SOCIETY . . .

Back again, my frans, this time with the rumored break-up between Sig Nu of last year Cliff Bloom and Alpha Phi-Mortar Board Alice Louise Becker. The Cliff is in Camp Roberts, California it doesn't seem to be a case of "absence makes the heart grow fonder—of somebody else" on the part of either. Just general incompatibility.

Zounds, Now that the pin someone dropped has echoed back and forth across the breakfast table, we'll proceed to more jolly topics of conversation such as Russ Morgan and all the people that were dancing, dancing at the Pike Saturday night. Looks like the Sigma Kappa house made a party of it with Lotus Storjohn, Elsie Tomich, Helen Mitchell, and Jackie Campbell doing their part in entertaining the navy blue.

Lots of people there too. Once I went to a dance there with a blind date. I think that is when—and why, probably my arch trouble began.

Others taking in the music were Mildred Engstrom and Dale Brehm, old Paladians from away back. Also Chariette Hill, SDT, with a Sammie from Ohio.

Rotten and Cannel.

With the rumor wafted to us about the return of the third year ROTC engineers from Oregon, comes the return of a lot of the "old" home men and for Jean Rotten, KAT, the return of Rogers Cannel, Phi Gam, who constructed a bridge right into her heart along about last spring, my sources inform me.

Cupid shot a dart at Barb Bill Dafoe and Barb Virginia Bergsten, UN sweetheart a couple of years ago, that really took. The dart must have had a barb on it, Hah! Anyway, the two were married in California a few weeks ago just before Bill got his medical discharge from the army and they're Mr. and Mrs. ing it now while Virginia and Bill plug along after those college degrees.

"Go West Young Man."

The Alpha Xis were almost minus a house for their new pledges t'other day when Val Bignell's waste basket caught fire and filled second floor with smoke. But Helen West, the heroine, rescued the basket and carried it to the water instead of carrying water to the basket. Sort of on the order of leading the horse to water and making it drink.

I don't think it has been duly recorded as yet but rumors have it—ah lovely rumors, what would a society do without them?—that Kappa June Jamieson and Phi Psi Jim Selzer, now in the army, called it quits sometime this summer.

Diamonds Again.

There's a new diamond on the hand of Irene Stimson, DG, and the man is Don Tracy . . . Or have I told you this before. And Mort Margolin, Sammie Innocent, and Bonnie Seldin added the other ring to Bonnie's hand a couple of weeks before school started. Flash! Yes indeed and Marine dress blues too. It's none other than old Horse Sense himself, Norrie Anderson, Phi Gam back from Great Lakes for about 15 days of fun and frolic. Took Norrie about 15 seconds to get back into the old "Rag" harness and rip off his famous column.

Tomb Snatchers

By Larry Wentz.

It was a dark and stormy night, lightning flashed, splitting the clouds with its anguish. Thunder roared loud enough to make even the tombstones tremble. A light went bobbing to and fro, hither and thither between the markers, finally coming to rest at the foot of a freshly made grave. The light flickered upwards, showing the sandy red hair and freckled face of a MAN. Behind him was his partner, a sinister looking fellow who wore a bright yellow coat. The red haired one spoke with a low and evil growl, "Dig, dig, until you have uncovered the casket and we shall take the body from its resting place." His partner answered in quivering, uncertain tones, "Please, sir, don't you think that this is somewhat below the dignity of we Sigma Chis, even if there is a man shortage?"

Articles Misplaced In Panhell House At Ellen Smith

Girls who lost anything during their week's stay at Panhellenic house are asked to look for their articles in the Panhellenic office at Ellen Smith hall.

A box containing skirts, belts, shoes, and blouses has been placed in the office. Girls may pick up their lost goods at any time during the day.

War Council . . .

(Continued from page 1.) given for the air cadets quartered in Love Library and the latter for the ASTP unit on ag. Each lasted from one to two hours and was held in the ballroom of the Union building.

During the summer months the sale of war stamps in the amount of $184.60 was carried on by the council.

Assisting Min during the first term of summer school were Ghita Hill and Janet Hause; Mary Russell acted as her co-worker for the last session.

Clothesline Rumors . . . It All Comes Out in the Wash

JANE STROUD AND VIRGINIA SWANHOLM.

Up 'til now Ye Olde Daily Nebraskan has steered clear of mentioning campus garb but yours truly will endeavor to bring you up to date on who is wearing what, when and where.

Next to khaki, sweaters and skirts are most prevalent between Uni Drug and Law College. Matching skirt and sweater sets such as the one Jean Buckley, Theta, was wearing the other day, are coed catchers. Jean's sweater is a knobby knit of that new coral color, accompanied by a matching wool pleated skirt.

And here is a hint to the wise. If it is wool socks you are wanting to go with that campus outfit—knit 'em! The recipe is simple. Just take a skein of yard and some knitting needles. Find a nice quiet corner and in no time at all they are well done—durable, long wearing and smarter than Dr. I. Q. June Griffin, over the Tri Delt way, has several pairs which arouse sighs from envious sisters. The Feminine Trend.

Date dresses are following the feminine trend ushered in by the war. Pastel wool, velveteen and crepe make up the most popular numbers and all are enlivened by ruffles, sequins and unique costume jewelry. One dress with a bright future is a black velveteen with white lace trim around neckline and pockets worn by Alpha Phi, Sally Sears.

With those precious shoe stamps now limited to two a year, every Nebraska coed thinks twice before giving hers up. One stamp will undoubtedly be spent for a pair of durable "mocs" or strollers, suitable for nearly all campus wear. Brown and white saddles, first love of college girls, are now impossible to obtain, but we are hoping they will return soon after the end of the war.

More About Shoes.

Most coeds will not be able to resist the temptation to splurge the other stamp of a pair of dress shoes—so uplifting to the morale (and the girl). Sandals in suede, gabardine, or kid are big sellers this year, and the higher the heel, the better. The new "baby-doll" shoes, with rounded toe and a single high ankle strap, appeal to those who prefer a more conservative heel height.

Shoe manufacturers, however, have come to our rescue with many styles in non-rationed footwear, boasting soles of rope or plastic.

Having covered the chassis of various lassies with appropriate wearing apparel, we will leave you on the clothesline until a later date.
