

SOCIETY...

BY MARYLOUISE GOODWIN.

Somewhere along the line we lost our little unknown quantity who reeled off the last column so it reverted back of necessity to "ye old society editor."

Prowling around the old hang outs with the old eagle eye we picked up a couple of items of interest, mainly about the new American pastime, flashing a diamond third finger left hand.

Betty Krause, Pi Phi and Jim Bell, Beta, decided to cinch the deal with a diamond and two more of the sisters, Betty Rhodes and Delores Weaver arrived with rings from men in the service.

Over SDT way we found the Ruth Paperny, is wearing Len Lutbeg ZBT's diamond and Ceese Friedman, Harry Goldstein's Sigma Alpha Mu pin.

At the DG house we took careful note of the diamond on Flo Scott's left hand. Seems it came from Lt. James Wells. Marilyn Griffen of the same house has one from a flyer who, incidentally dropped in to see her last week end. Virginia Trowbridge, the gal who everybody bet on for a sure pinning with Dick Harnesberger, has somebody elses pin but we can't say who's. He isn't a Nebraska boy.

Kappa Jane Titus can't say enough for the army. Pin mate Berckett Farquhar, Phi Gam from Iowa who Janie dated all last year has been transferred to the Lincoln base. Handy what?

Birdie James will be whipping in any day now to see Theta pin-mate Marge Heyn. And we also noticed Wayne Southwick's Phi Psi pin on Ann Seacrest, Theta, and Jan Hoover with a diamond from Boots Gardner.

They told over at the Chi O house that Lenore Beck isn't having anymore of Sig Nu Dick Fuller but Dorothy Black is taking over in that house with lots of dates with commander, Dick Batchelder.

Hope that Mr. X can pull himself away from registration and like diversions to toss up another column for next edition.
