Debating Is A Credit to UN

Mentioned only at times when tryouts or competition is in progress, debate is an activity on the campus which deserves a lot of praise—more than it gets.

To participate in debating and get anywhere, a team member must spend a great deal of time collecting and organizing material, practicing and improving actual delivery. Before getting up to present the affirmative or negative side of a question a debater must have accumulated information on all sides of the subject, be able to quote authorities, and have material ready for offering rebuttal to the opponents' arguments.

But most important of all, in debating a person has to think on his feet, develop alert reasoning powers, and be able to convince others of the logic of his side. He must be able to deliver his two speeches with conviction, yet keep his presentation simple enough to be followed with ease.

Debate is good experience for thinking, for speaking before an audience without self-consciousness, and for disagreeing without anger. Anyone intending to practice law, statesmanship, or political work of any kind needs the type of background debating offers. And it's good, too, for achieving poise for future contacts with people, regardless of your profession.

To Mr. Laase and the present debating team we offer commendations and orchids . . . for the time you spend and for the worthiness of your efforts.

Can't Miss It.

Since the "Christmas Ball" is taking the place of all official university parties, it is one that nobody will want to miss. Therefore the Mortar Boards are making this effort to see that men and coeds alike do not miss the party for lack of a date. Girls will also be able to sign for dates.

Tickets for the ball will go on sale Nov. 16 and may be purchased from a Mortar Board or a Tassel.

and Mary Mattoon, also of last year's frosh team. Negative speakers are Jean Frescoln and Jean Kinnie, varsity seniors. Leaving Lincoln Monday night on the Rocket, the debaters hope to return Wednesday night. Dr. Laase will accompany them on the trip.

Last year Nebraska was represented at this conference and tied with Northwestern university for outstanding speaker and debate team awards.

"Many colleges and universities will be represented by experienced army and navy trainees; so it will be interesting to see how our all-women's civilian squad can compare with the representatives of other campuses," said Mr. Laase.

AUF Heads, Council

Meet Monday at 3:30

All members of the new All University Fund organization, both Advisory Council and Drive Heads, will meet Monday at 3:30 in the Union.

BILL LOEFFEL is whipping around on his graduation furlough this week sporting a pair of new gold bars, which he was awarded from the adjutant general's officer candidate school, Fort Washington, Md. Bill was affiliated with Farm House. Also commissioned a second lieutenant at Fort Washington recently was AUBREY ANAWALT. Both men were certified by their instructors as an officer calibre.

ARTHUR BIERMAN, JOHN JENKINS, and JIMMY PILE are stationed at Iowa State college at Ames, as naval aviation cadets.

Some recent visitors at the geology department were Lt. (j.g.) PAUL FUENNING, Ens. FRED KOTYZA, Lt. HAROLD PATTERSON, Ens. CLARK KELLY, and Lt. CHARLES BARTZ.

Lieutenant Fuenning has just returned from the Aleutians where he spent the past year interpreting aerial photographs for the Navy.

Ens. Kotyza and Ens. Kelley have just received commissions in the Navy and are on their way to naval training schools.

Lieutenant Bartz was on his way from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to Camp Roberts, Calif., via Yakima, Wash., where he will be married to Elizabeth Stiegler.

Society

Howdy chillun!

Well, so they come, and so they go... these tremendous weekends. But before we contemplate another, let's scan over the excitement of house parties, inter-fraternity dance, and such of these past two days.

Speaking of house parties, we find several super successes. The Pi Phi's had their "apron and overalls" party, and when we dropped in, we saw Jinx Dougan and ASTP Ross Keller, Pat Welsh and Cap Tyson Sig Ep, and again Kathy Legg with Johnny Bell, Sig Chi. Dolores Weaver and fiancé Chuck Mielke were having a wonderful time, as were Jeanne Cowles and DU Leonard Dunker... and then going on our way over to the Tri Delt party we saw such couples as Merrill Shutt and Sig Ep Loran Bevan, also the frequently seen twosomes of Peggy Mertz and Phi Gam Varro Tyler, and Marty Davis and Jack Scanlon, ASTP. There was also a certain Phi Delt from Colorado college with Johnny Walberg.

Pink Elephants.

The Alpha Phi's had their "Pink Elephant Party," and taking it in were Betty Jo Frankfurter and ASTP Marshal Cooksen. Mary Jo Ashton was with her steady fella, Frank Emmons, "Blackie" Blanchard was with ASTP Bob Verkland. Incidentally, Mary Sinclair is definitely gong steady with one Bill Maurice, ASTP, and naturally we saw them among the many... Jaunting along we found the Delta Gamma "Heaven and Hell Party," and saw the twosomes of Shirley Carrithers and Kappa Sig Loring Gunderson, Nell Scott and Randy Keough, J. D. Anderson and ASTP Leonard Littlejohn, Flo Scott and John Scanlon, ASTP, and Jean Swarr and ASTP Miller Foster.

Incidentally.

Kappa Miggs Manning is happy to see hero Bob Storz back in the

We Present . . .

Jo Marty

The "Boys fro Syracuse" had nothing on Nebraska's Girl from Syracuse, tall, dark, and amazing "Jo" Martz. Syracuse, we hear is a suburb of York, but it doesn't bother "Jo." She just went ahead and got elected AWS secretary, Student Council member, Tassel, and assistant business manager of the Daily Nebraskan anyway. She's also an Alpha Phi and friendly as coeds come.

"Jo" Martz.

"Jo" is a familiar sight, tearing about the campus, coattails flying in the wind, a flower or a whole garden in her dark hair, and getting a great kick out of the entire business of living. Around Lincoln you'll hear people say, "Martz is crazy," "Martz is wonderful," "Martz is crazy." Well, they're probably all right, and what's more, the girl is a human dynamo of energy. She wants to be a public relations counsellor, but most of all "Jo" says she just wants a home and family. Right now, she is all fired up about a project for rejuvenating the city of Lincoln, and she even has Lincoln interested.

Twenty years from now, we are looking forward to long, dark, little Martz's tearing from meeting to meeting "Like mama used to do."

U.S.A. and stationed, of all places, at the Lincoln Air Base!... Alpha Phi Beck Ely is having as house guest at her home in Ainsworth, Engineer, Bill Meckling (incidentally this has seemed to be a new romance at NU)... Tri Delt Marian White received some beautiful flowers from one Tom Connelly of Marines... Kappa Dorch Douglas is excited, and who wouldn't be, over the return of Ed Brega, handsome Lt. (j.g.), just ashore from sea duty... And say there, Sig Ep Bob Henderson was really stepping out Friday when he escorted "four" lil' Alpha Phi's to dinner at the Cornhusker, namely Amy Brown, Virginia McCulla, Joan Martz and Polly Petty. (Well, all reet!)

Mortar Board Book Names

NAME .....
PERMANENT ADDRESS .....
SERVICE ADDRESS .....

(In order to get the Mortar Board book up to date, all students are asked to turn in to the Union office all names of men or women who are graduates or undergraduates of UN and are in the service. It is not necessary to turn in names that are already in the Mortar Board book or in the Rags For Service Men files. Will all students please co-operate by filling in this blank (and turning it in as soon as possible.)

Have a Coca-Cola = What's the good word?

... or how to get along with folks

Have a "Coke", says the returned soldier and his friendly gesture is understood in Newport or New Zealand, at home or in far-off places. Around the world Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the gesture of good will, saying Let's be friends.
