes won 20. In the matter of winning medals, Notre Dame braked into third place with 15 of the Des Moines medallions.

Three Stars.

The three stars from the relays: Capt. Joe Shy, Maurice Alexander, and Elmer Aussieker—piled on the points for Missouri in the three-way attraction. It was Maurice Alexander, the newest star to rise in the Tigerland athletic sky, who was crowned high point man. With three firsts and a second, Alex cradled 18 points onto the Tiger column.

Showing improvement over his pitch of 51 feet with which he won the Drake title a week ago, Big Elmer Aussieker putted the shot 51 feet 7 3/4 inches. This high-trajectory toss stands as an all-time Tiger high. The burly weight man strung out one heave of 51 feet 11 inches, but stepped on the wooden ring after the throw, disqualifying it.

Aussieker placed second to Mel Sheehan, giant Missouri freshman, in the discus. Sheehan whirled the platter 147 feet 2 1/2 inches. Keith Parker, junior fullback on the football squad, threw the javelin for the first time this season—and threw it 177 feet 1 1/2 inches which was good for first place in the meet.

Handy-man Alexander won the high hurdles in 14.7 seconds, the lows in 24.3 seconds, the broad-jump with a leap of 23 feet 1 1/4 inches, and jumped his way to second in the running high jump.

It was on his last trial that Alex threw himself over 23 feet from the take-off boards to win the broad jump. A pair of Tigers, Carl Nichols and Ralph Carter, took second and third in this.

Steffey Wins.

Dale Steffey, Big Six jumping king last year, won the high jump with the poor height of 5 feet 10 inches.

Capt. Joe Shy knocked two legs from the throne of the Big Six dash king, Owen Joggerst. Shy won the 100-yard dash in 9.6 seconds, with Joggerst wheeling in second by six feet. Shy had been left at the blocks in this and didn't go to the fore before the halfway mark. After the race the starter apologized to Shy, saying he should have called them back.

Twenty-one and two-tenths seconds was the time posted by Shy for the 220-yard dash. Joggerst trailed in second by 20 feet. Because his back was a little lame, Shy didn't compete in the low hurdles.

Bill Blackwell won the vault with a clearance of 12 feet 6 inches.

A pair of Tiger team mates and friends, two boys who room together on the track trips, deliberately tied for first in the mile.

Coach Chauncey Simpson Tuesday named 25 members of the Missouri track squad for the Big Six championships at Lincoln Saturday.

It looks like the Tigers, with overwhelming strength in the sprints and hurdles and good talent in the field events, would repeat the conference victory they won two months ago in the indoor championships at Kansas City.

The Bengals will be particularly strong in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, with Joe Shy and Owen Joggerst, and in the hurdles, with Maurice Alexander, Bud Gartsier and Shy. Joggerst is a defending champion, but has not been in top shape this spring following an illness.

He has been running second to Shy, who turned up 9.6 seconds in the century and 21.2 in the furlong in a triangular meet here last spring.

Alexander, pick of an unusually fine crop of Missouri hurdlers this season, also competes in the broad jump, doing around 23 feet consistently. In broad jump the Tigers also have Carl Nichols, former Kansas City high school star, who missed the indoor season because of an appendicitis operation.

Elmer Tosses.

Elmer Aussieker, who set a Missouri record of 51 feet 7 3/4 inches in the shot put last Saturday, is the top performer in the field events. The Tigers have a couple of 13 foot pole vaulters in Paul Collins and Bill Blackwell and a discus thrower who is crowding 150 feet in Mel Sheehan. Missouri entries:

Mile run: Rayl, Bosworth, Exler.
440-yard dash: Kieppstiel, Gartsier, Shy, Illish.
100-yard dash: Shy, Joggerst, Tracy, Gartsier.
170-yard high hurdles: Alexander, Gartsier.
880-yard run: Bosworth, Rayl, Wathen, Exler.
220-yard dash: Shy, Joggerst, Tracy.
Two mile run: Kuzner, Taber, Exler.
220-yard low hurdles: Shy, Alexander, Gartsier.
Mile relay: Rayl, Bosworth, Exler, Gartsier, Kieppstiel.
Pole vault: Blackwell, Collins, White, Deenal.
Shot put: Steffey, Alexander, White.
Shot put: Aussieker, Sheehan, Klaus.
Javelin throw: Parker, Hargraves.
Running broad jump: Alexander, Nichols.

