UN Army Units March In Parade Tomorrow

Formal Retreat—the army's most colorful formation—will be presented and viewed by Nebraska's cadets, soldiers, students, and faculty tomorrow afternoon on the campus parade grounds at 5 o'clock.

It will be the first parade on this campus for this semester; it will be the first parade involving enlisted men as well as a cadet corps on this campus for this semester. It will be the last parade on this campus for the semester and possibly for the duration; it will be the last parade 328 of Nebraska's advanced course men will participate in as a single unit.

The formal parade for tomorrow is scheduled for 5 o'clock, with first call at 4:50 p. m. The previously announced time of 5:30, published in Sunday's Daily was a mistake. All cadets, soldiers, and trainees should be prompt in reporting to their assembly areas.

Embracing the remnants of an activated and draft-depleted cadet corps, air corps trainees, the STAR unit from ag campus, and the advanced course drill cadets, the various units will move from their assembly positions to the parade grounds promptly at 5 o'clock. Previous to this time, all men should have been formed at their assembly areas and attendance already checked.

The parade will be viewed by all military personnel of the college training detachment, Chancelor C. S. Boucher, cadet colonel, Dick Arnold, the brigade staff, and Ann Craft, honorary colonel. Awards will be made to the mosts and bests of the various units at this time. The shortened semester and the reduced size of the cadet corps has necessitated the elimination of annual compet, regularly held at this time, bringing to a close the military department's activities.

Ensign Anne Dorsey Talks On WAVES

Navy terms, uniforms and traditions are the basic qualities of the WAVES officer and enlistee today, according a talk given by Ensign Anne Dorsey, graduate of Northwestern university now stationed at Des Moines, Tuesday in Ellen Smith hall.

According to Ensign Dorsey, women who enter the WAVES receive indoctrination and training according to their abilities and civilian training, ability and character. WAVES training is primarily the same as that received in any college.

Require Physical Exam.

A thoro physical education program keeps WAVES in trim at all times, with a rigid examination before induction. Free medical and dental work is given, and naval privileges according to rank correspond to those of sailors and officers in the regular navy.

Sponsors Meet Thursday 4:50

All sponsors of the ROTC regiment will meet tomorrow at 4:50 p. m. at the review stand by the pillars east of the stadium, according to Ann Craft, honorary colonel. Sponsors will review the annual formal retreat.

Officer, University Training Available

Remaining University of Nebraska students in the army reserve are to be called to active duty at the end of the current semester, Dr. T. J. Thompson, armed services representative on the campus, announced Tuesday.

Reporting dates will be June 7, 8 and 9.

"As we understand it, this call will cover all reservists of every category aside from those at present on active duty as members of the advanced ROTC unit," Dr. Thompson said.

Deferred from Earlier Activation.

Most of the reservists on the campus, aside from the activated ROTC men, are students deferred from earlier activation because they are studying in scientific fields in which the army is especially interested.

Dean Thompson in a statement issued Tuesday set forth the following:

All students called up for active service should have in their possession: (1) A transcript of their academic record and (2) a copy of their military record. Pre-medical and pre-dental students should, in addition, have in their possession: (1) A certificate from a responsible institution authority that they are pre-medical, pre-dental or pre-veterinary students in good standing, and (2) if they have been accepted for matriculation in an approved school of medicine, dentistry or veterinary medicine, official letters of such acceptance. The registrar's office expects to work out arrangements whereby transcripts of records of the current semester will be available to students on or before the date of actual call to active duty.

To Be Reclassified.

It is expected that when the enlisted reservists are called up they will be given an opportunity to qualify for either the army specialized training program or for officer candidate schools. Enlisted men recommended by the armed services specialized training board for assignment for specialist training, either pre-professional, or specialized, are expected to be qualified with regard to fitness and aptitude for such subsequent training. The army specialized training program boards are expected to make such careful selections as to student's scholastic ability that there will be a minimum of attrition for scholastic reasons. For the most part, enlisted reserve men called to active duty will be expected to undergo a period of basic military training which may vary in length.

Mabel Lee Leads Union Board Staff

Miss Mabel Lee, head of the women's physical education department, will serve as president of the Student Union board of managers for the coming year. Miss Lee was elected at the board's last meeting.

Marjorie May, student representative, holds the highest office open to an undergraduate as first vice president of the board.

Other officers are Geraldine Henderson, second vice president; Ellsworth DuTeau, secretary and John K. Selleck, treasurer.

The 1943 'IT' Comes In Censored Colors

... On May 28

It's coming out!

With its flashy cover in (censored) colors, and its pages filled with (censored) pictures, it will really be ready by May 28. (Dave Walcott, business manager, hopes.)

It's coming out!

Since the release date is after the end of the school year, there will be that same routine of turning in names and summer addresses to the office so staff members can mail the copies. It's getting to be a habit.

It's coming out!

But what about next year?

That is a question that is still a big secret, even to staff members. New staff members for next year will be named this afternoon at the publications board meeting, and if it is at all possible IT will be published again next year.

It's coming out!

What's coming out? Why, the 1943 Cornhusker!

Pub Board Meets Today In U. Hall

Publications board will meet today at 2 p. m. in U hall to elect publications staff members for next semester. All applicants for positions on either the Daily Nebraskan or the Cornhusker are required to appear before the board unless they have been excused.

UN Offers Five All University Scholarships for 1943-44 Term

Five general university scholarships will be awarded for 1943-1944, according to the office of student affairs. Sophomore standing is prerequisite to candidacy for most scholarships. Preference will normally be given, however, in the order of classes, beginning with seniors.

The George Borrowman Scholarship is given to a worthy student pursuing work in the department of chemistry or geology. Dr. George Borrowman of Chicago, holder of two degrees from the university and formerly a member of the faculty, several years ago endowed this scholarship from which $60 will be available next year.

A perpetual scholarship of $60, the Edward Land True Memorial Scholarship, has been established in memory of the late Edward Land True of Schuyler, to be awarded to some worthy student registered in any college of the university.

Hyte Gives Fund.

The late William Hyte, former Lincoln business man, established a perpetual fund from which one $50 scholarship, the William Hyte scholarship, will be available.

Dr. and Mrs. John D. Clark, graduates of the university, have endowed a perpetual scholarship in memory of the late Judge Jefferson H. Broady, formerly a member of the faculty and a prominent Nebraska attorney. This scholarship of $60 is awarded annually to a deserving student.

The Walter J. Nickel freshman prize was endowed by this man

Junior Division Students Report

All students now in the junior division who plan to attend summer school should report to the junior division office, University hall, room 1, before May 20. It is necessary that the roll of students who expect to register be complete in order that registration may be made without difficulty and delay, according to Dean N. A. Begnston of the junior division.

as a perpetual scholarship of $25 to be awarded each spring to the freshman, man or woman, who has overcome the greatest difficulties in completing the first year of university education.

24 Hours Required.

Applicants for any of these scholarships should have earned at least 24 hours of credit during the last two semesters in which he was a student at the University of Nebraska.

Judged by the usual standards, the applicant's scholarship record must commend him as a student capable of doing high grade work in college. Grades other than passing must be satisfactorily explained.

The recipient of a scholarship must carry at least 12 hours during the semester for which the award is made, otherwise the scholarship will be withdrawn.

Application blanks for any of the above five scholarships may be secured from the office of the dean of student affairs in administration building and should be returned to that office on or before May 17.
