

Party Line

BY KAY KING.

It was a neck and neck race between the "best picnic girl" candidates for the title, but toward 4 p. m. votes began pouring in for a candidate not mentioned in yesterday's column. By 5 p. m., when polls closed, we found this unnamed candidate ahead by a length. We now hail Betsy Wright, Alpha Chi, as the best picnic date of 1943. Perhaps a strong determining factor was that Betsy no longer wears the Sigma Nu pin of Nate Holman's. We might mention here that another Alpha Chi who is no longer wearing a pin given her by a man in the armed forces, is Mary Lou Holtz who has discarded the Delt pin of Bob Ruby.

Whoever is news gatherer for the DUs, we're not interested in Al Lawson, Curt Kimball, Mary Tussey or the other maid. Further invalid information will not be appreciated and if Curt and Al care to get any more publicity then go to the army!

Not July 4th.

He of the behemoth oral cavity, Alpha Sig Bob Critzfeld, is confined to his Love library barracks these days. It seems that Bob, a sage from Scottsbluff, pulled a Katzenjammer and disrupted Love Library squads by setting off firecrackers while the squad was at attention. He is now spending his time reporting at the CQ's desk every hour.

Speaking of Love library, it has been reported that Johnny Kuhlman, Delta Sig, who has had such heavy romances and is now going steady with Barbara Stahl, was heard murmuring in his sleep, "Oh, Janet!" How about that?

Candy Passings.

Getting to the regular Monday night activity of the campus we find that candy passing was in order for the Kappa Delt's Monday evening on their picnic at Antelope Park. But the question is, "who passed it?" The card read, "from two seniors."

On the subject of candy passings, the Alpha Chis had a busy week end: First Margy Andrews passed the sweets in honor of Dee DePutron, DU, at the May Day morning breakfast, then Bette King gave out with the same at their Monday night picnic in honor of her diamond, bestowed by Earl Jorgenson, ATO of last year, and to top it all off, Phyl Rae and Ed Nyden passed the candy to announce their marriage of Jan. 23.

The Pi Phis received sweets from Pat Caley and Lynn James, Nu Sig of Omaha and Ruth Brickle passed the candy to the Chi O's in honor of her fiance in the army.

In spite of the decrease of enrollment at the University of Oregon, figures for the number of library reserve books checked out overnight are on the increase.

Music School Gives Theory Recital Today

The university school of music will present the annual theory recital Wednesday at 4 p. m. in the Temple theater. Miss Elizabeth M. Tierney, head of the theory department, is in charge of the program, which is composed of original selections and arrangements, written by music students. The program:

- Adagio e sostenuto: Kuhlau, arr. Earl Jenkins; Gavotte: Prokofieff, arr., Virginia Clarke; (string quartet).
 - Virginia Clarke, first violin; Louise Lehmer, viola; Aronita Daskovsky, second violin; Dorothy Hendricks, cello.
 - There and Variations (piano) Marie Hassel; Mary Helen Bush.
 - Forget-Me-Not (voice) Elaine Leboock.
 - Nursery Rhyme (voice) Anne Wodder, Jean Austin.
 - Andante (violin) Stanley Wiles.
 - Hornpipe; Handel (brass quartet) arr. Mrs. Merle Rice; Edwin Westfall, cornet; Alvin Lawrensen, trombone; Jack Kuhns, cornet; Leota Sneed, trombone.
 - Song of the Sub-deb (voice) Jean Austin.
 - Dusk at Sea (voice) Fartha Vernon; Elaine Leboock.
 - Op. 1 No. 1 (cello) Katherine Rice.
 - The Storm (voice) Russell Leger.
 - My Jean (voice) Robert Anderson.
 - Green River (voice) Kenneth Klaus; Dorothy Strasheim.
 - Fantastic Dance No. 3; Shostakovich. Flute quartet, arr. Barbara Miller; Barbara Miller, Ruth Way, Marvella Werner, Jean Riggs.
- Accompanists:
Margaret Lindgren, Rudolph Barta, Martha Vernon, Mary Helen Bush, Ruth Way.

War Stamp Wednesday:

There is one guy in the United States who can't stop at the war stamp booth every week to work toward a war bond investment. He is the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau. Law decrees that he cannot hold any securities.

Until a secretary of the same department is found on this campus, there is no reason for anything less than 100 percent participation.

Today is the last war stamp drive this semester. Take advantage of your privilege! Stop at the various booths located on the campus, and invest the pennies which burn a hole in your pocket!

Wiley Blount Rudledge, new associate justice of the United States supreme court, is a University of Wisconsin graduate.

The University of Moscow, bombed in August, 1941, by the nazis, is reopening for a new scholastic year with four new departments — geology, philosophy, law and philology.

Simmons college has announced an intensive program in dietetics for college graduates, to be offered for the first time with the opening of the summer session in July.

MAGEE'S

You'll find the snazziest, comfiest play clothes and cotton dress-ups you ever wore, in the Sport Shop on Magee's first floor . . . and in the third floor Cotton Patch.

Strutter Cloth Slacksuits $12.95

T-Shirt, $1.50 Slacks, $4.95

Cool, porous, absorbent lisle T-shirts in giddy stripes are perfect for active sports wear. Combine 'em with solid-tone slacks of 100% wool worsted, linen weaves or struttercloth in tan, brown, navy or green. Or get a whole suit of cool, wrinkle-resistant struttercloths in tan, brown or navy.

Two-piece cotton dress-suits are the dress-up uniform for hot summertime, because they're so neat, cool and becoming. In the Cotton Patch on Magee's third floor, you'll find linenweaves, gingham, piques and seersuckers in flower garden shades . . . all sizes . . . regular and junior!

$7.95 to $16.95

BED SIMON & SONS 4th floor ready-to-wear

"city coolers" -in butcher linens

. . . new semi-suits in smart butcher linen-like weaves . . . these Marjory-Joy originals, shown above, are so nicely fashioned—they're pert and young looking yet they're mature, poised fashions . . . they're cool and capable, and dressy too, right for now and on through summer . . . in blues, navy, and red . . . sizes 9 to 15—17.95.