Hard Luck Trophies . . .

If a hard luck trophy be among the intramural awards on display at the department, we would nominate the Phi Delt for the award.

Under the managership of Norm Hoelk, the Phi Delt athletes rallied from seventh place in the January Jack Best standings to their present third place spot. Victories in water polo, B basketball and second place in A maple play brought the glass house lads far up the point letter.

Tuesday the Phi Delt club currently was tabbed as favorite in the intramural softball play after topping the Phi Gams in semifinal play—but one matter was overlooked, the eligibility of Kenny Maser, star pitcher. A registrar report to the intramural office late Wednesday revealed that Maser had dropped school April 28.

Whether the Phi Delt were aware of the eligibility rule or not, intramural heads could not let a performer who was not in school perform. If such liberty were granted, every softball team in the league could come up with additional talent. So the 16th & R lads had to forfeit to the Phi Gams.

Though a potential softball title and second place in final standings was at stake, the Phi Delt took the tough decision like true sportsmen.

"We have to maintain rules in Intramural play if our program is to function smoothly," said Tom Brogan, acting I-M director. "Ignorance of the law is no excuse."

All other matter aside, we have a sneaking hunch that there was no better softball combine competing than the Phi Delt. Pitcher, Benny Kohout, catcher; Howie Chapin, first base; Lee Chapin, third base, and Dick son, second base, are leading candidates for the all-intramural nine.

Maser's ineligibility was also a tough blow for the ATO house, who supposedly cinched the Jack Best award on basis of the Fiji loss.

Weir Announces Big Six Husker Entries

BY HENRY FISHBACK.

Twenty-two scarlet trackmen will represent Nebraska in the 15th annual Big Six track and field championships in Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon with the burden of the Husker attack destined to fall on iron horses, Howie Debus and Allen Zikmund, the Weir entree card revealed last night.

Entree sheets placed Debus in the shot put, discus, pole vault and javelin, with Zikmund in the century, furlong, broad jump and high jump. Debus, defending spear tosser, occupies the favorite role in the discus, pole vault and javelin figuring in for a third spot in the shot put. Zooming Zik is tabbed for valuable place points in all events, being slated for the top performances in the sprints and high jump.

Husker entrants:

100 and 220 yards: Allen Zikmund, Ord; John Farlin, Lincoln; Bobby Cooper,

Omaha; Dick Petring, Norfolk; Kent Kratz, Sidney.
440 yards: Bob Bowles, Randolph; Dean Kratz, Sidney; Kent Kratz, Sidney; Hale, Culwell.
880 yards: Kratz; James Brogan, Tilden; Creighton Hale, Hardy; Barlaan Culwell, Lincoln.
Mile: Brogan; Hale.
Two miles: Brogan; William Boehl, Friend.
High hurdles: Dick Covington, Bellevue; Lee Christiansen, Neligh.
Low hurdles: Covington; K. Kratz, Petring.
Shot: Vic Scheich, Lincoln; Kirwin Eisenhart, Culbertson Howard Debus, Lincoln.
Discus—Schleich, Debus, Eisenhart, Zikmund.
Javelin: Debus, Jack Hazen, Omaha; John Thompson, Lincoln.
Broad jump: Pete Ida, Palo Alto, Calif.; Zikmund, Petring.
High jump: Zikmund, Petring, Al Abbott, James.

Phi Delt Pitcher Ineligible

. . . Team Forfeits

Instead of the Phi Delt meeting the AGRs for the intramural softball title tonight, the Phi Gams will oppose the Alpha Gamma Rho lads at 5:00 p. m. tonight.

A notice from the dean's office ruled that Kenny Maser, star Phi Delt pitcher, had dropped school a week ago and was therefore not eligible for play. Consequently the Phi Delt were forced to forfeit their Wednesday victory over the Phi Gams instead of entering the finals.

So the Fiji athletes still retain a chance for the Jack Best trophy. If the Phi Gams lose to the AGRs tonight and the ATOs lose to the Phi Delt, the final compilation for the Best award will be: Phi Gams 846, ATOs 843.

If both Fijis and Taus win, the final count will be Phi Gams 866, Taus 853. So the Taus must win and the Fijis lose tonight if Alph Tau Omega is to win.

It will be the ace Fiji pitcher, Harry Fox, against a hard-hitting AGR club. ATO Pitcher Ken Elson may be too much for a "Maser-less" Phi Delt club.
