

'Bulldog' Reece Leads Missouri To Victory Over Game Scarlet

Kenfield Earns Praise For Outstanding Playing

off the Tigers, but after two unsuccessful tries at the middle, and another around end, Reese slammed into the Husker middle for the tally. The conversion was good, and Missouri went out in front, with but six minutes of the game gone, 7 to 0.

Can't Hold That Tiger.

After making its initial score, the Tiger went wild, and nothing the Huskers could do would stop it. After kicking off to the Huskers, Eiselburger intercepted a pass from Galter and returned it to the field as it trickled off of a Missouri man's fingers, and raced clear down to the Missouri 24. Miller was stopped as the Tigers tightened up, for no gain. Trying desperately to score, the Huskers threw three incomplete passes that receivers just couldn't get their hands on, and the Tigers took over.

The Tigers picked up one first down, but the Huskers started busting up plays, and the Missourians were forced to punt for the first time, and this in second quarter, however, little Jerry Jacupke a constant and untiring thorn in

The score Nebraska 6, Missouri 28.

However, the Tigers came roaring back, and striking like greased lightning scored just before the close of the first half, to take lopsided halftime tally, 34 to 6.

Second Half.

The Missouri men, led again by Reese, wasted no time in getting started in the second half, and in four minutes, raised the tally, as Reese, faking a pass drove over from the twenty. Missouri 41, Nebraska 6.

The Tigers scored again, after both teams had exchanged punts, and scrimmaged at mid-field. A series of line drives, starting from their own twenty, put the Tigers on the 48, and then Miller was hurt on a line play, and had to be removed from the game. Reese then tossed a long pass to Ehern, and he ran to the 3 before Kenfield could run him out of bounds. Collins carried the ball on three attempts, and made the score on the fourth, 48 to 6 Missouri.

Pelting Rain.

Kenfield took the kickoff back to the 23. Missouri was penalized 5 yards. Gus Eager broke away down to the 42, but was held for no gain on the next attempt. Beaver made a yard around end. He then flipped a pass down the middle to Schnieder on the Mizzou 42. The Tigers then started to stiffen, and a hard driving rain began to pelt the stadium. Nebraska punted out on the Missouri 26. A clipping penalty put the Tigers back on their own 1-yard line.

Forced to punt from behind their own goal, the Tigers were nervous as kittens. The Husker forward wall broke thru and blocked the kick, with Bill Hill falling on the ball. Nebraska 13, Missouri 48.

Missouri still hadn't run out of scoring power, and after Ferris had returned the Husker kickoff all the way to the Nebraska 47, went on a march that ended with Bytman racing 40 yards to score. The tally Mizzou 54, Huskers 13.

UN Marches.

The two teams then scrimmaged back and forth on the playing field until but about three minutes were left in the game. Then, Galter took a Tiger punt, and returned it to his own 43-yard line, to start what culminated in the final touchdown march of the afternoon.

Galter hit the line, but was tossed for a 3 yard loss. A pass the Tigers side, broke through and blocked the kick. A Husker fell on the ball, and Nebraska took over on the 28. Kenfield was stopped for no gain. With the ball in scoring position, the Huskers just couldn't make the best of their breaks, and after another fruitless try at the line, they lost the ball to the Tigers on an intercepted pass. Again it was Jacupke who stood out, as he ran the ball carrier out of bounds to break up a sure touchdown.

This time, it was the combination of Wassig and West who did the ball lugging for the Tigers, and dividing the yardage between them, they drove them down to the three, where West drove over tackle for the score. Missouri 28, Nebraska 0.

Huskers Score.

After returning the Tiger kickoff to their 39, the Scarlet flashed a backfield combination that really sparkled. George Lucas, who has been out of the lineup with a bum shoulder, sprinted around end to the 44-yard line. Eager then went over to the right side to the Missouri 43. Lucas again flanked the end, this time for seven yards down to the 36 of Missou. Buzz Hollins went over the middle for three. Kenfield, playing stellar ball, "sneaked" his way to the 28. On the next play, Kenfield, almost single handed, went all the way to score, twisting and driving through the whole Mizzou team.

Well, that settles it, no more predictions, no more sticking out of the neck. The headless horseman rides no more. What little bloody and beaten stump of a necktie hanger I have left, I pull ever so resolutely back in.

Don't get the idea that I don't appreciate the boys, for I really do. I have pulled for them, plugged them, cried, and cheered for them. It's just that I am disgusted with the whole lousy setup. I am getting sick and tired of the whole works. I don't mean the boys in the moleskins, either. It's the Nebraska fans and rooters that make me ill.

This team of yours, that you so willingly have cheered and bragged about in the past, is the same team, even if it is a different bunch of boys. They are wearing the same colors, and trying just as hard as any of the other teams ever had. They aren't Rose Bowl bound, but by the Holy Hosi-fra, they are out there playing for you and trying for you. Win or lose, they are good young men who are your schoolmates, and who surely deserve your credit.

If you think that you can do better, why Lewandowski will gladly check you out a suit. If you don't take that offer, then Mr. keep your mouth shut. That's all, and my office hours are between 2:00 and 5:00 p.m.

38-yard line of Nebraska. Big Bill Hill, who played a hard hitting game from start to finish, then broke through the Tiger line and dumped Busso for a loss back on the 44. However, Dellastatious began to tote the pigskin for the Missou outfit, and pitched a pass on the next play to Morton which was good down to the 15. He then hit the line for one, but Gus Eager sensed the next play and broke through to spill Dellastatious back on the 21-yard line. Eehn on an end around play caught the defense flat-footed, and scampered to the 10, before being dumped. Dellastatious then found a hole at left tackle, and went over standing up the score; 14 to 0.

Hill took the Mizzou kickoff, and ran back to the 31. Ted Kenfield tried the center, but only picked up a yard. Collins snared a Husker pass, and the Tigers again took over, this time on their own 36 yard line. Reese took the ball from center, and flipped a pass down to the Nebraska 44, where Busso took the pig skin and went all the way to score in less time than it takes to tell. The tally: Missouri 21, Nebraska 0.

Scarlet Drive.

Kenfield returned a long, high kickoff to the 30-yard line. He then took the ball on a quarter sneak, and picked up three more yards. On the next play, Gus Eager went around end for 4 to the 37, and it seemed as if Nebraska was starting to roll. Bill Miller then took a pass from Ken-was muffed, and then Baker, going over center fought his way down to the Missouri 48 for a first down. Galter then dashed to the Tiger 28 on a quarter sneak over tackle. Smith hit the center for 3, and then Hollins took a short pass for no gain. Galter shot a left handed bullet pass to Bert Gissler that was good to the Mizzou 16. Galter then went for 1. Again the left handed baseball pitcher flipped one over the middle, this time, Bob Schnieder out-wrestled two Tigers for the ball, and scored in the end zone. Mizzou 54, Nebraska 20.

The game ended with Missouri fumbling and recovering on the kickoff.

Final score: Missouri 54, Nebraska 20.
